ROCK MILLS

Mr and Mrs Stanley Gamey of Toronto, visited the past week with Mr and Mrs R Hoy.

Mr and Mrs Thos Betts visited recently with friends at Clarksburg.

Born—On October 1st, to Mr and Mrs Jim Dargavel, a daughter.

Mrs S Phillips of Toronto spent the past week with her brother, R Clark, and other friends here.

Mr Jas Park returned on Monday to his home in Owen Sound after being employed for the past few months with the D. F. Co. here.

Mr and Mrs Ned Croft visited recently with friends at Feversham.

Quite a number from here attended Feversham Fair last week.

Mrs T Julian visited recently with her daughter, Mrs Lewis Pedlar.

Old Durham Road

The people in our vicinity are busy digging their potatoes. Some potatoes are slightly diseased with the rot.

Mr Frank Williamson has returned to the city to attend University.

Born—To Mr and Mrs Robt McNalty, on Sept 22nd, a son. Congratulations.

Mrs Will Williamson and children have returned home after spending a month with her parents at Mount Eagle Valley. We understand her father is in poor health.

Miss Edna Nichol visited recently at Mr Bob Parslow's.

Mr and Mrs Will Reid and friends motored to Creemore last Sunday.

Our beef ring has come to a close after sixteen weeks of good fresh meat. We all hope it will continue next year.

DUNDALK

Herb Corbett of Cloverbrae Farm, Proton Station, delivered to F. G. McBride of Mt. Forest, 25 head of choice feeding steers this week.

R. J. Cornett has sold his farm in Melancthon consisting of lot 41, con. 3, N E T and S Road, to Walter Croft of Artemesia.

Hugh G. Crosby, who has been assisting the Rector during the summer in the service of the Anglican parish, left for his home in Highgate on Monday where he will spend a week before entering again on his theological studies at Huron college at London.

As a tip to pipe smokers who drive cars the Herald should mention that the new Chevrolet auto that was damaged by fire while parked on the street was a pipe victim. The owner had left his pipe on the seat and the upholstering took fire from the burning tobacco which fell from it. Luckily for him the fire was noticed in time to save the car.

James Johnston of this place showed the Herald a potato grown in his garden which for size and smoothness was a beauty. It is no freak with half a dozen growth attachments but was one well formed tuber weighing two pounds and twelve ounces—Herald.

VANDELEUR

A very heavy snow storm passed over this part on October 1st doing considerable damage to fruit and other trees, and corn and clover.

Miss Lillian Buchahan of N. B. C., Owen Sound, spent the week end at her home here.

PRICEVILLE

Snow fell all day Friday of last week, and six inches of soft, wet snow covered everything. We notice a number of shade trees wish limbs broken down.

Some of the members of the committee on Soldiers' Memorial started the excavation for the foundation, but voluntary labor seemed to be a scarce article. We noticed W. J. Meads working all one day with pick and shovel, alone.

The hydro gang will likely have all the poles erected by the middle of the week.

Rev. C. S. Jones exchanged pulpits with Rev. J. A. Matheson of Mono Mills last Sunday, and the remnant of Gaelic speaking people in the Presbyterian congregation would no doubt enjoy a service in the aforesaid language last Sunday morning. A certain Highlander once tried to assure us that it was with this soft, slick dialect that the devil got the better of Eve, while under the shade of the apple tree on the banks of the Euphrates.

Mrs. J. Watson of Walters Falls in returning from the funeral of her late husband, James Watson, to Cheboygan, Mich., after calling on her sister and other friends in Toronto, spent over the week end in Priceville.

Mrs. D. Muir of Port Arthur arrived in town on the evening train Saturday of last week.

John Beaton has removed his household effects to the residence that he purchased in Durham.

Mr and Mrs H. Falkingham, accompanied by Angus and Don McLean, motored over from Durham on Sunday.

What's the matter with our vet. lately? Did "Sally Ann" refuse him!

EAST MOUNTAIN

Held Over Last Week

Miss Nicholson of Flesherton visited at Mr T. Lewis' the first of the week.

