Study this Map

It tells—but only partly tells—the Story of Misery in Central Europe.

Within the great territory between the black lines millions of destitute children are doomed to grow up weak and deformed through want of fats, milk and sugar, unless immediate help comes from without

HERBERT HOOVER, invited to speak at a Canadian Red Cross meeting, said:

"Our problem over the forthcoming winter appears to be about 3,500,000 to 4,000,000 children.

"These children are the obligation of every man, woman and child in the Western Hemisphere, for we have suffered less; but, beyond this, they are a charge on the heart of the whole world."

Stewart--McMaster

On October 27th a very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George McMaster, 2nd line, Osprey, the occasion being the marriage of their second daughter, Laura Jean, to Mr. Thomas Stewart of McIntyre, Ont. To the strains of Mendellsohn's wedding march, played by the bride's sister, Mrs. Charley Hanley of Eugenia, the bride was escorted into the parlor by her father, who gave her away. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Blackwell of Dundalk, beneath a beautiful and artistic evergreen arch. The bride looked charming in a beautiful costume of taupe silk crepe de chine and bridal veil caught up with orange blossoms. She also carried a bouquet of pink and white forget-me nots and maidenhair ferns, the only ornament being a pearl necklace, the gift of the groom. After the usual congratulations a sumptuous and elegant dinner was served in the dining room, which was tastefully decorated for the occasion. The wedding gifts to the bride were numerous, costly and varied, showing the high esteem in which she is held by her friends and neighbors. The bride's travelling suit was navy broadcloth and hat to match. The happy couple left on the 4.45 train for Toronto and other points, after which they will reside on their farm on the South Line. The best wishes of the entire neighborhood follow them to their new home. The groom's gift to the organist was a gold brooch. Friends from a distance were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Keast, from Illinois, and the groom's sister, Miss France Stewart of Toronto.
