While driving on the streets of Markdale Friday last Mrs. P. Loucks met with a nasty accident when the horse she was driving became scared at a passing auto, swerved and upset the buggy. Mrs. Loucks had one arm pretty badly strained so that she is unable to use it, but otherwise she was not badly injured. The accident might have been much worse.

A friend of Ye Editor, Mr. Isaac Turner of Winnipeg, says : "The city is full of eastern harvesters these days, some ten thousand, I think, arriving during the last three days. When I see them it reminds me of my arrival here just eighteen years ago this month, with Charlie Hopper, Herb Genoe and others. It is a different looking Winnipeg that greets them now from what it was when we first saw it, the absence of the bar rooms and their "product" being not the least of the improvements.

Orr-Clarke

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Friday evening, July 30, at 8 30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Clarke, Swift Current, when Miss Alice Winnifrid Clarke, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs Clarke, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr John Wesley Orr, son of Mr and Mrs M. G. Orr of Flesherton, Ont., the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. C. B. Gibson.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was charmingly attired in a gown of white satin with an overdress of ninon embroidered in silk. She wore a veil of orange blossoms and carried a bouquet of carnations and sweet peas.

The bridesmaid, Miss Lina M. Clarke, sister of the bride, wore a very pretty dress of pale blue silk mull and carried a bouquet of sweet peas. The groom was ably supported by the bride's brother, Mr Marcus Clarke. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a very handsome pearl necklace, to the bridesmaid a gold brooch set with pearls, and to the best man a gold tie pin. Miss Florence Rothemal played the wedding march and the solo, "Because," was rendered by Mrs R. S. Merry. After the ceremony a very dainty wedding supper was served, the bride's cake centreing the table Among the many beautiful gifts was a very handsome glass bowl from the Massey Harris staff. The out of town guests were Mr and Mrs J. J. Sloan, Rev and Mrs Terry, Miss R. Bracey and Mr Harry Speers. The bride's travelling suit was of navy blue serge and she wore a large picture hat to match. The happy couple left on the midnight flyer amid showers of confetti and cheers for Banff, where the honeymoon will be spent. Mr and Mrs Orr will reside at Wallard, Saskatchewan.