Threshing has commenced in our vicinity.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. Albert Ellis, who was bereaved of his brother Tilford, on Friday last. Mr. Ellis attended the funeral at Powassan.

We are sorry to report Mr. T. Lewis in a critical state of health, but hope for a speedy recovery.

Mr. Humberstone and son, Carrol have finished their contract of siding and painting the school here. They also have erected a new school belfry. The school now has an A 1 appearance.

Little Miss Dorothy Genoe, who has been attending school at Eugenia, is home now owing to the illness of her aunt, Miss Kate Jamieson, who has a severe attack of quinsy which followed tonsilitis. Mrs D. Genoe has been aiding at her sister's bedside. We hope that Miss Jamieson will soon be able to be among her friends again.

Alfred Genoe of Eugenia, who has been helping C. Martin the past week, left to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs Win Boyce of Kitchener.

Mr. Jno. Simons of Duncan spent a few days in our vicinity.

Miss Viola Lewis, teacher of Wodehouse school, spent the week end at her parental home.

Auto Thief Caught

The thief who raided autos here on the night of our fall fair has been caught in Collingwood. The police there rounded him up as a vagrant, and he acknowledged to having stolen the auto he drove and which he abandoned on the beach road below Collingwood. He drove the machine into the water and claimed he could not get it out. The thief gave the name of Morgan and said he had stolen the car near Priceville. As a matter of fact the machine, a Maxwell, was stolen at Chatham. Enquiry here elicited the fact that Morgan had been in Priceville on Fair Day and left there about 6 p. m., came over to Flesherton and laid for the night crowd of cars which he went through to the extent of three tubes, two robes, some tools and half a box of cartridges from Dr. Murray's car; and a costly buffalo robe, new spare tire, tube and carrier and new overcoat from Wes. Smith. Others claimed to have lost gasoline, and the same night the lock of S. Osborne's gas tank at Maxwell was broken and gasoline taken. When the car was recovered at Collingwood all this stuff was found in it except the gasoline. Morgan (his correct name is Tiff) was taken to Chatham where he will be tried for theft of the car. He is only a boy, 16 years of age, and is said to be of a respectable family, but a derelict. On Sunday Dr. Murray and Mr. Smith motored over to Collingwood and secured all of the loot that was stolen here, which in Mr. Smith's case amounted to nearly a hundred dollars.

Osprey Fall Fair

Osprey fall fair was held on Tuesday and Wednesday of last week and was very successful, notwithstanding the fact that the second day was not all that could be desired, the afternoon being somewhat showery. The exhibits were fully up to any former year and in some respects much better. Stock was about the same as for other years. Roots, grain, fruit and dairy produce were excellent and there was a big exhibit in ladies' work. Altogether the exhibit was an excellent one and the attendance was cheering to the directors under the circumstances. The only thing we missed was the presence of politicians, who used to attend this fair in bunches but are now evidently about as extinct as the great auk. And The Advance was the only newspaper representative present. For 33 years we have been attending the Osprey fair and watched it grow from very small proportions without a definite home to its present condition as one of the best purely agricultural shows in the county. We were in a retrospective mood and thought of the several sterling men who brought the fair into being and who worked for its welfare in the early days—Messrs. Burke, Clinton, Hudson, Gamey and others—who have passed from their labors here while others carry on the work that they began. These men always took an intense interest in their fair and made its success possible. Dundalk band supplied music for the day.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Semple of Flesherton wish to thank their friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and sympathy during the illness of Mrs. Semple.

Recently Mr. George Kirktown, of Holland Centre, missed a yearling steer from his premises, and thinking perhaps that the animal had wandered some distance away, he planted an advertisement in last week's News. On Tuesday morning, however, Mr. Kirktown, was informed by one of his neighbors that the steer had met its death by drowning in a river which runs through the back of the owner's property. The steer, it appears, by some means got into the water and was unable to get out owing to the presence of a number of floating logs. The animal, along with several other young cattle, was sold to a drover about three weeks ago for $50.—Chatsworth News.

For Service
