THE WOMAN OF TO-DAY.

With Hebrew, Greek and Latin
She's acquainted more or less;
And she's obviously put in
All the modern languages.
She has read her Herbert Spencer,
Her Kant, and Schopenhauer,
And in logic she's a fencer
Of unquestionable power.
She is full of keen suggestion,
Be the subject what it may;
And on every social question,
She has something apt to say.
You may see her quick eye kindle
With a bright and vivid flame
At the mention of a Tyndall
Or a Huxley's potent name.
Scraps of learning she will dish up
With a skill that makes them live.
She will argue with a bishop,
Say on Church Prerogative;
With her own sex she will chatter,
In the proper time and place,
On some rival household matter,
With quaint and lively grace.
She instructs the untrained servant,
To perform his task with ease;
And if called on will war fervent
Over infantile disease.
She can cook and wash and mangle
(Though perhaps she'd rather not)
Play tennis, ride and angle,
And is quite a champion shot.
From the public platform you will
Find her talking fact or myth,
With the vigor of a Wipewell,
Or the wit of Sydney Smith.
Amongst mere minnows she's a Triton,
Who will always have her way:
She's an Admirable Crichton,
Is the Woman of To-day.

—From the St. James Gazette.

AN HOUR WITH A QUEENSTOWN JEHU.

While waiting, some years ago, for her Majesty's mails to arrive at Queenstown, there to meet the ocean greyhound upon which I was returning from a summer in Europe, accompanied by a friend, I started off on a "jaunting" trip through the City of Cove and surrounding hills. Our driver was a typical Coveite—indeed, it would seem as if the slang term "cove" applied to individuals of his stamp was derived from the quondam name of the latter-day Queenstown, since so many specimens of this class are to be seen upon the docks of her beautiful harbor.

The trap in which we journeyed was quite suggestive of the famous one-horse shay, and the melancholy steed that, in response to the chirrups of our Jehu, dragged us wearily over the rough roads seemed so blase that it excited our comment, and led to a wager between us as to the name to which the animal answered, when he answered at all.

"I'll bet you a sovereign his name is Mickey," I ventured.

"I'll bet a pound his name is Dennis," retorted my companion, unconsciously dropping into what has since become a famous slang phrase.

"Pat" I queried, "what is your horse's name?"

"That depinds, yer honor," returned he. "Dennis or Mickey, whichever wan of yez goes halves on yar winnin's."

The bet was declared off, but Pat got his half sovereign for his wit.

The coin made Pat communicative, and he proceeded to regale us with some more or less startling reminiscences, among which he included one of an explosion he had once witnessed, the noise of which was "thot loud it made me so dafe oi cudn'n hear it."

He matched the oft told story of how one of his countrymen broke the news of a comrade's death to the bereaved wife by asking her if the widow Maloney was in, by another which I suspect he evolved out of his inner consciousness, and which was briefly as follows: Pat called at the house of his dead brother, having been warned by his comrades to do his work delicately, and prepare the widow's mind for what was to come before he acquainted her with her bereavement.

"Top o' th' marnin' to yez, Misses McCarthy," he began.

"Same to yez, Misther McCune."

"It's sorry oi am far yez, Misses McCarthy."

"Ah for whoy, oi'd know?"

"Th' roosther's did."

"Ye don't mane it? Well, oi tort lookely he'd doy."

"Ah, but it wasn't th' roosther thot doied at all, at all. 'Twas the pig."

"The pig, is it? An' whoyre's th' lody?"

"Theyre ain't no body, bekase it wasn't th' pig, but the opld cow thot doied."

"Ah, go 'long wid yez, Paddy McCune. Phwat's thot but th' cow a-grazin' on th' grass out thayre? Th' ould boss is live as oney av yez."

"Oi know thot well, Misses McCarthy, bekase that cow's outlived your hoosband Moike, whot's lyin' did below, forninst Denny Burke's."

