The Call of the Wild

The call of the wild has again hit the deer hunters in this locality and they have "hit the trail." Two hunting parties left this station in a special car on Wednesday of this week for Parry Sound district. These parties are known as the Rock Mills club and the High Falls club. They will be located about five miles apart—the Rock Mills club on Dogfish Lake and the High Falls club at their club house, High Falls, on the Shawanaga river. Both parties have always had good success in that district and we trust this year will be no exception.

The first named club are composed of the following: Jas Dargavel, Captain; Wm and Les Chard, Geo Fisher, Thos and Wm Phillips, Thos Howard and D. Williams, Rock Mills; Wilfred Phillips, Palmerston; and Fred Mathewson, Flesherton.

The High Falls Club are represented by: Geo Mitchell, Flesherton, Captain; John McKee, S. Pedlar, John Wright and W. H. Thurston, Flesherton; P. Munshaw and T. Berry, Eugenia; Tom Lockhart, Dundalk; Frank Gerow and Beth McWilliams, Toronto; John Gerow, Brougham; and Joseph Hudson, Brooklyn.

W. Caswell and G. B. Welton of town and Jos and Thos Watson go with a Brampton party to the Lake of Bays district.

Must Not Practice Her Occult Power

Following the decision of the court at Toronto which confirmed the judgment of Judge Dickson convicting Miss Maggie Pollock, of near Blyth, on the charge of practising an occult science, Miss Pollock appeared before the Judge recently for sentence. His Honor admonished her that the practise must cease and bound her over in bonds of $200 from herself and from her brother to refrain from pretensions of occult power and from practising the occult science. She may go as far as stating that it is her opinion that an article may be found in a certain place but this must be the limit. She must not pretend that she has any supernatural power which gives her knowledge of the location of such articles. Should she be found guilty of practising again she may be sentenced both for the new offence and for the old, but in the meantime sentence is suspended.

The case is one that has attracted wide attention. Miss Pollock, whose home is in the neighborhood of Blyth believes that she is possessed of supernatural powers, and that her "God given" gifts should be exercised for the good of humanity. Some wonderful instances have been quoted of her uncanny faculty of locating missing articles without her having any fore knowledge of the circumstances. It was her effort to locate some articles believed to have been stolen which led to her being brought before the county Judge. Miss Pollock says she has had since childhood the power of seeing "spirits" and for some time she did not know that the power was at all peculiar to herself, thinking it was a perfectly natural thing, common to all people. Later she discovered that she was different from other people in this respect, and for years she quietly employed her strange faculty, at the request of neighbors or others who came to her to solve difficulties.

Miss Pollock believes she should exercise her power for the good of humanity, and she set forth her views on the matter in a beautifully worded and written letter to His Honor Judge Dickson some time ago.

Gored to Death By a Bull

A pathetic accident in which an enraged three year old bull played a savage part with fatal results to Chester Patton, of lot 19, 8th line, Amaranth, occurred early on Friday morning of last week. Mr. Patton had arisen early in the morning and, after bringing the cattle in from the pasture field, was busily engaged milking, seated on a milking stool, when he was attacked from the rear by the bull. The animal knocked him from his seat and proceeded to gore him, finally impaling the unfortunate victim on its horns and throwing him some distance into the air. The injuries he received were frightful, his entire abdomen being ripped open, exposing the bowels, while one of the animal's horns pierced his liver. The accident occurred about 7 o'clock in the morning. Medical attendance was immediately summoned from Shelburne and Drs. Fallis and McLean responded and attended to the victim's injuries. Little hope was held out for his recovery, and he passed away about 2 o'clock on Friday afternoon—Shelburne Free Press.
