The Young Folks.

MOTHER HUBBARD'S CHRISMAS CUPBOARD.

Old Mother Hubbard
Went to the cupboard
To get her poor children some spice,
As soon as she got there,
She said, "I declare
Christmas will come in a trice."

"Rush to your old home
The church bell will come,
Dear little children too;
Sweet Susie and Sadie
And the new baby,
Perhaps one few days you ever knew!"

Now bright the coals burn
That frowns to a turn,
Pies, pudding, cakes large and small;
Christmas is near,
Blessed and dear,
Christmas the best time of all!"

The old fashioned clock
Said "Tick! tick! tock!"
As it held up its hands in delight
While Old Mother Hubbard
Shut up her cupboard
With satisfied smile that night.

Tommy's Great Invention.

"I've thought of a new way to make money, Uncle Peter," said Tommy, as he came in from the wood-shed with a little hot in his hand; "I'm going to invent things and get 'em patented."

"I suppose then you'll invent a jackknife that won't get lost, and a pocket that will never wear out, and a gold watch that can be bought for twenty five cents."

Tommy didn't half hear, being very busy with his little box.

"Would you like to see my invention, Uncle Peter?" said he at last. "I've got it all fixed but just one little point. It's a mouse-trap. See, here he comes, looking for his supper. And here's a sort of little food box full of cake and cheese. And he smells the cheese and keeps sniffing round till he sees it, and then in he goes at this hole, and flop comes the little door, and there's Mr. Mouse! Oh, it's lots better than a cat!"

"Why, of course 'tis," said Uncle Peter.

"It'll never scratch the baby, or drink out of the milk pan, or keep folks awake in the night. I can see it's better than a cat!"

"And I'll make a bigger one for rats and quite a good-sized one for rabbits, and maybe a great, immense one for bears. Wouldn't that be splendid?"

"I should think so!" cried Uncle Peter. "Let's have another look at this great invention of yours. Here he goes into this hole, and flop comes the little door—that's the way, isn't it? But what flops the little door?"

"Well," said Tommy, slowly, "you know I said there was just one thing I hadn't got hold of yet. I've thought, and tried, and I can't seem to find any way to flop that little door when the mouse goes in. But I'm not going to give up on account of a little matter like that, even if I have to sit behind the wood-box and flop it myself!"—Youth's Companion.

Mr. Pentleton, in his Newspaper Reporter gives many instances of mistakes made by reporters through ignorance. The first is that of a stenographer who made Lord Carnarvon say that, in these days, clergymen are expected to have the wisdom and learning of a "journey-man tailor" (Jeremy Taylor, of course). In another case, the late John Bright was spoken of as "the cametock" instead of "the Gamaliel of Birmingham;" and, in a third, reference was made to "those beautiful lines of Bishop Ebor." Quotations have often had sad havoc made of them, as when one reporter turned "In heaven yclept Euphrosyne" into "In heaven she crept and froze her knee," and when another made Baron Dowse cite as Tennyson's the line "Better fifty years of Europe than a circus in Bombay!" (cycle of Cathays). Perhaps the funniest mistake due to the reporter was made when the words, "Kissed her under the silent stars" were transformed into "Kicked her under the cellar stairs." The indistinctness of the "copy" supplied to the compositors is responsible for an amusing blunder now and then. During the summer of 1890, the Bishop of St. Asaph referred in the course of a speech at some function in his diocese to "his younger and rather days" but the local papers reported him as having deplored "his younger and mother days."

The most troublesome man or woman in the church is not the rudely outspoken one; nor yet the chronic grumbler and objector; nor yet the perpetual critic and faultfinder; nor yet the church gossip; bad as they are, they are not so bad as the man or the woman whose nervous irritability or indigestion sets them constantly on the lookout for slights and insults which were never intended, nor given, and applies every thoughtless remark, every word and deed that is capable of inappreciable interpretation to himself or herself, and is constantly being hurt, offended, insulted, and threatening to leave the church. You can scarcely crook your finger without giving some people offence. Take a charitable view of your fellow-beings. If you are treated coldly and cautiously, instead of kindly, it is because you are not frank and generous, but suspicious. Life takes its hues from the color of your own mind. Don't be easily provoked. Be slow to take offence. Keep cool. "Soon fire—soon ashes." Forgive injuries. "To err, is human, to forgive, Divine."—Intelligencer.

