WERE KIN TO TURKS.

Writer States Bulgarians Are Oldest Nation in Europe.

It is curious to think that the original Bulgarians were probably closely akin to the Turks who today are the bitter foes of Bulgaria. In all probability they were a Tartar race, part of the great Hun confederacy, which almost made an end of the Roman Empire in the middle of the fifth century. After the break-up of the Hunnic Empire they formed part of that of the Avars, but in 626, after their defeat before Constantinople, the power of the Avars declined and Kurt, the Khan of the Bulgarians, became independent. The Bulgars at that time lay on the northwest shores of the Black Seas. In 679 Khan Ispich and part of the tribe crossed the Danube into ancient Moesia, then waste and desolate except for a sparse population of Slavs.

They were not, however, very numerous, and were steadily absorbed by the Slavs among whom they had intruded. After the lapse of three centuries little of the Tartar remained in the Bulgarian nation. To-day the Bulgarians are nearly pure Slavs with a certain admixture of the ancient Thracian blood. The name is all that is left of the race which came with Ispinch across the Danube in 679. For three centuries Bulgaria remained an uneasy bed-fellow to the Roman Empire, sometimes in a state of vassalage, sometimes independent, often fiercely hostile.

In 971 Emperor Johannes I. conquered the east—the present Bulgaria proper—and after a struggle of thirty years Basil II., "The Bulgar Slayer," subjugated the west, and with it all the Slav lands to the head of the Adriatic. Bulgaria remained a Byzantine province until 1186, when it rose in revolt under three brothers, and after many years of war regained its independence, which was assured by the destruction of the eastern empire in 1204. Under Johannes Asen II. (1218-41) it rose to a great height of power, once more covering most of the interior of Ba... but after this great monarch's death the kingdom steadily declined.

GOOD NATURED AGAIN.

Good Humor Returns with Change to Proper Food.

"For many years I was a constant sufferer from indigestion and nervousness, amounting almost to prostration," writes a Western man.

"My blood was impoverished, the vision was blurred and weak, with dancing spots before my eyes. This was a steady daily condition. I grew irritable, and eventually so nervous I could not keep my books posted, nor handle accounts satisfactorily. I can't describe my sufferings.

"Nothing I ate agreed with me, till one day I happened to notice Grape-Nuts in a grocery store, and bought a package out of curiosity to know what it was.

"I tried the food from the very first, eating it with cream, and now I buy it by the case and use it daily. I soon found that Grape-Nuts food was supplying brain and nerve force as nothing in the drug line ever had done or could do.

"It wasn't long before I was restored to health, comfort and happiness.

"Through the use of Grape-Nuts food my digestion has been restored, my nerves are steady once more, my eye-sight is good again, my mental faculties are clear and acute, and I have become so good-natured that my friends are truly astonished at the change. I feel younger and better than I have for 20 years. No amount of money would induce me to surrender what I have gained through the use of Grape-Nuts food." Name given by Canadian Postum Co., Windsor, Ont. "There's a reason." Read the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

Ever read the above letter? A new one appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human interest.

BIG GAME IN EAST AFRICA.

Portuguese Territories the Best Field for Huntsmen.

The big game shooting grounds of British East Africa have become so widely and generally known that they have blotted out of mind the Zambesi Valley to the south, the forests of Gorongoza and Gouro and the courses of a dozen rivers that break into the Indian Ocean through Portuguese territory. To the big game hunter with a desire for trophies British East Africa presents undoubted advantages over any other country in the world, but to the sportsman who wishes to test his powers of woodcraft to the full and on the supreme scale, so far as game is concerned, Portuguese East Africa offers a field that is unsurpassed.

Portuguese East Africa still contains the following big game in abundance: Buffalo, crocodile, eland, elephant, giraffe, brindled and white tailed gnu or wildebeeste, hartbeeste, hippopotamus, hyena, kudoo, rhinoceros, roan antelope, sable antelope, water buck and zebra. There is a great variety of smaller game. Not all of the species mentioned can be hunted indiscriminately, but each may be hunted under certain conditions in certain districts after securing the necessary gun permits and shooting licenses.

