Mrs. C. W. Bellamy Dead

Mrs. Charles W. Bellame passed away at her home here on Thursday morning of last week at the age of 68 years. She had been in failing health for some time. The deceased lady was a daughter of the late John Jones, who, years ago, ran the first tannery in this part of the country, and also conducted quite an extensive boot and shoe manufacturing business in the early days of Flesherton. Later he conducted a grocery business between this village and the station. Mrs. Bellamy was only three years of age when she came to Flesherton with her parents. She leaves behind, besides her sorrowing husband, seven daughters and one son to mourn the loss of a loving mother, a model housekeeper and a consistent member of the Methodist church. The children are : Mrs. Dinsmore, Mrs. Mellafont and Mrs. Miller, all living in the West ; Mrs. Roy Thistlethwaite, Mrs. George Best and Mrs. Harry Shaw, all of Artemesia ; one son, Edgar, at Saskatoon, and Miss Rita at home.

The funeral on Friday was largely attended. The floral offerings were very beautiful and included a sheaf from the Women's Institute, of which she was long a member, also a handsome wreath from F. H. W. Hickling and staff, where Miss Rita was formerly employed ; a wreath from the family, a spray from the sons in law, a spray from the grandchildren, a spray from Mrs. W. Moore, Mrs. J. Brown, Mrs Munshaw, Miss Agnes Henderson and Miss Ethel Gilchrist ; a spray from Mr and Mrs. Joseph Blakely and a spray from Mrs. S. Irwin. The funeral service was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Belfry, assisted by Rev. Mr. McCarten of Priceville, who is distantly related. A sister who lives at Merriton attended the funeral. A brother living at Port Colborne was, through illness, unable to attend.
