The Young Folks.

A FELLOW'S MOTHER.

"A fellow's mother," said Fred the wise,
With rosy cheeks and his merry eyes,
"Knows what to do if a fellow gets hurt
By a thump, or a bruise, or a fall in the dirt.

"A fellow's mother has bags and strings,
Rags and bottoms, and lots of things;
No matter how busy she is, she'll stop
To see how well you can spin your top.

"She does not care—not much, I mean—
If a fellow's face is not always clean:
And if your trousers are torn at the knee
She can just in a patch that you'd never see.

"A fellow's mother is never mad,
But only sorry if you are bad,
And I tell you this, if you're only true
She'll always forgive whate'er you do.

"I'm sure of this," said Fred the wise,
With a manly look in his laughing eyes
"I'll mind my mother, quick, every day,
A fellow's a baby that don't obey."

HE GOT THERE.

Someone, writing to an English paper, tells this story of a clever dog:

"You know how much I rush about in hansom cabs," said the narrator, "and Scott, my collie dog, always goes with me. We travel many miles in a week together in this way, but on one occasion I was walking, and missed him.

"Search was in vain. The crowd was great; traffic drowned the sound of my whistle, and after waiting awhile and looking elsewhere, I returned to my suburban home without my companion, sorrowful, yet hoping that he might find his way back.

"In about two hours after my arrival, a hansom cab drove up to the door, and out jumped Scott. The cabman rang for his fare, and thinking he had somehow captured the runaway, I inquired how and where he found him.

"'O, sir,' said the cabby, "I didn't hail him at all; he hailed me. I was standing close by St. James' church, a-looking out for a fare, when in jumps the dog. 'Like his impudence!' says I. So I shouts through the window, but he wouldn't stir. So I gets down and tries to pull him out, and shows him my whip, but he sits still and barks as much as to say, 'Go on, old man!' As I seizes him by the collar I read his name and address: 'All right, my fine gentleman,' says I; 'I'll drive you where you're a-wanted I dare say.' So I shuts to the door, and my gentleman settles himself with his head just a-looking out, and I drives on till I stops at this here gate, when out jumps my passenger, a-clearing the door, and walks in as calm as though he'd been a reg'lar fare."—Morning Star.

THE ELDER WAS MORE CAUTIOUS THEREAFTER.

It was Elder Russell, who called on a worthy deacon to open a meeting with prayer, and was surprised when the good man began his petition with: Oh, thou great, insignificant God.

"Omnipotent, brother; you mean omnipotent God," whispered the horrified pastor.

"Hain't" ejaculated the surprised supplicant, "what's that you say?"

The preacher repeated the correction, whereupon the deacon continued the prayer to a great length, and concluded as follows:

"Finally, Lord bless our edificated parson. Stuff him with religion as well as with words; break him of the habit of fault finding, if possible, and at the eleventh hour rather him with the saints in Thy Kingdom."

Elder Russell, who was fond of telling the story, always ended by declaring that it was his first and last attempt at correcting the speech of his brethren.—Lewiston Journal.

AN AWFUL STORY.

There was once an awful little girl who had an "awful" to everything. She lived in an awful house, in an awful village, which was an awful distance from every awful place. She went to an awful school, where she had an awful teacher, who gave her awful lessons out of awful books. Every day she was so awful hungry that she ate an awful amount of food, so that she looked awful healthy. Her hat was awful small, and her feet were awful large. When she took an awful walk she climbed awful hills, and when she got awful tired she sat down under an awful tree to rest herself. In summer she was awful hot and in winter awful cold. When it didn't rain there was an awful drought, and when the awful drought was over there was an awful rain. If this little girl doesn't get rid of this vulgar way of saying "awful" about everything, I am afraid she will come to an awful end.—Canadian Advance.

CATARRH.

Catarrhal Deafness—Hay Fever & new Home Treatment.

