YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

THE BABY'S TOLLGATE.

Knock at the door,
Peep in;
Lift up the latch,
And walk in.

What a funny door—
A forehead fair;
House with a roof
Of golden hair,
And tangled curls
From ridge to base.
Over the eaves—
Queer little place.
Two windows there,
And baby peeps in;
Finds the bright blue
Where the sky went in,
And a laughing elf
Looks out to see
Who rap so loud,
And calls for me,
A dainty nose—
Turned up—beware!
With thumb and fingers
Lift it with care.
The portals open:
Don't walk in!
Bow to the dimple
On the chin.
A kiss for toll.
Now you must pay
Or not come in
At all to-day.

The Motherless.

Sitting in the school room, I overheard a conversation between a sister and a brother. The little boy complained of insults or wrongs received from another little boy. His face was flushed with anger. The sister listened awhile, and turning away she answered, "I do not want to hear any more about it, Willie has no mother." The brother's lips were silent; the quiet rebuke came home to him, and stealing away he said, "I never thought of that." He thought of his own mother, and the loneliness of Willie compared with his own happy lot. "He has no mother." Do we think of it when want comes to the orphan, and rude words assail him? Has the little wanderer no one to listen to his sorrows? Speak gently to him, then.

For the Boys.

Away out in the far West there is an Indian school called Forest Grove. Not far from it is the Pacific university, whose students are white. One day the Indian boys received from the University boys an invitation to play base ball. They accepted the invitation, and entered heartily into the game. But in the excitement of the play an oath came from the lips of one, and and another, and another of the white boys. So often did this happen that the Indian boys quit playing and returned to their homes, saying they would neither swear nor stay in the company of swearers. Wasn't it a manly act on the part of the Indian boys? Are you, boys, so brave as to leave the society of the wicked, or are you afraid of being laughed at if you do so?

But this isn't all these brave Indian boys did. In a few days they invited the university students to play a game on the Forest Grove grounds. But they made this condition; The first profane or vulgar word will stop the game. "For," they said, "we make it a point to be gentlemanly at play as well as in the presence of our teachers."

Man respires, aspires, conspires and expires.

"TEABERRY" whitens the teeth like chastened pearls. A 5c. bottle settles it.

A wife in the house, is worth two in the street.

☞ Explicit directions for every use are given with the Diamond Dyes. For dyeing Mosses, Grasses, Eggs, Ivory, Hair, &c.

"If it wasn't for hope the heart would break," as the old lady said when she buried her seventh husband.

Quick, complete cure, all annoying Kidney, Bladder and Urinary Diseases. $1 Druggists.

Few persons have sufficent wisdom to prefer censure, which is useful to them, to praise, which deceives them.

"Rough on Rats."

Clears out rats, mice, roaches, flies, ants, bed-bugs, skunks, chipmunks, gophers. 15c. Druggists.

A boarding-house mistress, like the rest of us, has her weak and strong points—the weak being her coffee, her strong point the butter.

Familiar as household words — the names of Esterbrook's celebrated Steel Pens—Falcon, Bank and Easy Writer. To be had from all the Booksellers, Stationers and Newsdealers.

Spring pants are so attenuated in style that when a young man of the period sits down in them he will wish that he had stood up and saved rent.

A REWARD—Of one dozen "TEABERRY" to any one sending the best four line rhyme on "TEABERRY," the remarkable little gem for the Teeth and Breath. Ask your druggist for address.

A woman can dress her hair to make herself look ten years younger, but the best a man can do is to partly cover a bald spot and feel that he is a deceiver.

The worst Scrofulous Sores, the most indolent Tumor, and the most foul Ulcer known, may be cured by the combined use of Burdock Blood Bitters and Burdock Healing Ointment. Ask your druggist for these infallible remedies.

A little Parisian mendicant follows a gentleman: "Monsieur, give me just a penny—I'm an orphan by birth!" The definition was worth ten centimes to her.

Many suffer from supposed Organic diseases of the heart, when the trouble is only an irregularity in the circulation of the vital fluids, which BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS will promptly remedy.

"With all thy faults, I love thee still," quoted Tomson to his wife the other evening, after a particularly harrowing curtain lecture. "And the stiller the better," he added under his breath.

If you would have a clear complexion, a freedom from Blotches, Pimples, Boils, and all foul humors, purify and regulate the blood, liver, kidneys and bowels with Burdock Blood Bitters. Trial bottles 10 cents—15

Do dogs reason? Possibly not; but we observed a dog, on seeing a boy with an old kettle, examining his pockets as if for a piece of cord, take a deep interest in something about a mile away.

A gentleman saw an advertisement that a cure for dyspepsia might be had by sending a postage stamp to the advertiser. He sent his stamp, and the answer was, "Dig in your garden and let whiskey alone."

