The Advance had a pleasant call from Brother Ramage of the Durham Review on Friday last. He was over in company with Mr. Calder, a member of the County Roads committee, who, in company with Mr. Boyd of Markdale, was in town examining the county road machinery and ordering repairs, which were badly needed after the work down in Proton.

The demonstration at Owen Sound on Thursday last was a big affair—probably the most successful event ever held at the county seat. It was estimated that twenty thousand outsiders visited the city on that day, and they came in hundreds of cars from all points of the compass and from great distances. The visitors also considered that they got their money's worth in all but the horse racing, which was poor. The flying stunts by Bishop and McCarthy were an immense drawing card, and their exhibition was a thrilling one. Altogether, Owen Sound should be much pleased and proud over the first celebration since it became "The Grey City."

Eugenia L. O. L. will hold a celebration at Eugenia on July 12. Good accommodation for those coming a distance is being made. A good band is expected and a real good time is in store for those who come.

After service Sunday night the members of the Presbyterian Sabbath school marched to the cemetery, accompanied by the pastor and congregation, and decorated the grave of their little comrade, Charley Stewart, who passed away a week ago. The tribute was a fine one and the little ceremony quite affecting.

The anniversary services in connection with Chalmers' Presbyterian church on Sunday last were largely attended and very successful. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Fowler, preached at both services. At night the church was crowded to its capacity.

Mr. Emerson Bellamy received a letter from an overseas friend, Sergt. O. Jasper of New Zealand, this week, in which he states that the government there has donated each returned man 36c per day for his services from the time he left New Zealand until his discharge. A monster celebration will be held at Victoria Park in the City of Owen Sound on July 12th to commemorate the 230th Anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. R. from Hanover and Wiarton. Arrangements are being made to accommodate the largest crowd ever seen here. Mr. Henry Cairns is now a firm believer in printer's ink. He recently advertised in The Advance for three horses that had strayed away. Two or three days after the paper came out he got word that the animals were out west of Durham. Needless to say he was delighted to recover them.

The Flesherton Bible Depository has just placed in stock the largest selection of Bibles and Testaments ever shown here, ranging in price from a few cents to five dollars. There are some very fine gift books and family Bibles in this lot. The Depository is kept at The Advance Office.

Fenwick—Poole

Wednesday afternoon, June 30, the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Poole, Osprey, was the scene of a happy event, when their daughter, Margaret Gertrude, was uni ed in marriage to Harold Franklin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fenwick. Rev. A. P. Stanley of Markdale was the officiating minister, assisted by Adjutant Poole, an uncle of the bride. Miss Frances Alexander of Feversham played the wedding march. The bride, who was given away by her father, was gowned in a beautiful white satin with overdress of white georgette and the bodice embroidered in white silk. She wore the groom's gift, a gold wrist watch, and a corsage bouquet of Sweetheart Roses and maidenhair fern. A tulle bridal veil nicely caught up in cap effect about the head, completed a very pretty bridal costume. The bridal couple, who were unattended, stood under an artistically arranged arch of evergreens, with several white bells suspending. At the close of the ceremony, when the register was being signed, Miss Emily Fenwick, sister of the groom, sang very sweetly "Because." The dining room was prettily decorated with white ribbon streamers and two tall vases holding pink and white flowers with green foliage centred the table, on which a sumptuous wedding repast was prepared. The bride received numerous pretty gifts. The groom's gift to the pianist was a French ivory jewel case, and to the soloist a pretty pendent.

Mr. and Mrs. Fenwick left on a motor trip to Toronto, Hamilton and Niagarr, the bride travelling in a suit of sand taffeta with hat to match. A host of friends wish the happy young couple bon voyage through life.
