The Advance has proven itself a good medium in which to advertise, but never more strikingly so than in this instance.

Word was received here last week that Francis McCauley, the five year old son of Mr. John McCauley of Walkerton and formerly of Flesherton, while sliding down an incline, fell off the edge of the sidewalk and broke his right leg in two places below the knee. The deer hunters all returned home from the wilds during the past week, mostly successful. The two parties from this immediate vicinity got their full quota, including some large bucks. Some of the other parties were not so successful. The party to which The Advance man was attached got frozen in and had to tote their baggage, five boats and deer over nearly a mile of frozen lake before reaching open river water. It was a contract not altogether enjoyable, with ice cracking in all directions under foot, and it took the keen edge off the sport. Every member of the party intends to turn the government out if it does not put the hunting season back to the old dates—Nov. 1 to 15.

Ruth, the ten year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Thistlethwaite passed away on Wednesday of last week after an illness of eleven weeks with some kind of brain trouble. During the whole period she remained unconscious, or at least was unable to communicate with her parents in any way. The funeral took place on Friday, the service being conducted by their pastor, Rev. F. G. Fowler, assisted by Rev. C. A. Belfry. The pupils of the public school marched in a body to the house and then to the cemetery, all feeling that it was the last tribute of affection to the gentle little maiden. Floral offerings were laid on the little white casket by the pupils of the public school, the Presbyterian church, the Methodist Sabbath school, of which Ruthie was a member ; and by friends of the family. Much sympathy is felt for Mr. and Mrs. Thistlethwaite in the loss of their dear little daughter.
