Naughty Boys At Kimberley

Constable Cook having received notice from Kimberley that some boys were disturbing meetings in the church and League meetings, Cook went to Kimberley and got the names of several young boys who had been the cause of the trouble. The boys, after being interviewed promised that there would be no more disturbance.

The law says that whoever wilfully disturbs, interrupts or disquiets any assemblage of persons met for a religious worship or for any mental, social or benevolent purpose by making a noise either within the place of such meeting, or so near as to disturb the order or solemnity of the meeting may be brought before the justice of the peace and fined not more than $50, and in default of payment one month in prison. Boys, take warning.

In Memoriam

In memory of A. R. Fawcett, editor of the Burks Falls Arrow and founder of the Flesherton Advance, who died quite suddenly at his home, Burks Falls, on August 2, 1919.

Mr. Fawcett was a man of high ideals, strong convictions and a writer of much ability. His integrity and kindliness of spirit were unquestioned by those who knew him. His death was a distinct loss to the journalistic world as well as to the immediate members of the family.
