The Farmer-Banker Alliance

You go to your lawyer for legal advice; to the doctor for medical advice; why not to The Merchants Bank for financial advice?

If you want a loan to buy cattle, hogs or equipment—if you want information as to how to invest money—come to those who make a business of financial matters, and are in a position to give you sound and impartial advice.

Misplaced Confidence

From the Alliston Herald

Arnel Love's conviction that he caused his mother's death some years ago is said to be an obsession. This is the decision to which the mental specialists have come. It is said that in every other respect young Love shows no signs of irrationality. Brooding over his mother's death and the murder of his father on the scaffold by the officers of the law, have resulted in his really thinking he killed his mother. This is an age of wonderful advancement in all branches of science, but it has not yet been authoritatively stated that telepathy is worthy of confidence. How can alienists who find a young man rational in every respect—except one (according to them)—learn from him the connected story of a crime the circumstances of which are borne out by facts known to the neighbors at the time of the tragedy—how can these mental specialists decide that Love merely imagines what he states? We have learned to put implicit faith in specialists, but surely this is misplacing confidence. Were capital punishment not the law of the land the verdict of the alienists might have been different. The law says that a life must be taken for a life and the life of young Love's father having been taken for the life of the boy's mother, the law is in the embarrasing position of having to justify itself as best it can.

Ralph, the four year old son of F. Morrison of Nottawasaga, was instantly killed by being run over by a water tank on his father's farm.

The Mother of Twenty-Two

Probably no other woman in Owen Sound can boast of being the mother of eighteen living children, except Mrs. Amelia Lihou, 1144 1st Avenue west, says the Sun Times. Mrs. Lihou is 58 years of age and came to Canada only four months ago from Alderney island, English Channel, where she had lived all her life. She was only married once, her husband, the late Thomas Lihou, having died about six years ago. Three of Mrs. Lihou's children died when quite young and one son, Thomas, went down with H.M.S. Good Hope in 1914 off the Chilean coast.

The family has a unique war record. Ten of Mrs. Lihou's children were boys. All of them, with the exception of the youngest, who is 12, served in the British navy during the war, all having entered the service when they were 14 years of age. One of the boys, John, was in a German salt mine during most of the war, having transferred from the navy to the army and having been taken prisoner. Her nine daughters, with the exception of the youngest, who is 16, are married and their husbands all served their country during the war. Two sons, Morris and Charles, were in the Jutland battle, Morris having been previously wounded during fighting at Dardanelles.

The oldest child is Mrs. Tom Mahy 1022 1st Ave. west, who is 38 years old, and whose husband died last winter from the effects of wounds received overseas The youngest is Alex, 12 years old, who came to Canada with his mother, and sister, and his brother Edward, who is 19. With the exception of Mr. Fred Lihou, 788 6th Ave. west, the rest of the children are in England. Mrs. Lihou is quite smart and looks nearly as young as some of her daughters. She has 32 grandchildren and has had experience in nursing and caring for children that should make her services in that capacity very much sought after by those needing such help.

THE purpose of paint is two-fold—it should beautify of course; but, also, it must fully protect the surface to which it is applied. The high cost of repair-work has made us all fully realize the extravagance of letting a building "run down" for lack of a coat of paint.

It is equally important to understand the extravagance involved in the use of poor paint, and to know that there's one paint which leads all others in the matter of economy:

B-H "English" PAINT 70% Pure White Lead (Brandram's Genuine B.B.) 30% Pure White Zinc 100% Pure Paint

No other paint can match it in covering capacity—no other brand can equal its record of permanence. Affording real protection over a long period, it has removed the false notion that a house must be repainted every year. If you use this paint of extreme durability your house is protected for years.
