THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

INTERNATIONAL LESSON, JULY 27.

Lesson IV. Moses's Request Refused. Exod. 4. 29 to 6. 1.

Golden Text, Matt. 5. 4.

Having determined to obey the command of Jehovah and return to Egypt, Moses is further instructed as to how he shall proceed in dealing with Pharaoh in order to secure his consent to the departure of the Hebrews from Egypt. While Moses is still on his way his brother Aaron is divinely commanded to leave Goshen and proceed into the wilderness to meet Moses, and to assist him in his momentous undertaking. Somewhere in the desert east of Egypt the brothers meet and return together into Egypt, where, first of all, they summon the elders of Israel to a conference and show them the signs by which Jehovah had set his seal of indorsement upon their errand.

Verse 1. Afterward—Following the meeting of Moses and Aaron with the elders of Israel, they proceed immediately to present their request to Pharaoh in person, making it very plain to the king that they have come in the name of Jehovah, the God of Israel.

Let my people . . . hold a feast unto me in the wilderness—They do not immediately present their demand for the entire liberation of the Israelites from bondage, but proceed to test the king's temper and attitude toward the Israelites by a much more modest request—that for permission to make a short religious pilgrimage and offer sacrifices to Jehovah just beyond the borders of Egypt.

2. Who is Jehovah?—Pharaoh feigns ignorance concerning any other gods than his own, and asks, not for information, but in utter contempt, concerning the God in whose name they venture to ask a favor of him.

3. The God of the Hebrews—Even the Hebrews themselves had not yet risen to the exalted conception of Jehovah as the one and only true God over all nations and peoples. His claims upon his own people are here set over against the claims which other gods might have upon other peoples.

4. Wherefore do ye . . . loose the people from their works?—The king dismisses their petition without even an answer and abruptly changes the subject by accusing Moses and Aaron of meddlesome interference with the daily tasks of the people.

Get you unto your burdens—The command is to Moses and Aaron as representatives of the people.

5. Many—In the estimation of Pharaoh there were already far too many Hebrews in the land. To lessen their burden and grant them leisure for religious feasts and ceremonies would tend only to increase their strength and make them so much the greater menace to the land which held them in slavery.

6. The taskmasters are the Egyptian overseers and slave-drivers, while the officers are Hebrew scribes or clerks, whose duty it was to keep an account of the number of the bricks made and the other tasks performed by each individual.

7. Straw to make brick—The Egyptian bricks were made of mud from the Nile mixed with straw. It was customary to stamp the name of the reigning king upon the separate bricks, and modern excavations in Egypt have brought to light a number of these bricks bearing the name of Rameses II., father of the Pharaoh referred to in our lesson passage.

Gather straw for themselves—They would not be able to secure good straw, but would be compelled to find a substitute in the field rubbish of every kind, including twigs, stems, roots, and withered leaves. To prepare this for use in brickmaking required that it should be sorted and chopped, this process entailing double labor on the part of the Israelites.

8. Lay upon them—Require of them.

9. Let them not regard lying words—Such as Moses and Aaron, had in the thought of Pharaoh been guilty of in encouraging the people to believe that they might hope for a favorable reply to their request.

12. Throughout all the land of Egypt—Not to be taken literally, but meaning rather "far and wide."

Stubble for straw—Compare verse 7 above.

14. Officers . . . were beaten—The Hebrew scribes and timekeepers suffered with the delinquent workmen themselves.

The remaining verses of our lesson (5. 15 to 6. 1) give the complaint of the oppressed people to Moses and Aaron because of their increased burdens, and the assurance given by Jehovah to Moses that he, Jehovah, would so deal with Pharaoh that the stubborn king would yield and virtually drive the Hebrews out of the land.

WAS A CONFIRMED DYSPEPTIC

Now Finds It a Pleasure to Enjoy Meals

Here is a case which seemed as bad and as hopeless as yours can possibly be. This is the experience of Mr. H. J. Brown, 384 Bathurst St., Toronto, in his own words:

I simply had confirmed dyspepsia with all its wretched symptoms, and tried about all the advertised cures with no success. You have in Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets the best curative agent I could find. It is now such a pleasure to enjoy meals with their consequent nourishment that I want to mention this for the benefit of others."

The fact that a lot of prescriptions or so-called "cures" have failed to help you is no sign that you have got to go on suffering. Try Na-Dru-Co Dyspepsia Tablets and see how quickly this sterling remedy will give you relief and start your stomach working properly. If it doesn't help you, you get your money back. 50c a box at your druggist's. Compounded by the National Drug and Chemical Co. of Canada, Limited, Montreal. 141

MEXICAN RAILWAY DESTROYED BY GUERILLAS.

Pictorial Comment on Mexican Situation.

Why the United States Ambassador to Mexico has been rushed to Washington to confer with the President is no longer a mystery in the light of such pictures as the above. The guerillas are destroying railways in which European and American capital is interested, and such acts are said to have been common since Huerta assumed the reins of power.

A Heated Argument.

A Scotsman and an Englishman were engaged in a heated argument, in the midst of which the Englishman said: "Can you tell me why a Scotsman who comes to London is like a ship that is lost?" The Scotsman gave it up. "Well," said the Englishman, "he never returns." "Oh," said Sandy, "can you tell me the difference between an Englishman and an escaped gas?" After some thought the Englishman had to confess he did not. "Well," said Sandy, "never mind."

NEATNESS HALTS AGE.

Doctor Tells of Beneficial Psychic Influence of "Sprucing Up."

Neatness, bathing and massage are recommended to men past middle age who would avoid manifestations of decline. Dr. I. L. Nascher writes in the Medical Journal:

"The improvement in the general appearance has a profound psychic influence, not only directly through the stimulation of the sense of pride in appearance, but indirectly through the flattering comments which it arouses. This important measure is generally neglected by men, yet aside from the beneficial psychic influence, for aesthetic persons alone the old man should endeavor to make himself appear as attractive as possible. This does not mean that he should resort to the artificial devices that middle aged and elderly women employ to enhance their charms. It does mean that the old man should stimulate the surface circulation by means of baths and massage, remove wrinkles and folds by inunction with animal fats, try to stimulate the growth of hair on the head and remove hair from abnormal situations as the ears, use a cane and wear braces to overcome the tendency to stoop, employ harmless cosmetic measures to improve his appearance, and, above all, observe a sense of neatness in dress. Instead of decrying such a course as vanity it should be encouraged as a laudable effort to maintain a youthful spirit."