*The term hydra may be used to represent any manifold evil. If you would battle successfully with this many-headed monster of disease you will find it expedient to keep Mrs. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound always at hand—Dr. Banning.

Skinny Men.

"Wells' Health Renewer" restores health and vigor, cures Dyspepsia, Impotence, Sexual Debility, $1.

The best preventative and cure for Piles and all diseases caused by Constipation, is BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS, Purifying, Regulating, and Tonic in its action. Sample bottles 10 cents. Large bottles $1.—16

Rheumatism is greatly dependent on a vitiated condition of the fluids, and may be eliminated from the system by cleansing the blood and regulating the Kidneys. Burdock Blood Bitters will do this most effectually. Trial bottles 10c.

Mrs. D. Morrison, Farnham Centre, P. Q., writing about Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, says: "George Bell used it on his son, and it cured him of rheumatism with only a few applications. The balance of the bottle was used by an old gentleman for Asthma, with the best results. It acts like a charm."

Mr. Henry Marshall, Reeve of Dunn, writes: "Some time ago I got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery from Mr Harrison, and I consider it the very best medicine extant for Dyspepsia." This medicine is making marvellous cures in Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, &c., in purifying the blood and restoring manhood to full vigor.

Alexis Cyr, of Grant Isle, Aroostook Co., Maine, write: "Having used Northrop & Lyman's valuable Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with Hypophosphites or Lime and Soda, and derive great benefit from it, I take the liberty of asking you for quotations, and also whether you would be willing to give me the agency for this place, as I am confident there would be a large sale for it in this vicinity when its merits were made known.

HONESTY.

It is commonly said that you cannot make an honest man believe that white is black and vice versa, but those who have grey hair, by using the "CINGALESE HAIR RENEWER," will find that this apparent difficulty is easily overcome. For sale by J. E. McGarvin, 50 cents per bottle.

Not One of Our Peculiarities.

So-called respectable people would hesitate considerably before pilfering your pockets in a crowded thoroughfare. That would be too too. The same discrimination is not indicated by the so-called respectable druggist when that wonderful corn cure, PUTNAM'S CORN EXTRACTOR, is asked for. He will pilfer your pockets in the most genteel manner by substituting cheap and dangerous substitutes for the genuine Putnam's Corn Extractor. Watch for these gentlemen, and take none other than Putnam's Corn Extractor. Sold by druggists everywhere.

Had Suffered many Physicians and grew no better but rather worse. Mr. D. H. Howard, of Geneva, N. Y., after dismissing his physicians, tried nearly half a gross of the various blood and liver remedies advertised, with no benefit; when one bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters cured him of Paralysis and General Debility. At the advanced age of 60, he says he feels young again, and is overjoyed at his wonderful recovery.

A Public Meeting should be called of the citizens of every city, town and village in the Dominion, to consider what should be done to prevent the hair from turning Grey,—and falling out. If this important question received their earnest consideration they would unanimously decide that science had at last discovered something that would answer this purpose—and furthermore would recommend Cingalese Hair Renewer as being this something for restoring the hair to its natural color, and prevent its falling out. 50 cents per bottle, at J. E. McGarvin's.

WILL YOU EXCHANGE a case of Dyspepsia or Biliousness for 75 cents? It is awfully unwise to agonize under the many ailments arising from Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Disordered Stomach and Liver, when this offer is made to you in your own home in all sincerity, with an absolute certainty of curing you.

ZOPESA (from Brazil) cures Dyspepsia and Biliousness. A single dose relieves; a sample bottle convinces; a 75 cent bottle cures.

It acts directly upon the Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys. Cleansing, Correcting, Regulating, Zopesa gives energy and vim to the Brain, Nerve, and Muscle, simply by working wonders upon the Digestion, and giving activity to the Liver.

Cut this out, take it to any dealer in medicines, and get at least one 75 cent bottle of Zopesa, and tell your neighbor how it acts. It is warranted to cure Dyspepsia and Biliousness.

Kendall's Spavin Cure

Freemont, Ohio, Jan. 27th, 1881.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co., Gents:—I think it my duty to render you my thanks for the benefits and profits which I have derived from your invaluable and far famed Spavin Cure. My cousin and I had a valuable stallion worth $1,000, which had a very bad spavin, and was pronounced by four eminent Veterinary Surgeons beyond any cure, and that the horse was done forever. As a last resort, I advised my cousin to try a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. It had a magical effect. The third bottle cured it and the horse is as well as ever. Dr. Dick of Edinburgh, the eminent Veterinary Surgeon, was an uncle of mine, and I take great interest in assisting his profession.

Yours truly,
JAMES A. WILSON,
Civil Engineer
