PORTLAW

Mr W A Morton received the sad news of the death of his sister, Mrs Orr, in Toronto. The remains were brought up on Monday for interment in Mount Zion cemetery.

Mr and Mrs Robert Fisher's little daughter, Marguerite, is somewhat improved.

Miss Lillian McKenzie is also a little better.

Miss Aleta Jamieson and friend of Toronto visited with friends here.

Mr W G Jamieson goes to Owen Sound this week to attend Court as a Juror.

Mr and Mrs F Cairns of Flesherton were visitors with their friends here last week.

Threshing is now the order of the day.

Old Durham Road

The sun has again crossed the equator and started on its long journey south. To some this means short days and long evenings ; to others long days and short evenings. To which class do we belong?

We are pleased to see Mr and Mrs Dave MacDonald back to their old home here, after spending the summer months in the vicinities of Chatsworth and Owen Sound. We understand the change has greatly improved Mr MacDonald's health.

The H. S. students from Flesherton spent the week end at their respective homes.

Mr Jimmie Oliver is at present confined to his bed with an attack of typhoid fever. We hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr Archie Gurry is on the sick list at present.

Rev Berry called on old acquaintances in our vicinity last week.

Mr Wm Meads spent Sunday at Swinton Park.

DUNDALK

There are nine twins attending school in Dundalk at present.

Will Dalton is home from Toronto. He had the misfortune of getting the ends of two fingers cut off a few weeks ago in a paper cutting machine in the factory where he was employed in the city.

A new Chevrolet auto parked near the Presbyterian Church was damaged by fire Sunday morning while the owners were in Church attending the service. The cushions and upholstering of the front seat were badly burned but luckily the blaze was noticed by a passerby in time to save the car from destruction.

Joseph Coulter, well known farmer of the 14th Con., Proton, was suddenly stricken with paralysis on Sunday night shortly after arriving home from the anniversary services at Bethel Church. He had been in Dundalk on Saturday and was in his usual good health. His condition is said to be serious.

Leslie Copeman, for some years in the employ of the late W. T. Rundle, has purchased the business and will continue on in the old stand. We trust the enterprise of the new proprietor will be rewarded with a good measure of success. —Herald.

DURHAM

While at the Owen Sound Fair last week, Mr and Mrs Robt Campbell of Durham yielded to persuasion and entered their baby boy, Donald, in the Baby Show, held in connection with the big annual event in the Northern City. While we have an idea that the fond father has all along entertained the notion that he was the daddy of about the prettiest baby in this part of the country, his claims were well sustained last week when the judges awarded his offspring the red ticket in the contest.

Mr Mark Wilson of Flesherton, formerly of Durham, was in town the first of the week making arrangements for opening a butcher shop in town. He has rented quarters in the McNally building just north of The Chronicle office, which he will fit up, and expects to be ready for business in the course of a couple of weeks. Mrs Wilson and young son accompanied him here and will move to town when a residence can be procured. —Chronicle.

PRICEVILLE

The very warm weather of the past week was a surprise to everyone.

The grain crops are abundant this season. Colin McLean's big threshing outfit has been several days threshing for village farmers and is now in the country west of the town.

On the 16th a telegram announced that James Watson of Walters Falls, formerly of Priceville, had passed away suddenly that morning. Deceased was 63 years of age, but was affected for some months with heart trouble. The funeral took place on Monday, Sept. 20, to Owen Sound and then by G T R and Michigan Central to Cheboygan, Mich., where his first wife and eldest daughter are laid in a private vault in the public cemetery. Two brothers, Robert J. and Alfred W. of Toronto, also Mrs W Watson of Durham, also Mr and Mrs T. A. Ferguson, the latter a sister, motored up on Sunday and remained until Monday evening. A brother, Geo Watson, of Walters Falls, undertaker, had charge of the funeral. Two sisters of deceased reside at Cheboygan, and his two married daughters of detroit met the funeral at Cheboygan. The Methodist pastor, assisted by the Rev Mr Henry, church of England pastor, conducted service at the residence on Sunday evening previous.

Mr McDonald of Galt, a Hydro foreman, was in town during last week.

We are hoping for fine weather for our fall fair on Oct 7 and 8. There will be some live foxes, both old and young ones. Bring the children in to see them on the afternoon af the 8th.

SHELBURNE

The frame dwelling occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Claude Carson, on the Gravel Road, near Melancthon Station was completely destroyed by fire late on Saturday evening last together with the entire contents. The fire was not discovered until the whole interior was a mass of flames. Mr. and Mrs. Carson were in Shelburne at the time, and owing to the chilly evening, remained in town over night, and were not aware of their loss until Sunday morning. The house was owned by Geo. Shoaff of Andrew street, and was insured for $350, while Mr. Carson carried $450 on the contents.

Shelburne will shortly boast of a tri-weekly picture show. Mark Lear of Thornbury and Clarksburg was granted the use of the town hall for this purpose by the town council at its meeting on Friday evening last. The rental to be charged will be $20 per month.

An important business deal was transacted in Shelburne last week whereby Messrs. Hamilton & Co. disposed of their roller mills on Main street east to Messrs. Wm. Stewart and Sam. Phoenix of this town. The property also includes an up-to-date dwelling immediately west thereof. Mr. Hamilton has been connected with the mills for more than 16 years. —Free Press.

The newspapers of the United States and Canada consume 2,150,000 tons of newsprint annually. Stated in this way, it probably conveys little information to you respecting the effect upon our forests. You will better appreciate the situation when I say that it represents the denudation of the mature trees on an area of 1,000 square miles of forest land each and every year. This will give you an idea of the enormous inroads that newsprint manufacturer is making upon the forests of North America.

East Grey Fall Fair

Flesherton Fall Fair has once more come and gone and this time it was blessed with the choicest of weather and a large crowd. The various departments were fairly well filled, the inside exhibit being quite up to former years, taken all round. Outside the stock was on the slim side, although some fine animals were shown. The poultry exhibit was good, a splendid variety of choice breeds being on exhibition. One of the largest exhibitors in this line was Mr. Barber of Honeywood, Reeve of Mulmur township, who is a great poultry fancier and handles a number of varieties. He and another gentleman brought up two car loads of fowl.

There was a bumper house at the concert in the high school. The talent was new here and on the whole was well up to the standard of fall fair concerts.

The horse racing was rather slow. There were five horses here, but the animals had raced in Shelburne on Wednesday and were driven up here on Thursday, and were quite fagged. The Palmer horse of Dundalk, which was to have been here, developed lameness Thursday after racing at Shelburne, and his racing for this fall is over. Following are the results of the various events :

The concert receipts amounted to $257.60 and the gate receipts approximately $275.

County Constable McCaffrey was on the ground and put a crimp in a couple of fake concerns before they even began operations.

A new feature was a display of both Fordson and Samson tractors. The tractor is the coming power for the farm.

The merchants of the town closed their places of business for two hours during the afternoon, giving all hands a chance to attend. There is evidence of reviving interest in this fair, and the directors are determined to foster this by adding to the prize list and attractions next year. If this is done and all pull together there is no reason why the Flesherton fair could not be made one of the very best in this district.