Tom—You spend altogether too much money on that girl. Don't you know girls always accept everything a man gives them and then marry the fellow who saves his money? Jack—Sure I do. That's the reason I'm blowing in mine.

EVERY FIRE IS CRIME.

How Berlin, Germany, Keeps Down Fire Loss.

In Berlin every fire is a crime. That is the law. And, it is asked, why not? Run down the truth about any fire, and some one person will be found whose negligence or guilt was the cause of it.

Somebody stored dangerous quantities of inflammable or explosive goods on the premises, or he built a frame structure next to a sweatshop. He took chances with human lives—because it was cheap.

In Berlin it is not cheap. The police investigate every fire, says one authority, and the responsible person pays the cost of putting out the fire and damages besides. Note the result. In Chicago, the American city of equal size, the annual fire loss is $6,000,000; in Berlin, $200,000.

AFTER EFFECTS OF LONG ILLNESS

SPEEDILY VANISH WHEN YOU USE DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Loren G. Ladd only found complete relief after using the Great Canadian Kidney Remedy.

Ladd's Mills, Stanstead Co., Que., Feb. 24 (Special).—That the seeds of disease left in the body after an illness are sure to cause trouble is the experience of Loren G. Ladd, a well known young man in this community. Mr. Ladd has also learned that those seeds can be cleared out of the body and perfect health restored by Dodd's Kidney Pills.

"At the age of six I had Scarlet Fever," Mr. Ladd states. "At twelve I had Typhoid Fever, and at fourteen I had Measles. About a year later I began to be troubled by swellings of the face, feet and hands. The doctor told me I had Kidney trouble. He gave me medicine but the swellings continued to come at intervals of a week to a month.

"Two years ago one box of Dodd's Kidney Pills stopped the swellings. Last winter the swellings returned and again I was cured by using Dodd's Kidney Pills."

Healthy Kidneys strain the seeds of disease out of the blood. Dodd's Kidney Pills make healthy Kidneys.

BEAUTIFUL SPY BLOWN UP.

Revolutionary Nemesis, Mary Bachadze, Killed by Bomb.

Mary Bachadze, famous as one of the most beautiful women in Caucasia, Russia, has met with a terrible fate. She was married to a young man who was once a revolutionary, and Mary Bachadze shared his views.

When reaction, however, gained the upper hand, the man became afraid and turned informer. One day he was blown to pieces by a bomb placed on his own doorstep.

Mary Bachadze, who loved her husband passionately, became enraged against the revolutionaries, especially as she did not believe that her husband had acted as a spy.

For years she has persecuted the adherents of the revolutionary cause. No less than 850 of them have been arrested through her instrumentality, and many have been executed.

She knew that she had been condemned to death, but continued ruthlessly her plan of revenge. She took the most vigorous precautions. She never stirred out unless accompanied by detectives, and her flat communicated by means of a secret passage with the police bureau.

But she, too, was caught in the end. She received a basket of beautiful cherries from an old flame of hers, and was imprudent enough to take it into her flat. An awful explosion occurred, and the beautiful spy was killed.

Is Fatal Catarrh in Your Family?

It Runs Hand in Hand With Bronchitis, Weak Throat, Pneumonia, Consumption.

Doctors state that 95 per cent. of the Canadian people suffer from Catarrh. Few escape it. You can easily recognize it from the bad taste in the mouth and from lack of appetite in the morning. In bad cases the mucous drops from the throat into the stomach and causes nausea. The throat fills with phlegm, the patient sneezes and coughs continually, not infrequently there is lassitude and chilliness and aching in the limbs.

Doctors recommend Catarrhozone, it is nature's own cure. It drives out the germs, heals sore spots, cleans away every vestige of Catarrhal taint.

You send the soothing vapors of the pine woods, the richest balsams and healing essences, right to the cause of your cold by inhaling Catarrhozone. Little drops of wonderful curative power are distributed through the whole breathing apparatus by the air you breathe. Like a miracle, that's how Catarrhozone cures bronchitis, catarrh, colds, and irritable throat. You simply breathe its healing fumes, and every trace of disease flees as before fire.

So safe, infants can use it, so sure to relieve, doctors prescribe it, so beneficial in preventing winter ills that no person can afford to do without Catarrhozone. Used in thousands of cases without failure. Complete outfit, $1.00, lasts three months, and is guaranteed to cure; smaller size 50c, all dealers or the Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N.Y., and Kingston, Ont.

