The public school was closed for half a day on Monday so that the principal might assist the Methodist choir at the funeral of Mrs. Orr, which took place at Mount Zion.

Flesherton high school boys played a return match of baseball at Dundalk one afternoon last week with the Dundalk high school team and came home with smiling faces and a record of 7 to 3. The two seven inning games played by these two teams totalled 13 runs to 7 in favor of Flesherton.

Sneak thieves were operating at the high school on Friday night last while the concert was in progress, on something like a wholesale scale. A large number of autos were parked on the street and the thieves appear to have made quite a haul of tires, tubes, robes, etc. Dr. Marray lost two lap robes and three inner tubes, and Wes. Smith lost a good overcoat and a spare tire off his car. No doubt others would also find something missing later on. It is a pity that humanity has to be pestered with such vermin as thieves of this kind—but the fact remains that they are allowed to exist, along with other plagues, such as lice, bedbugs and cheese maggots. It is thought the thieves were not local, however, as the village has heretofore had a good name in this regard.

Everybody says that Saturday last was the hottest day experienced during the past summer, and "what everybody says must be true." Sunday was another of the same kind.

Mr. Wm. Paton disposed of his fine farm of 200 acres on the South Line last week to Mr. A. D. Irwin of Markdale, the price paid being $9000. Mr. Paton is not decided as to just where he will locate.

The Women's Institute and tea will be held at the home of Mrs. W. Moore on Thursday, Oct. 7. A full attendance is requested. Remember the change of date.

While riding a horse Monday evening the animal stumbled and threw Cecil McTavish from its back, breaking his arm at the wrist. It is only a short time ago since the same arm was broken at about the same place, in fact the first break had only got nicely healed. Cecil is certainly travelling in hard luck.

The Hydro is building an extension transmission line west from Hanover. The Commission has placed an order for a pole erecting machine which will be used for these lines as soon as delivered. It is expected that one mile of poles per day can be erected cross-armed by this machine.

Died—At the home of her son, James Findlay, east back line, Artemesia, on Tuesday, September 14, Mrs. Sophia Findlay, relict of the late Wm. Findlay, aged 81 years. The funeral took place on Thursday, Sept. 16, the remains being interred in Feversham Presbyterian cemetery.

The Superintendent of the Children's Aid Society desires us to thank the collectors for the excellent work which they did at the East Grey Fall Fair held here last week; also the people for their generosity which made it possible for them to roll up the grand total of $40.60.

There will be no Assize Court for the County this fall. There was only one criminal case, that of Hugh McLean for arson, and this will be traversed until the December Session. There was only one civil case and that has been settled. The jurors have been notified not to attend. This all sounds good to us, but the lawyers no doubt take a different view.

George Mitchell, Jr, and Ken. Boyd left this past week to take an Arts course in Toronto university. They are both good students and their many friends will watch their careers with interest. Boys who will put in their holidays working on the roads, instead of playing, as both of these boys did this summer, are made of the right material to succeed in life.

Chard--Ellis

A rather unique wedding took place in Kimberley on Wednesday, September 22nd, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Ellis, when their eldest daughter, Lulu Mae Elfleda, was united in marriage to Robert Walter Chard, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chard of Flesherton. About eighty guests, mostly relatives of the contracting parties, witnessed the ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. J. S. Veals of Kimberley. Mrs. Victor Ellis, sister-in-law of the bride, played the wedding march while the bride was being conducted to the drawing room, leaning on the arm of her father. Winona Ellis, the little niece of the bride, acted the role of ring bearer and flower girl. During the signing of the register, the wedding solo, "Oh Promise Me", was rendered by Mrs. (Rev.) Veals, after which the wedding party retired to the lawn where a dainty buffet luncheon was served. The bride was dressed in white satin, trimmed with georgette crepe, and carried a bouquet of white carnations and white sweet peas Her travelling suit was a pretty navy blue. The groom's gift to the bride was a dainty lavalier. The young couple were the recipients of many useful articles and gifts of money from their relatives and friends. Their wedding tour is through Powassan, Burks Falls and Parry Sound and they will reside on their farm near Flesherton. To this popular young couple we tender our hearty congratulations.