"Ah, Paddy, but you're a diroll felly to be jin' loike that to me. Moike did? Oi gaine not. No week lookt!"

It would not be surprising if Mr. McCune felt that all his tact had been thrown away.

Our driver, according to his own statement, was acquainted with a young Irishman who had sought fortune if not fame in the Western Hemisphere, and concerning whom he was quite solicitous, assuming that we had, of course, met with his emigrated friend.

"Oi'd loike t' hear well av the lye," he said; "though oi fear he's gone wrong. His poor mother is a botherin' herself out entirely bekase av him, for bechune us, gintlemin, the bye wint an' paid his rint in New Yark whoile his mother at home wis doyin' for a dhrap o' poteen."

Such an unprecedently depraved course elicited our heart-felt sympathy.

When asked if he had ever visited London, our unique friend observed that he never had but once, and then only got as far as Dublin.

That his business instincts were well developed Pat demonstrated by offering to sell us his horse and car for two guineas, promising to keep the turnout for us until we came back again.

"And what will you pay us for the use of the horse, Pat?" I asked.

"Two shillin' a wake less than you pay me for dhrivin' him," was the ready response.

Of course we sounded him on the rent question, and elicited the economically interesting statement that "rint wud be very hoigh," if he paid it, but as he never thought of doing so, he was not so sure that rent was so iniquitous a tax as some of his ultra brethren deemed it.

Concerning his cart, he informed us confidentially that it never had been new; and to quiet our expressed fear that the horse would not live to get us back to the dock, he assured us that he had driven him "twinty years, an' he's niver doied yit."

After parting with Pat, we called back to him from the tender on which we were steaming out to the ship, "See you later, Pat."

"That depinds," he shouted.

"On what?"

"The time av day, sure."—Harper's Magazine.

JINGLES AND JOKELETS

Half an Hour With the Wise Men, the Wits and the Paragraphs of the Day.

Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator has no equal for destroying worms in children and adults. See that you get the genuine when purchasing.

Overboard.

Throw all the unwholesome Baking Powder overboard and use only the Imperial Cream Tartar Baking Powder.

Whooping cough, croup, sore throat, colds, and the lung troubles peculiar to children, are easily controled by administering Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. This remedy is safe to take, certain in its action, and adapted to all constitutions.

Prevailing sickness.

The most prevalent complaints at this season are rheumatism, neuralgia, sore throat, inflammations and congestions. For all these and other painful troubles Hagyard's Yellow Oil is the best internal and external remedy.

John Hays, Credit P. O., says:—"His shoulder was so lame for nine months that he could not raise his hand to his head, but by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil the pain and lameness disappeared, and although three months has elapsed, he has not had an attack of it since."

The Lanes and Streets

of a city are like the veins and arteries of the body; if foul or impure, disease results. Cleanse the blood from the foul humors by using Burdock Blood Bitters, the best blood medicine ever devised to cure all blood disorders from a common pimple to the worst scrofulous sore.

Worn out and run Down.

By disease and debility the human system becomes worn out and run down before its time. Keep the head clear, the bowels regular, the blood pure, the kidneys and liver active by the use of Burdock Blood Bitters, nature's great tonic and regulator, and disease cannot exist.

The laws of the Medes and Persians were not more immutable than those of nature. If we transgress them we suffer. Sometimes, however we break them inadvertently. Dangers frequently take the form of Dyspepsia, Constipation and Biliousness, which can be easily repaired with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the Great Blood Purifier and renovator of the system.

Sudden Change.

Mrs. George Flewelling, St. John, N. B., writes:—"I have suffered from weakness and costiveness, so I bought a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and before I finished it, I noticed a change. After using three bottles I am now entirely cured, and recommend B. B. B. as a positive cure for costiveness."

If you have a Cough, do not neglect it. It should be loosened as soon as possible, and to do this nothing equals Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam. Obstinate coughs yield at once to its expectorant, soothing and healing properties, while colds, hoarseness, whooping cough, asthma, etc., are promptly relieved by its perfect action on the throat and bronchial tubes.