Good Deeds Done.

The good deeds done by that unequalled family liniment, Hagyard's Yellow Oil, during the thirty years it has been held in ever-increasing esteem by the public, would fill volumes. We cannot here enumerate all its good qualities, but that it can be relied on as a cure for croup, coughs, colds, sore throat and all pains, goes without saying.

Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure, and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you.

The Best Authorities.

Such as Dr. Dio Lewis, Prof. Gross, and others, agree that catarrh is not a local but a constitutional disease. It therefore requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, which effectually and permanently cures catarrh. Thousands praise it.

Hood's Pills cure liver ills, jaundice, biliousness, sick headache, constipation and all troubles of the digestive organs.

No woman is really beautiful until she is old.

Those intolerably painful and constantly increasing things called piles, which trouble so many people, are soon healed by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—the great external remedy for physical suffering and means of relieving pains. A very small quantity achieves results of the most gratifying kind.

Most women are ambitious; they want to be men.

A Prompt Result.

Dear Sirs,—Two years ago I was very ill with jaundice and tried many medicines which did me no good until I was advised to try B.B.B., when, after using half a bottle, I was effectually cured.

Charlotte Monroe, Elphinstone, Man.

Sweethearts and wives are entirely different women.

Nothing so suddenly obstructs the perspiration as sudden transitions from heat to cold. Heat rarifies the blood, quickens the circulation and increases the perspiration, but when these are suddenly checked the consequences must be bad. The most common cause of disease is obstructed perspiration, or what commonly goes by the name of catching cold. Coughs, colds, sore throat, etc., if attended to in time are easily subdued, but if allowed to run their own course, generally prove the fore-runner of more dangerous diseases. Nine-tenths of the consumptives date their affliction from a neglected cold, and the diseases that are caused by wet feet, damp clothes or exposure are more numerous than are generally supposed. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, which frees the lungs from viscid phlegm by changing the secretions from a diseased to a healthy state.

Keep a clear conscience and lead a life void of offence.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil.

This great internal and external remedy always allays all pain. It is a specific for croup, and promptly cures coughs, colds, sore throat, sprains, bruises, burns, rheumatism, cuts, wounds, etc. Good for man or beast. Stands all tests. Sold everywhere. Price 25 cents. Hagyard's Yellow Oil.

Women are apt to criticise women with undue severity.

Six Years' Suffering.

Dear Sirs,—I was troubled for six years with erysipelas, and two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters entirely cured me. I keep B.B.B. constantly in the house and think it an effectual cure for all diseases caused by bad blood.

Mrs. H. Dowsett, Portland, Ont.

A woman is seldom prosaic until she is some man's mother-in-law.

The Third page of the Toronto Daily Mail is noted for "Want" advertisements If you want to buy or sell anything. Inflammation of the Eyes Cured.

Mr. Jacob D. Miller, Newbury, writes: "I was troubled with Inflammation of the Eyes, so that during nearly the whole time of the summer of 1892 I could not work; I took several Bottles of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and it gives me great pleasure to inform you that it cured me of my affliction. It is an excellent medicine for costiveness."

A flirtation is a blush to-day, a cry to-morrow and a blush every day thereafter.

Mrs. G. M. Young, 1 Sully Street, Grove Street, Liverpool, Eng., writes that the contents of one bottle of St. Jacobs Oil cured her of lumbago after she had given up all hopes of ever being better.

Never put iron or steel bits in a horse's mouth in frosty weather without first warming them. They will take the skin off the horses tongue.

An Important Scientific Discovery.

Nerviline, the latest discovered pain remedy, may safely challenge the world for a substitute that will as speedily and promptly check inflammatory action. The highly penetrating properties of Nerviline make it never failing in all cases of rheumatism, neuralgia, cramps, pains in the back and side, headache, lumbago, etc. It possesses marked stimulating and counter irritant properties, and at once subdues all inflammatory action. Ormand & Walsh, druggists, Peterboro', write "Our customers speak well of Nerviline." Large bottles 25 cents. Try Nerviline, the great internal and external pain cure. Sold by all druggists and country dealers.

