THURSDAY MORNING, Feb. 1, 1883.

YOUNG FOLKS CORNER.

ASSIST EACH OTHER.

Lend a hand to one another.
In the daily toils of life;
When we meet a weaker brother,
Let us help him in the strife.
There is none so rich but may
In his turn be forced to borrow.
And the poor man's turn to-day,
May become our own to-morrow.

Lend a hand to one another.
When malicious tongues have thrown
Dark suspicion on your brother
Be not prompt to cast a stone.
There is none so good but may
Err a trifle in shame and sorrow,
And the best of men to-day
May become the worst to-morrow.

Lend a hand to one another,
In the race for honor's crown;
Should it fall upon your brother,
Let not even tear it down.
Lend a hand to all, I say,
In their sunshine and their sorrow.
And the prize we've lost to-day,
May become our own to-morrow.

A Boy's Influence.

Boys, you may not think what you say amounts to much, but your words and acts influence those about you, either for good or evil. The following incident was brought to our notice a short time ago:

A boy who attends the [illegible] Sunday school [illegible] the [illegible] a vi[illegible] with [illegible] the [illegible] an inveterate swearer. T[illegible] ing stood it as long as he could, said to the man, "Well, I guess I will go home to-morrow." The swearer, who had taken a great liking to him, said, "I thought you were going to stay all summer." "I was," said the boy, "but I can't stay [illegible] one. I must go, so I will leave." The man felt the rebuke and said, "If you will stay I won't swear," and kept his word.

Boys take a bold stand for the right; throw your influence on the side of Christ, and you will sow seed, the harvest of which you will reap both in this world and that which is to come.

Two Pictures.

THE BEGINNING.—A school boy, ten years old, one lovely June day—with the roses in full bloom over the porch, and the laborers in the wheat field—had been sent by Uncle John to play a bill at the country store, and there cost three shillings a bit, and Uncle John did not ask him for it. At noon this boy had stood under the beautiful blue sky, and a great temptation came. He said to himself, "Shall I give it back, or shall I wait until he asks for it? If he never asks, that is his bookert. If he does, why, I can get it again together." He never gave back the money.

THE ENDING.—Ten years went by; he was clerk in a bank. A package of bills lay in the drawer, and had not been put in the safe. He saw them, and wrapped them up in his coat, and carried them home.

He is now in a prison cell; but he sent his feet that way when a boy, years before, when he sold his honesty for three shillings.

The night [illegible] crimmed. The old home was desolate, his mother broken hearted. The prisoner knew who brought him there.

A soft answer may turn away wrath, but it is far safer to trust to the legs in case the other party is real mad.

A. Chard, of Sterling, in a recent letter, states that he met with an accident some time ago, by which one of his knees was severely injured. A few applications of Hagyard's Yellow Oil afforded immediate and complete relief.

G. W. Mingay, Parkdale, Toronto, writes: "My wife had several very severe attacks of cramps in the stomach. Hearing of Dr. AUSTIN'S PHOSPHATINE and its pleasantness to take, I gave her two bottles, and she has not had an attack since, and her health is much improved." For sale by all druggists.

Another "largest telescope in the world" has just been erected. It brings the moon so close that the man can be distinctly heard yelling "Don't shoot."

J. S. Wetherell, writing from Winnipeg, says: "I can say more about PHOSPHATINE now than when I saw you last in Toronto. My health is much improved, and I am free from headaches or any other aches, having only used two and a half bottles of your Phosphatine. For sale by all druggists.

Try a twenty-five cent bottle from J. E. McGarvin, Druggist.

Mrs. E. [illegible] Cookstown, Green Centre, [illegible] Y. writes: She has been [illegible] for four years, has [illegible] night with it. She [illegible] Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil and is perfectly cured. She strongly recommends it, and wishes to act as agent among her neighbors.

In the history of medicine no preparation has received such universal commendation for the alleviation it affords, and the permanent cure it effects in kidney diseases, as Dr. VAN BUREN'S KIDNEY CURE. Its action in the distressing complaints is simply wonderful. Sold by J. E. McGarvin.

Now that there is a reliable remedy for kidney complaints half the terrors attached to them have been removed. For this boon all thanks and to Dr. Van Buren's Kidney Cure award all praise for having thus removed a hitherto considered fatal foe from our path. I was never known to fail. Sold by J. E. McGarvin.

P. M. Markell, West Jeddore, N. S., writes: I wish to inform you of the wonderful qualities of D. Thomas's Eclectric Oil. I had a horse so lame that he could scarcely walk; the trouble was in the knee; and two or three applications completely cured him.

He Did.

Job went pretty heavy into the boil business, and the venture was a complete success. This reminds us that PUTNAM'S PAINLESS CORN EXTRACTOR is another success, and that it gives more comfort to the world than Job's boils did. Remember the name, then, for the little playful corn cometh, and the remedy therefore will gladden the heart. Positively sold by all druggists. N. C. POLSON & Co., Kingston, Proprietors.

A NEW ILL.—A Toronto firm are putting up a purely vegetable cathartic pill, in 10 cent boxes, for the convenience of persons desiring small quantities; consequently Hop's Regulating pills are selling like hot cakes everywhere.

H. A. McLaughlin, Norland, writes: "I am sold out of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. It sells well and I find in every instance it has proven satisfactory. I have reasons to believe it the best preparation of the kind in the market." It cures Dyspepsia, Biliousness, and Torpidity of the Liver, Constipation, and all diseases arising from Impure Blood, Female Complaints, &c.

Rest and Comfort to the Suffering.

"Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain, both internal and external. It cures Pain in the Side, Back or Bowels, Sore Throat, Rheumatism, Toothache, Lumbago and any kind of a Pain or Ache. "It will most surely quicken the Blood and Heal, as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Reliever and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, as it really is the best remedy in the world for Cramps in the Stomach, and Pains and Aches of all kinds," and is for sale by all Druggists at 25 cent a bottle.

ZOPESA (from Brazil) cures Dyspepsia and Biliousness. A single dose relieves; a sample bottle convinces; a 75 cent bottle cures.

It acts directly upon the Stomach, Liver, and Kidneys. Cleansing, Correcting, Regulating, Zopesa gives energy and vim to the Brain, Nerve and Muscle, simply by working wonders upon the Digestion, and giving activity to the Liver.

Fredericksburg, Ohio, Jan. 7th, 1882.

DR. B. J. KENDALL & Co.—Gents:—I think it my duty to tender you my thanks for the benefits and profits which I have derived from your invaluable and famous Spavin Cure. My experience and trial a valuable testimonial of its worth, which has been very good. A spavin, and was pronounced by your eminent Veterinary Surgeon beyond any cure, and that no blister was done it cover. As a last resort, I determined to try a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure. It had a marked effect, the third bottle completed it, and the horse is as well as ever. Yours, Dick of Hillsborough, the eminent Veterinary Surgeon, was an uncle of mine, and I place great confidence in his opinion. Yours truly,