Well Pleased.

Dear Sirs,—I can recommend Hagyard's Yellow Oil as a sure cure for rheumatism. I had it for some time and was cured by two bottles, and I must say that it is the best thing I can get for general use as a pain reliever.

J. Mustard,
Strathroy, Ont.

There is not a more dangerous class of disorders than those which affect the breathing organs. Nullify this danger with Dr. Thomas Eclectric Oil—a polmonic of acknowledged efficacy. It cures lameness and soreness when applied externally, as well as swelled neck and crick in the back, and, as an inward specific, possess most substantial claims to public confidence.

The Fishery Question

Is an important one, but the question of paramount importance to-day, is "What shall we use for catarrh?" Mr. John McSween Model School teacher, Charlottetown P. E. I., says:—I enclose you 50 cents for which send me a package of Nasal Balm. The package I received some time ago has done me a great deal of good, so much that I think it will cure me.

C. C. Richards & Co.

Gents.—I certify that Minard's Liniment cured my daughter of a severe and what appeared to be a fatal attack of diphtheria after all other remedies had failed, and recommend it to all who may be afflicted with that terrible disease.

John D. Bowlby.
French Village, Sanv., 1883.

Mr. T. C. Berchard, public school teacher, Norland, writes:—"During the fall of 1881 I was much troubled with Biliousness and Dyspepsia, and for part of the time was unable to attend to the duties of my profession. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure was recommended to me, and I have much pleasure in stating that I was entirely cured by using one bottle. I have not had an attack of my old complaint since, and have gained fifteen pounds in weight."

Rest and Comfort to the Suffering.

"Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain both internal and external. It cures pain in the side, back, or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache, lumbago and any kind of pain or ache. "It will most surely quicken the Blood and Heal as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Believer, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for cramps in the stomach, and pains and aches of all kinds" and is for sale by all druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

The special announcement which appeared in our columns some time since, announcing a special arrangement with Dr. B. J. Kendall Co., of Enosburgh Falls, Vt., publishers of "A Treatise on the Horse and his Diseases," whereby our subscribers were enabled to obtain a copy of that valuable work free by sending their address to B. J. Kendal lCo., (and enclosing a two-cent stamp for mailing the same) is renewed for a limited period. We trust all will avail themselves of the opportunity of obtaining this valuable work. To every lover of the horse it is indispensable, as it treats in a simple manner all the diseases which afflict this noble animal. Its phenominal sale throughout the United States and Canada, make it standard authority. Mention this paper when sending for "Treatise."

Poor company may be a little better than none. Bad company is certainly a great deal worse. One scabby sheep spoils the flock. One rotten apple will often ruin a dozen which may lie around it; while all the sound ones in the world will not restore one that is decayed. Just so a man who is corrupt will infect many others.

Consumption Surely Cured.

To the Editor:—

Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured, I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy free to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address.

Respectfully, Dr. T. A. Slocum,
164 West Adelaide st., Toronto, Ont

The Third page of the Toronto Daily Mail is noted for "Want" advertisements. If you want to buy or sell anything. If you want a situation, a mechanic, a business, machinery, lodgings, if you have lost or found anything, or if you want to find out where anyone is, advertise in the Toronto Daily Mail and read the advertisements on the Third page of that paper. The charge is Two Cents a word each insertion. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm, advertise in the Toronto Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 Farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase. Advertisements of this class are inserted in the Toronto Weekly Mail for Five Cents a word each insertion, or Twenty Cents a word for five insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

It is worse than madness to neglect a cough or a cold which is easily subdued if taken in time becomes, when left to itself, the fore-runner of consumption and premature death. Inflammation, when it attacks the delicate tissue of the lungs and bronchial tubes, travels with perilous rapidity; then do not delay, get a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, the medicine that grasps this formidable foe of the human body, and drives it from the system. This medicine promotes a free and easy expectoration, subdues the cough, heals the diseased parts, and exerts a most wonderful influence in curing consumption, and other diseases of the throat and lungs. If parents wish to save the lives of their children, and themselves from much anxiety, trouble and expense, let them procure a bottle of Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and whenever a child has taken cold has a cough or hoarseness, give the Syrup according to directions.

