VICINITY CHIPS

The Advance wishes its many readers a Merry Christmas and a Bright and Prosperous New Year.

Miss Mabel Swift of Toronto is the guest of Miss Edna Stewart.

Mr. and Mrs. Mark Stewart are spending a week with friends in Harriston.

Read the Waite cleaning advertisement on our back page.

Mr. Harvey Perigoe of Toronto visited friends in town this week.

Anglican church, Flesherton—Service in Town Hall every Sunday at 7 p.m. Everybody will be made welcome.

The municipal councils met on Wednesday of last week and wound up the financial year's business.

Mrs. H. C. Radley, who has spent the past summer at Shadowbrook Farm here, returned to Toronto last week, where she will remain for the winter.

Born—On Monday, Dec. 6th, 1920, at Windsor, Ont., to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Irwin, nee Zaida Lawler, a daughter —Leona Ruth.

Mr, R. J. Sproule returned last week from Owen Sound hospital, where he had been for about three months with a broken hip bone.

Mr. Fred Matthewson has sold his farm north of the village to Mr. George Littlejohns and will move into town to the residence which he recently purchased in the north ward.

Miss Lilian Bunt, who has taught the junior room in our public school for the past two years, has resigned and will teach next year in Secord school, East Toronto.

Mr. John Boyd, who was called east from North Battleford by the death of his brother, will return to the West next week. Mr. Boyd will not move his family from Markdale this winter.

The Presbyterian Sabbath school officials are making extra preparations this year for an especially good program at their anniversary on the evening of Christmas day. Those of the inner circle say it will be especially good this year, and those who miss it may be sorry all their lives. Bills have been issued giving a mere inkling of the good things. See the bills.

A travelling company gave a drama in the town hall one evening last week entitled "The Wolf—a drama of the Canadian northland." The show was not a money maker for the Wolf, only a few Lambs being present. It was only advertised by a few lithographed posters. The people here don't know anything about wolves, anyway, and care less. One's curiosity had not been properly worked up, and the Wolf departed with his exchequer depleted rather than augmented.

Mrs. Fred McTavish of Oshawa is visiting relatives here.

Born—On Saturday, Dec. 18, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Poole, nee Lily Lawler, a daughter—Enid Bernice.

A box social will be held in Irish Lake school Dec. 28. An excellent program will be rendered consisting of vocal and instrumental music, Highland dancing, recitations, dialogues, etc. Admission 25c, ladies with boxes free.

Mr. Archie McLean of town, who has sold his property to Mr. Inkster, will hold a credit auction sale of implements and household furniture on Tuesday afternoon next at his residence. He is moving to the state of Ohio. See bills. D. McPhail, auctioneer.

The publishers of the Youth's Companion will, as always at this season, present to every subscriber whose subscription ($2.50) is paid for 1921 a Calendar for the new year. The tablets are printed in red and olive green, and besides giving the days of the current month in bold legible type, give the Calendar of the preceding and succeeding month in similar type in the margin. It is a rich and practical piece of work.

Nominations for municipal officers will be held on Monday of next week. Under the new act passed at the last session of the Legislature any man or woman over 21 years of age can serve as Councillor. Here is a chance for some of the ambitious ladies of the town to exercise their prerogative. Who will be the first to break the ice ? The Advance man will act as nominator for the first woman or girl who applies. Aw, come on, girls.

The remains of the late George Walter were brought from Cluny, Alberta, last week and interred in Walters Falls cemetery Sunday afternoon. Death was due to pleurisy and deceased was only ill a week. Mr. Walter moved from Flesherton to Alberta in the spring of 1914. At one time he ran the gristmill at Priceville. He leaves his wife, two sons and one daughter. The remains were accompanied east by Mr. Wm. Walters, no members of the family finding it possible to come down. The deceased gentleman was 58 years of age.

KIMBERLEY

Good sleighing and very nice roads. It is nice to have the snow for Christmas to let Santa Claus get around. Nice for fox hunting, too. One very nearly got away with Jap Stuart Monday.

Fowl seem to be scarce for Christmas this year.
