

LESKARD

Mrs. E. Syer has returned home from Bowmanville. We are pleased to hear that she is so much better.
Mr. and Mrs. E. Warburton and family, Oshawa, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. A. Loucks.
Mr. and Mrs. J. Cameron, Mrs. Davey and Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hamilton, Mrs. E. Duvall and

Mr. and Mrs. A. Robbins attended the Strawberry Festival at Kirby.
Mrs. A. Loucks is spending a week in Kingston visiting her twin sister, Mrs. D. Smeathers.
Visiting with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hamilton, for the Dominion Day week, were Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Fisher and children Norman, Linda and Kathie of Guelph.
We were sorry to hear of the major operation performed last week on

Mrs. Charles Pust but pleased to hear that her progress is satisfactory.
A number from Leskard attended Kirby Anniversary last Sunday.
Most of Leskard and many friends from Kirby attended the funeral of Mr. Angus Watson last Wednesday. Arrangements were ably carried out by Northcutt and Smith, Bowmanville. Special thanks to Mrs. George Carson, who sang the Hymn "Good Morning," beautifully and to Mrs. Bryson, who played the piano.
Congratulations to Mrs. Rudell of Leskard on attaining her 80th birthday this week.
One of the foster children of Mrs. H. Bellamy had his tonsils removed last week. We hope he will soon be better.
Glad to hear that Mr. W. Loucks is much better.
Sunday visitors with Mrs. Mary Spry were Mr. and Mrs. Alf Dewell, Miss G. Dewell, Mr. L. Dewell, Mr. Louis Dewell and son Randy of Bowmanville, Miss Ruby Dewell of Oshawa, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Carter, Caron and Mark, Toronto and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spry and Kathie of Orono.

(Intended for last week)
Mrs. Angus Loucks visited Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Warburton, Oshawa.
Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spry and Kathie visited with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Spry on Sunday.
Mrs. Prust and Lynn are staying at their summer home.
Mr. and Mrs. H. Thompson and sons were in Leskard for the week.
We are sorry to hear that Mrs. E. Syer is on the sick list. We hope she will be better soon.
Mr. W. Loucks is also on the sick list.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fenwick, Summerville and Mrs. N. Armstrong, Toronto were week-end visitors with Mrs. Mary Spry.

We are glad to report that our Strawberry Festival was a success. I will leave it to Ed Youngman to tell you all that went on. If you count your enjoyment by the amount you eat, Ed must have had a good time. We were all pleased to have Mrs. Youngman with us. We wish to thank all our friends in Orono and surrounding districts who supported us. Special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Glen Allen, Mrs. G. Carson and Mrs. Raymond Chapman, who all sang. Mrs. Bryson who played the piano, to Mr. James Cameron and the Orono quartette under Mr. Carlos Tamblin. One and all thank you for making our evening a grand success. Master Billy Wade gave a grand performance on the traps, accompanied by Mrs. Wade on the piano. Mrs. Hamilton made a speech of thanks to all who helped, with their talent and also to those who baked pies and cakes.
Mr. Lorne Robbins has not been well this past week. We wish him a speedy recovery.
Mr. H. Davey, Mr. C. Martin, Mr. James Buckley, Mr. Roy Thompson, Miss Wanda Hobbs and Mr. and Mrs. E. Green all attended Oshawa hospital to give blood for transfusions.
We are sorry to report the death of Mr. Angus Watson. Mr. Watson was operated on at Oshawa Hospital last Wednesday and was getting along fine, but had a relapse on Sunday night and died on Monday at noon. We extend our sympathy to Mrs. Watson and his family.

Miss Wanda Hobbs has returned to Toronto after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. R. Chater.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Page who were married last Saturday.