Advice to Mothers.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentry and diarrhœa, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

Minard's Liniment Lumberman's Friend.

Ayer's Hair Vigor

Is the "ideal" Hair-dressing. It restores the color to gray hair; promotes a fresh and vigorous growth; prevents the formation of dandruff; makes the hair soft and silken; and imparts a delicate but lasting perfume.

"Several months ago my hair commenced falling out, and in a few weeks my head was almost bald. I tried many remedies, but they did no good. I finally bought a bottle of Ayer's Hair Vigor, and, after using only a part of the contents, my head was covered with a heavy growth of hair. I recommend your preparation as the best in the world."—T. Munday, Sharon Grove, Ky.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for a number of years, and it has always given me satisfaction. It is an excellent dressing, prevents the hair from turning gray, insures its vigorous growth, and keeps the scalp white and clean."—Mary A. Jackson, Salem, Mass.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for promoting the growth of the hair, and think it unequaled. For restoring the hair to its original color, and for a dressing, it cannot be surpassed."—Mrs. Geo. La Fever, Eaton Rapids, Mich.

"Ayer's Hair Vigor is a most excellent preparation for the hair. I speak of it from my own experience. Its use promotes the growth of new hair and makes it glossy and soft. The Vigor is also a cure for dandruff."—J. W. Bowen, Editor "Enquirer," McArthur, Ohio.

"I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for the past two years, and found it all it is represented to be. It restores the natural color to gray hair, causes the hair to grow freely, and keeps it soft and pliant."—Mrs. M. V. Day, Colnor, N. Y.

"My father, at about the age of fifty, lost all the hair from the top of his head. After one month's trial of Ayer's Hair Vigor the hair began coming, and, in three months, he had a fine growth of hair of the natural color."—P. J. Cullen, Saratoga Springs, N. Y.

FULFORD & CO., Brockville, Ont.

Beware of imitations and substitutes.

You Can't Impeach Dr. Brodie's HOSPITAL REMEDIES, Because 400,000 PEOPLE IN CANADA AND UNITED STATES VOUCH THAT IF YOU ARE SICK THEY ARE THE ONLY REMEDIES IN THE WORLD THAT WILL GIVE YOU HEALTH.

Read this extract from the scientific papers of Great Britain and Europe:

A NEW DEPARTURE IN MEDICINE.

The four great test medical centres of the world are London, Paris, Berlin and Vienna. These cities have immense hospitals teeming with suffering humanity. Crowds of students throng the wards studying under the Professors in charge. The most renowned physicians of the world teach and practice here, and the institutions are storehouses of medical knowledge and experience. With a view of making this experience available to the public the Hospital Remedy Co at great expense secured the prescription of these hospitals, prepared the specifics, and although it would cost from $25 to $100 to secure the attention of their distinguished originators, yet in this way their prepared specifics are offered at the price of the quack patent medicines that flood the market and absurdly claim to cure every ill from a single bottle. The want always felt for a reliable class of domestic remedies is now filled with perfect satisfaction. The Hospital Remedies make no unreasonable claims. The specific for Catarrh cures that and nothing else; so with the specific for Bronchitis, Consumption and Lung Troubles; Rheumatism is cured by No 3, while troubles of Digestion, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys have their own cure. To these is added a specific for Fever and Ague, one for female weakness—a general tonic and blood-maker that makes blood and gives form and fulness, and an incomparable remedy for Nervous Debility.

NO. 1—CURES CATARRH, HAY FEVER, ROSE COLD, CATARRHAL DEAFNESS—The only rational cure once existing from scientific cause is now offered the public. This is not a snuff or ointment—both are discarded as injurious. $1.00.

