Christmas day was beautiful with sunshine all day, but snappy cold and just enough snow for the best of sleighing—an ideal day for Christmas. Sleighing parties were plentiful and everybody appeared to thoroughly enjoy themselves.

Will the members and adherents of Chalmers Presbyterian church, Flesherton, kindly take notice that next Sabbath will be the last Sunday in the 1920 financial year. Those in arrears kindly take notice, as the financial report will be made out next week—G. A. McTavish Secretary-Treasurer.

Rev. Mr, Belfry informs The Advance that he saw a robin in town on Wednesday of last week. He examined it closely from close quarters and knows it was a robin without a feather missing. This must be an awful crack for The Globe, which thinks it has a mortgage on the discovery of robins in winter. Then the leaves have not all yet fallen from the fruit trees. What does all this evidence of a tropical climate mean?

The Presbyterian Sabbath School entertainment on Christmas evening was the most successful in the history of he school. The church was crowded to the doors and the proceeds amounted to $120 without Sunday collections. The usual excellent tea was given in the basement and a good program in the auditorium. The church has been newly fitted with electric fixtures, which were used for the first time on this occasion, although not yet qutie completed, This church is prospering greatly under the ministration of Rev. Mr. Fowler.

At a recent U. F. O. Convention in Toronto some of the speakers dwelt on the iniquity of the "subsidized press" and instanced the huge sums that some of the big papers had cost the country for advertising. This was called subsidizing. It is nice to anticipate a U. F. O. regime in Ontario without any cost to the country for advertising, but a glance at the Farmer's Sun is liable to dispel any such hope. It gets all the Ontario Government advertising going. Of course it is entitled to it, but then so were the other papers entitled to advertising without having such work stigmatized by the offensive term of subsidy. Call off some of those speakers of yours, Mr. Drury. There is too much glass in their domicile.

In an action brought by Mr. Wm. Robertson against the township of Huron for $787 for the loss by drowning of 19 pigs and 2 calves and the destroying of some feed on the 11th of March last through the water over-running the plaintiff's land and getting into his barn as the result of a drain on the roadway clogging up with snow, and which affair was argued before Judge Klein at the Non Jury Sittings here on Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Judgment was given the plaintiff for the full amount of his claim with costs. The result of this case would show that the onus of keeping the drains open is on the municipality, and that they are liable for whatever damage any neglect in this matter may occasion.—Bruce Herald and Times.