Minards Liniment cures Diphtheria.

IT PAYS.

It pays to wear a smiling face
And laugh our troubles down,
For all our little trials wait,
Our laughter or our frown
Beneath the magic of a smile
Our doubts will fade away,
As melt the frost in early spring
Beneath the sunny ray.

It pays to make a worthy cause,
By helping it, our own:
To give the current of our lives
A true and noble tone.
It pays to comfort heavy hearts,
Oppressed with dull despair,
And leave in sorrow-darkened lives
One gleam of brightness there.

It pays to give a helping hand
To eager, earnest youth;
To note with all their waywardness,
Their courage and their truth;
To strive with sympathy and love,
Their confidence to win:
It pays to open wide the heart,
And "let the sunshine in."

Mr. H. B. McKinnon, painter, Mount Albert, says: "Last summer my system got impregnated with the lead and turpentine used in painting; my body was covered with scarlet spots as large as a 25 cent piece, and I was in such a state that I could scarcely walk. I got a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and at once commenced taking it in large doses, and before one half of the bottle was used there was not a spot to be seen, and I never felt better in my life."

"A man's life and a horse's life are worth more than a fox's tail."

Culloden Cullings.

Gentlemen,—In 1888 I was severely afflicted with gravel of the kidneys from which I suffered great pain. I was recommended to take Burdock Blood Bitters, which I did, finding great relief, and after taking four bottles can truly say I am cured and have not since been troubled. I highly recommend it.

Peter West, Culloden P. O., Ont.

Make life a ministry of love, and it will always be worth living.

Gilbert Laird, St. Margarets Hope, Orkney, Scotland, writes:—"I am requested by several friends to order another parcel of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. The last I got from you having been tested in several cases of Rheumatism, has given relief when doctors' medicines have failed to have any effect. The excellent qualities of this medicine should be made known; that the millions of sufferers throughout the world may benefit by its providential discovery."

Told The Truth.

A clergyman not long since observed a horse jockey trying to take in a gentleman by imposing upon him a broken-winded horse for a sound one. The person, taking the gentleman aside, told him to be cautious of the person he was dealing with. The gentleman declined the purchase, and the jockey, quite nettled, observed, "Parson, I had much rather hear you preach than to see you privately interfere in bargains between man and man in this way." "Well," replied the person, "If you had been where you ought to have been last Sunday you might have heard me preach." "Where was that?" inquired the jockey. "In the State prison," returned the clergyman.

Real Merit

Is the characteristic of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it is manifested every day in the remarkable cures this medicine accomplishes. Druggists say: When we sell a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla to a new customer we are sure to see him back in a few weeks after more,—proving that the good results from a trial bottle warrant continuing its use. This positive merit Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses by virtue of the Peculiar Combination, Proportion and Process used in its preparation, and by which all the remedial value of the ingredients used is retained. Hood's Sarsaparilla is thus peculiar to itself and absolutely unequalled in its power as a blood purifier, and as a tonic for building up the weak and weary, and giving nerve strength.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to all his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English with full directions for preparing and using. Guelph Business College
GUELPH, ONT.

We are now offering Educational advantages and Tuition Rates such as have not hitherto been offered the Canadian people by any self-supporting institution. The scope and thoroughness of our Commercial Course is strikingly shown by the fact that several of our students during the past year, have been offered situations on condition that they took the Commercial Course at the Guelph Business College.

In our Shorthand and Typewriting Department, the two leading Shorthand Systems of the present day are taught. Our method is the outcome of ten years' experience in teaching Shorthand, and leads to the best practical results in the shortest possible time.

In our Modern Language Department you can get a practical command of either French or German, while pursuing the Commercial Course, and without extra charge. Both languages are taught by the Natural Method, which enables the student to read, write and speak them. This is a rare opportunity which the ambitious and energetic young man or woman will not fail to seize.

In Penmanship, our work is the admiration of all who see it. Send for a specimen. Students from England and United States are now in attendance.