NO. 2—COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS, ASTHMA, CONSUMPTION—A incomparable remedy does not merely stop a cough, but eradicates the disease, strengthens the lungs and nervous system, and restores a new lease of life. $1.00.

NO. 3—RHEUMATISM—A distinguished and well-known specialist's success in Paris, who treats nothing else, has, it is represented, cured thousands. $1.

NO. 4—LIVER AND KIDNEYS, DYSPEPSIA AND INDIGESTION, CONSTIPATION, BILIOUSNESS, DIABETES, DISEASE—A favorite elder-flower for the ruined more stomachs than all the quack nostrums combined. Use a remedy sanctioned in high places. $1.00.

NO. 5—FEVER AND AGUE, DUMB AGUE, MALARIA, NEURALGIA—Few know a disease so generally dreaded, or so fatal to life and health. Not so dangerous as the ague, but more distressing than any form of fever. Use a remedy that eradicates it. $1.00.

NO. 6—FEMALE WEAKNESS, LEUCORRHŒA, WHITES—Many women are broken down by these diseases, they neglect these diseases until incurable. Use No. 6 and regain health and strength. $1.00.

NO. 7—HEALTH, FORM AND FULNESS—Everyone wants good blood and lots of it. If a weakling, If tired in body, If scrawny, use this perfect tonic. $1.00.

NO. 8—NERVOUS DEBILITY, LOSS OF POWER—A quack cure-ridden public will hail with joy a remedy for an unfortunate condition. No. 8 will do it, and this one trial will prove. Beware of impudent quacks who charge high price for their compounds, worthless drugs and pills, the properties of which they are utterly ignorant, and who carelessly by selling your confidential letters to others in the same unjustifiable business. Use No. 8 and live again. $1.00

ONE DOLLAR EACH.

TO BE HAD OF ALL DRUGGISTS.

If your Druggist does not keep these remedies send price to us and we will ship to you direct. You risk no other remedy. Discontinue quack cure-all medicines and use instead these high class Hospital Remedies which measure from scientific sources, and thus prolong your life. Avoid high priced, low standard quacks who pretend that their nostrums cost a fabulous amount. Any responsable physician will tell you that the ingredients of our remedies are known to be what they should cost more than One Dollar for twenty five doses. The medicines for female weakness and nervous debility are those most dishonest quacks get their work in, invariably doing irreparable injury to the sufferer. Write us letters that you are unwilling should be sold and bartered to others in the same disgraceful manner. Our specialties are strictly confidential. The quack nostrums quoted above are those that are most generally used by the worthless. Only genuine and responsible low dealers under genuine names and not under assumed names. We guarantee one bottle of any of our medicines to give more genuine benefit than a dozen of any special patent medicine in the world.

Office of Charles A. Sytner, Breeder of Cleveland Bay and Trotting Bred Horses, Elmwood, Ind., Nov. 11, 188[illegible]

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co.
Dear Sirs: I have always purchased your Kendall's Spavin Cure by the half dozen bottles, I would like prices in larger quantity. I think it is one of the best liniments on earth. I have used it on my stables for three years.
Yours truly, Chas. A. Sytner.

Brooklyn, N. Y., November, 188[illegible]

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co.
Dear Sirs: I desire to give you testimonial of my good opinion of your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I have used it for Lameness, Stiff Joints, and Spavins, and I have found it a sure cure. I heartily recommend it to all horsemen.
Yours truly, A. H. Ostrom,
Manager Troy Laundry Stables.

KENDALL'S SPAVIN CURE.

East Wilton County, Ohio, Dec. 8, 188[illegible]

Dr. B. J. Kendall Co.
Gents: I feel it my duty to say what I have done with your Kendall's Spavin Cure. I have cured twenty-five horses that had Spavins, six of Ring Bone, nine afflicted with Big Head and seven of Big Jaw. Since I have had one of your books and followed the directions, I have never lost a case of any kind.
Yours truly, Andrew Tuttle,
Horse Doctor.