Sufferers are not generally aware that these diseases are contagious, or that they are due to the presence of living parasites in the living membrane and eustachian tubes. Microscopic research, however, has proved this to be a fact, and the result of this discovery is that a simple remedy has been formulated, whereby catarrh, catarrhal deafness and hay fever are permanently cured in from one to three simple applications made at home by the patient once in two weeks. N.B.—This treatment is not a snuff or an ointment; both have been discarded by reputable physicians as injurious. A pamphlet explaining this new treatment is sent on receipt of ten cents by A. H. Dixon & Son, 303 West King Street Toronto, Canada.—Toronto Globe.

Sufferers from Catarrh troubles should carefully read the above.

Is there anything more annoying than having your corns stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of them? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced.

JINGLES AND JOKELETS.

Half an Hour With the Wise Men, the Wits and the Paragraphs of the Day.

Dr. Low's sulphur soap is a delightful shampoo. It cleanses the scalp and darkens grey hair.

Imperial

Cream Tartar Baking Powder is made from Pure Crystal Cream Tartar and English Soda. It has no equal. Sold by all grocers. Insist on having the Imperial.

E. W. Gillett, M'f'r. Toronto, Ont.

Worms cause serious sickness. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup destroyes and expels all kinds of worms quickly and surely.

Dizziness Caused by Dyspepsia.

Dizziness is a symptom of dyspepsia. "I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for dizziness, which came over me in spells, so that I had to quit work for a while. The B. B. B. entirely cured me."

James Wright, Chesterfield, Ont.

Small Sugar-coated Burdock Pills do not gripe or sicken. They are mild and effectual.

A Life Record.

"I had been troubled for about 25 years with biliousness and liver complaint, and after using about three bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters I feel entirely relieved, and have not had an attack for two years."

Joseph Gamey,
Maxwell, Ont.

Pale wan women need a tonic strength giving, flesh building medicine like Milburn's Beef, Iron and Wine.

Across the Continent.

In thousands of households all over Canada the merits of Yellow Oil, the great family medicine, are well known. It is esteemed as one of the best cures for rheumatism, lumbago, neuralgia, sore throat, croup, quinsy, sprains, burns and all pain. Used externally or internally.

Pale, woebegone invalids suffering from poverty of the blood, bilious sufferers and those whose circulation is depraved, should use without delay Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, the celebrated blood purifier, which stimulates digestion, increases the nutritive properties of the blood, and expels impurities from the system.

Is Our Climate Changing.

The past two seasons have been so peculiar that thousands are attacked by coughs, colds, hoarseness, influenza, asthma, bronchitis, etc. To these we recommend Hagyard's Pectoral Balsam as the safest, surest and best remedy yet produced for all throat and lung troubles.

Gilbert Laird, St. Margaret's Hope, Orkney, Scotland, writes:—"I am requested by several friends to order another parcel of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The last I got from you having been tested in several cases of rheumatism, has given relief when doctors' medicine have failed to have any effect. The excellent qualities of this medicine should be made known, that the millions of sufferers throughout the world may benefit by its providential discovery."

Remarkable Cure of an Ulcer.

Sirs,—Two years ago I had an ulcer on my ankle. Knowing Burdock Blood Bitters to be a good blood purifier, I got a bottle and a box of Burdock Healing Ointment, and after using three bottles and three boxes I was completely cured, and recommend B. B. B. everywhere.

Mrs. W. V. Bown,
Brantford, Ont.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm, advertise in the Toronto Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 Farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase. Advertisements of this class are inserted in the Toronto Weekly Mail for Five Cents a word each insertion, or Twenty Cents a word for five insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

Trust an old Friend.

Old friends are best, and if ever sufferers had a friend, Hagyard's Yellow Oil can justly claim the distinction. Pain never stays long where it is used, while for croup it is a specific. Parents should keep it in the house as a safe guard against accidents, frost bites, chilblains, sprains, bruises, burns, etc.

