Mr Samuel Hawton has purchased a farm on the Sixth Line of Nottawasaga having sold his farm here to Mr Howard Short.

Mr S Udell has been repairing the house on the farm on the 10th Line he lately purchased from John Earle.

Mr Henry Osborne had a very successful sale on Monday last. Henry has had to quit farming on account of ill health, he having been gassed in France in the war.

Our teachers, Miss Jolly and Mr Morris have started the practice for the Annual School Concert on Dec. 22. Keep that date open.

DUNDALK

Game is plentiful out around Swinton Park. Recently Wilfred Black and Howard Watson each got a fox. George Haw captured some nice coon, one having a healthy growth of quill tooth picks.

Mr. A W Rowe returned on Saturday from Knoxville, Tennesee, where he visited for a month with his daughter, Mrs O W Dynes, in her new home. Mr Dynes is on the staff of the State University in the Agricultural College at Knoxville, a position which he assumed early in the Fall.

Thos McLeod met with a nasty accident at his farm just west of the village on Monday while grooming a horse. Tom, in a crouching position, lost his balance and fell in the stall. This frightened the animal and it trampled on him. A broken nose and some other severe bruises were the result. He feels he got off lucky even at that.—Herald.

Albert Ball, son of R. J. Ball, M. P., of Hanover, has sued Constable Beamish of Hanover for $5000 damages for a severe kicking in the lower extremities, which he claims the officer gave him during a scuffle.

THE BEST IS ALWAYS THE CHEAPEST

Good Paint cannot be made to meet a price if the makers wish to remain in business any length of time.

A good article is always worth a fair price and the man who buys the best without being extravagant is the man who practices the right kind of economy.

Sherwin Williams Paints may cost more than some other paints on the market, but you may rest assured that you get your money's worth every time you buy, as every can is guaranteed Pure White Lead and Oil and will cover more surface than other paints.

Ask us about your paint propositions. A Paint or Varnish for every purpose—inside or outside.

Rod and Gun

To the hunter or fisherman looking for new places to hunt and fish, Rod and Gun in Canada for December will prove invaluable. In a splendidly illustrated article, W L Edmonds, the well known writer, graphically pictures the wild life of the Dominion, including the North West Territories. Bonnycastle Dale takes his readers with him on a goose shooting trip after the big Canadas. In a reminiscent style Judge Fraleck describes the good old days in an interesting story of the Wayside Inn. The dog that is growing in favor every day is the Airedale terrier and in addition to the splendid cover painting by F V Williams he has a story entitled "Pluck" that will appeal to everyone. The various departments, Guns and Ammunition; Fishing; Conservation; Trap Line and Kennel are up to their usual high standard. Rod and Gun in Canada in Canada is published monthly by W. J. Taylor, Limited, Woodstock, Ont.

PRICEVILLE

The recent fall of soft snow has brought out sleighs and cutters on the roads in preference to wheels, but some autos are still running.

A number of fields of turnips are still under a few inches of snow, and a large number of farmers are still waiting patiently the coming of the threshing machine.

Mrs H R McLean, a mile north of the village, who underwent an operation a few weeks ago, is said to be improving nicely.

At the end of last week the scaffolding around the steeple of the Presbyterian church was being taken down. Lightning rods have been placed on steeple and roof of church as a protection. The total cost of repairs will likely reach near $600.

Archie McLean has sold his village house and lot on Collingwood street to Wm Frook, lately of the 19th con. of Proton

Mrs Steele, who has been residing in Chicago for some time, died suddenly there last week. Her remains were brought back to the village last Saturday evening and interment took place in the village cemetery on Monday afternoon where her husband was buried some time ago. Deceased was a daughter of the late Donald McLean, commonly known as "Carpenter." The old homestead is known as the "Highland Hills."

The Sunday school anniversary in the Presbyterian church will be held on the 22nd of December next.

Last Week's Items

Mr M Conron of the Toronto Police Force, with his wife and son, returned to their home after visiting relatives in this part.

Mr J W Hutchinson, Reeve of Thornbury, made a business trip here, and called on your scribe.

Mr and Mrs Robert Taylor of Toronto motored up and visited with the former's mother at "The Maples."

There is still considerable threshing to do in this part yet.

Our teacher, Miss Nesbit, put on a very unique hallowe'en entertainment in the school house lately. The program consisted of mirth-provoking choruses by the pupils and numerous contests in which the audience participated. Pumpkin pie and other tasty eatables were a fitting finale to an enjoyable evening.

The death of Mr Robert McKee, which took place recently in Collingwood has cast a sadness over this community where deceased spent many years of his life and where he was held in high esteem by a wide circle of relatives and friends. Although not residing here for some years he retained his membership in the (McKee's) Fourth Line Orange Lodge. The sympathy of this community goes out to the bereaved relatives.