Is Widows' Suburb.

Charlottenburg, the fashionable western suburb of Berlin, Germany, is known as the "widows' town." At the last census no fewer than 14,543 widows were registered as residing within its boundaries. This is very nearly half of the total surplus of women over men that is to be found in the town—29,240. In no other town in Germany can such a proportionate surplus of the female sex be found. The number of widowers is extraordinary small in proportion, being only 2,358.

People who are rolling in wealth should be able to find a better use for it.

TSETSE FLY RAMPANT.

Several Important African Roads Closed to Animal Transport.

How great a menace is the tsetse fly to the progress of certain regions of Africa is shown in the report of Sir William H. Manning, governor of Nyasaland. The prevalence of the fly has made it necessary to close many important roads against all forms of animal transport. One of the highways thus closed to animal-drawn vehicles is the road between Blantyre, the chief commercial centre of the country, and Zomba, the administrative capital, but twenty-three miles of it, or more than half, has been macadamized, in order that motor vehicles can use it, and work on the remainder is going on rapidly. The ordinary roads of the country are impassable for ox wagons during the rainy season, which extends from November to May. For this reason a great increase of macadamized highways is desirable. Unless it is provided, the newly-developed agricultural settlements of the protectorate will suffer greatly.

Now Hates Apple Sauce.

Frank Hinse, of Rockford, England, ate a barrel of apples in ten days. It was a regulation barrel. Hinse accomplished the feat for a bet. His wager netted him £10, and he was 17 lbs. heavier when he had finished. He has now a dislike for apples which he cannot express in words. He figures it will be ninety years at least before he asks anyone to "please pass the applesauce." Hinse was visiting the warehouse of a friend when he remarked some apples on display looked so good he believed he could eat a barrel of them. His friend wagered £10 that Hinse couldn't eat a barrelful in ten days. Scores called at the store daily to see how Hinse was getting along, and many side wagers were made.

For Croupy Children Keep 'Nerviline' Handy

It Positively Brings Children Out of Danger and Relieves at Once.

A MOTHER TELLS HER EXPERIENCE.

"Bringing up young children has its responsibilities under the best of circumstances," writes Mrs. E. G. Fagan, of Holmes Corners, "but croupy colds add considerable to the worry. My little family of four all went through the croupy era, but I always had Nerviline on hand and never felt nervous. I just followed the directions, and I can tell you that nothing I know of is surer to cure croupy colds than Nerviline.

"In our home we use Nerviline frequently. For cold in the chest, pleurisy, hoarseness etc., it is simply wonderful. My husband uses it for rheumatism, and I often employ it for neuralgia and sick headache. Nerviline has so many uses that no mother can afford to be without it."

The large family size bottle, which sells at 50c., is the most economical; trial size, 25c. Your storekeeper or druggist sells Nerviline, which is prepared by The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y.

WILLOW-MADE LIFEBOATS.

Built to Hold Thirty-five—And to Be "Unbreakable."

Aboard one of the ships which sail between London and Rotterdam there has been recently installed a species of lifeboat which is quite novel. These boats which do not weigh more than the ordinary lifeboat of wood, are made to hold thirty-five people and are composed of several concentric layers. The exterior is of willow, then comes a layer of another wood, then another of canvas, a second layer of wood, and a second layer of canvas. The interior of the boat is of wood. Experience has demonstrated that this kind of lifeboat is practically "unbreakable," and it is guaranteed to resist the kind of shock which so easily overturns the ordinary lifeboat. It is also expected that this new lifeboat will keep afloat indefinitely in the stormiest weather.

Bees Form Robber Bands.

The School of Tombros asserts that almost every variety of human wrong-doing finds its counterpart in the crimes committed by animals. Among the bees there is much theft. In order to save themselves the trouble of working, robbers attack the masses, kill them, rob the hives and carry off the booty when they can't obtain it by stealth. Specimens have acquired an incurable taste for robbery and make up regular colonies of bandits. It is possible to reduce these colonies to law and order by a simple process of giving working bees a mixture of honey and brandy to drink.