Mr. John Magwood, Victoria Road, writes: "Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure is a splendid medicine. My customers say they never used anything more effectual. Good results immediately follow its use. I know its value from personal experience, having been troubled for 9 or 10 years with Dyspepsia. Since using it digestion goes on without that depressing feeling so well known as dyspeptics. I have no hesitation in recommending it in any case of Indigestion, Constipation, Heartburn, or troubles arising from a disordered stomach."

Consumption Surely Cured.

To the Editor:—

Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured, I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their Express and P. O. address.

Respectfully, Dr. T. A. Slocum,
186 West Adelaide st., Toronto, Ont.

The saloon must have boys, or it must shut up shop. Can't you furnish it one? It is a great factory, and unless it can get about 2,000,000 boys from each generation for raw material, some of these factories must close out and its operatives must be thrown upon a cold world, and the public revenue will dwindle. "Wanted—2,000,000 boys," is the notice. One family out of every five must contribute a boy to keep up a supply. Will you help? Which of your boys will it be? The Minotaur of Crete had to have a tribute-full of fair maidens each year: but the Minotaur of America demands a city-full of boys each year. Are you a father? Have you given your share to keep up the supply for this great public institution that is helping to pay your taxes and kindly elect a public official for you? Have you contributed a boy? If not some other family has had to give more than its share.—The Voice.

Messrs. C. C. Richards & Co.

Dear Sirs:—I took a severe cold in February last which settled in my back and kidneys, causing excruciating pain. After being without sleep four nights, through intense suffering, I tried your Minard's Liniment. After the first application I was so much relieved that I fell into a deep sleep, and complete recovery shortly followed.

THE HOME OF JUGGERNAUT.

Orissa is the hardest spot in Indian heathenism says Dr. Mutchmore, in the Presbyterian. The greatest Juggernaut temple in the country is at Pooree, in this province. The structure shows a great dome on the principle edifice, rising above two lower ones. This dome is two hundred feet high. In the main building are Juggernaut and his brother Bullabpudra, and his sister Soobhoodra. In the next room, dancing girls perform for the entertainment of the Juggernaut family. Great quantities of food are brought before these gods. They are only entitled to the smell, the Brahmins eat it. The enclosure is six hundred feet square, and the wall twenty feet high. The idol is the consummation of ugliness; his hands and feet are made of gold. The Brahmins fit it out in Cashmere shawls and jewels, and like the bride who took off her false nose and teeth as she retired, this idol has his hands and feet and toggery taken off at night lest some of his devotees should get away with them. The car is a platform thirty-four feet high, mounted on sixteen great wheels and hauled by six heavy ropes three hundred feet in length. Juggernaut is entitled, according to Brahmin descriptions, to be known as the god of nastiness. The descriptions of the priests respecting this attribute are abominably obscene, and according to the details of filthy and unbridled imaginations is the loudness of the applause. This scrap of history is introduced to show that there is no heathenism so desperate that Christian missionaries have not modified it.

OVER-NICE.

The extreme squeamishness and almost painful precision of speech of a certain Miss Blank afford her friends no little amusement. She was calling on a friend just before Christmas, and naturally the conversation turned upon the approaching holiday.

"I suppose you are actively engaged in your preparations for Christmas?" said Miss Blank.

"Yes, I am quite busy getting my children's little presents ready."

"I presume so," was the reply. "And I dare say the children are looking forward with the most delightful anticipation to Christmas morning. Do you have a tree, or do your children hang up their—ah—er—hosiery?"

Truth Stranger Than Fiction.

