Dr. Oldham Dead

One of the best known medical men in the county of Grey passed away at Chatsworth on Wednesday night of last week, in the person of Lt.-Col. Edmund Oldham, M. D. For over 25 years he was medical officer of the old 31st regiment and was the medical examiner during the war of all recruits from this district. The late Col. Oldham was about 60 years of age. Graduating at an early age from Queen's University, Col. Oldham commenced to practice near Chatsworth, and since then has served the people of that district with a devotion that had won for him the love and respect of hundreds of families. He was a member of the Anglican church, a Conservative in politics, and a member of St. George's Lodge, A. F. and A. M. Besides his widow, Dr. Oldham is survived by one daughter—Mrs. R. Vanbuskirk of Toronto—and one son, Maurice, at home. The elder son, Dr. Morell, was a victim of the influenza epidemic in 1918.

Meaford Man is Generous

A Meaford man who is the father of a large family and who possesses no financial means beyond what he earns from day to day, had the misfortune recently to lose his cow through exposure resulting from getting into a place where she was unable to find her way out for several days, the owner meanwhile not knowing where to look for her. A prominent citizen of the town on hearing of the loss was impressed with the fact that it was a case in which a helping hand would not come amiss. He therefore very generously purchased a Hereford cow at a cost of $150 and presented it to the loser with best wishes for plenty of milk and future success. It is gratifying to know that we have in our midst men of a sympathetic and helpful turn of mind who are prepared to do a good deed without hope of notoriety or reward—Mirror.

Chopping every Saturday only—Graham Bros., Eugenia.

The farmer who is patting himself on the back that he has no mortgage on his farm is deceiving himself. In round numbers there is a debt of two and a half billions on this country. As there are about nine million people in Canada that means a bonded debt of $250 for every man, woman and child. If a man has a wife and two of a family he has an indirect plaster on his farm for $1,000.

Mr. Ed. Schnurr, formerly manager and more recently plant chief for The Bell Telephone Co. in Orangeville and district, has been appointed Supervisor of Repair and Construction work at Sault Ste Marie, Ont., and will leave for that city on Thursday. The appointment is quite an important promotion and as such a deserved recognition of Mr. Schnurr's zeal and ability in the service of the Company.