Miss Jennie A. McNair, of Lions Head, Bruce Co., Ont. tells the following remarkable experience:—I called upon a woman who was very sick. She had not left her bed for two weeks. He friend said she was dying of consumption; indeed she was so low it seemed that it would be but a very short time until she would pass away. I looked around on her little children and resolved if possible to cure her, but how to do it was the question. I was well used to the different forms of consumption and knew her trouble all came from the head and that her lungs were being destroyed by breathing the poisonous secretions into them. I came home praying that God would give me what was wanted to cure her—and he did in a strange way. A little boy came into the room where I was and and wanted me to look at a star on a piece of paper. It proved to be an advertisement of Nasal Balm. I ordered it at once and it proved to be just what I wanted as to-day the woman's head is all right. She is able to do her own work and is getting strong very fast. This remarkable change was effected by one bottle of Nasal Balm. Enclose 50 cents for another bottle which is for a young lady here who has had catarrh for a long time. Please send at once and I will try and make its worth known in this place. It is a pleasure for me to work for the suffering and praise the medicine that deserves it.

The world-wide reputation of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the natural result of its surpassing value as a blood medicine. Nothing in the world pharmacopœia, effects more astonishing results, in scrofula, rheumatism general debility, and all forms of blood disease, than this remedy.

Advice to Mothers.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the pain of Cutting Teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers; there is no mistake about it. It cures Dysentery and Diarrhœa, regulates the Stomach and bowels, cures Wind Colic, softens the Gums, reduces Inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup" for children teething is pleasant to the taste and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind.

"I have used Ayer's Pills for the past 30 years, and am satisfied I should not be alive to-day if it had not been for them. They cured me of dyspepsia when all other remedies failed."—T. P. Bonzer, Chester, Pa. Ayer's Pills are sold by all druggists.

Rest and Comfort to the Suffering.

"Brown's Household Panacea" has no equal for relieving pain both internal and external. It cures pain in the side, back, or bowels, sore throat, rheumatism, toothache, lumbago and any kind of pain or ache. "It will most surely quicken the Blood and Heal as its acting power is wonderful." "Brown's Household Panacea," being acknowledged as the great Pain Reliever, and of double the strength of any other Elixir or Liniment in the world, should be in every family handy for use when wanted, "as it really is the best remedy in the world for cramps in the stomach, and pains and aches of all kinds and it for sale by all druggists at 25 cents a bottle.

Consumption Cured.

An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousand of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, in German, French or English, with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. Noyes, 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

Those intolerably painful and constantly harrassing things called piles, which troubles so many people, are soon healed by Dr. Thomas's Eclectric Oil—the great external remedy for physical suffering and means of relieving pains. A very small quantity achieves results of the most gratifying kind.

People Wonder

When they find how rapidly health is restored by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. The reason is that this preparation contains only the purest and most powerful alteratives and tonics. To thousands yearly it proves a veritable elixir of life.

Mrs. Jos. Lake, Brockway Centre, Mich., writes: "Liver complaint and indigestion made my life a burden and came near ending my existence. For more than four years I suffered untold agony. I was reduced almost to a skeleton, and hardly had strength to drag myself about. All kinds of food distressed me, and only the most delicate could be digested at all. Within the time mentioned several physicians treated me without giving relief. Nothing that I took seemed to do any permanent good until I began the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which has produced wonderful results. Soon after commencing to take the Sarsaparilla I could see an in my condition, my appetite began to return and with it came the ability to digest all the food taken, my strength improved each day, and after a few months of faithful attention to your directions, I found myself a well woman, able to attend to all household duties. The medicine has given me a new lease of life, and I cannot thank you too much."

"We, the undersigned, citizens of Brockway Centre, Mich., hereby certify that the above statement, made by Mrs. Lake, is true in every particular and entitled to full credence."—O. P. Chamberlain, G. W. Waring, C. A. Wells, Druggist.

"My brother, in England, was, for a long time, unable to attend to his occupation, by reason of sores on his foot. I sent him Ayer's Almanac and the testimonials it contained induced him to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla. After using it a little while, he was cured, and is now a well man, working in a sugar mill at Brisbane, Queensland, Australia."—A. Attewell, Stanhot Lake, Ontario.
