The Young Folks.

DO IT.

Know what you've got to do first, and then do it;
What you do, do at once—you never will rue it:
Let duty direct you, and never pooh-pooh it;
If your horse has a loose shoe, why, let the smith shoe it.

If your chair back is broken, get the glue pot and glue it.
What you do, do at once—you never will rue it.
If your lesson is hard, work hard and get through it;
If your seam is ill sewn, get a pin and undo it.

What you do, do at once—you never will rue it.
If your burden is heavy, then bend your back to it.
It won't grow the lighter because you eschew it;
What you do, do at once—you never will rue it.

A Saloon Keeper's Fears.

There are your R.T. of T. and your W.C.T.U., and I.O.G.T.; and if there are many more letters I've skipped, I suppose they've got them in some kind of a society—or something; and every one of them is doing their level best to get the future generation away from us. The boys used to like to come into my saloon. They said it was pleasanter than the church, it was so bright, and fixed up nice, you know; but the folks in these societies have learned the trick, and I declare if they aren't trimming up most as fine as we do. So I don't see the boys as much as I did. I have a few left yet who stand by me but I'm afraid they won't stay much longer, if these women hold out. This is where the trouble is to come from, these persisting women. You may vote high license, Sunday law or no Sunday law; you may stand at the polls from sunrise to sunset, and pass your little papers in as fast as you can count; you may raise your temperance platforms as high as a meeting-house and plant your temperance lecturers upon them as thick as they can stand; they may raise their voices till the tones reach the top of the Eiffel tower, and mark off their figures and statistics on their eloquent fingers as long as they can add and subtract. We will still hold up our heads and keep up our spirits. The skirmishing doesn't affect us much, but so long as there is one woman left to wave her white handkerchief as the blue-ribbon cold-water boys march along the street, depend upon it, she'll do more damage to our trade than all the other things put together. Then the children, when they shall grow up, rooted and grounded in temperance,—they're beginning it now,—why, even in the schools they're taught the effect of alcohol on their systems—along this line, I say, is where the trouble is going to come in for the saloon-keepers. But I am bound not to give up, if I can help it, but if I have to surrender, you may know 'twas one of those women that stole a march on me; and when that day comes, I hope you'll paint over my saloon door, just to make me feel mean as account of deserting my colors, "Left camp! driven out by a woman."

Fortunate Postponement.

At an autumnal session of the Superior Court, at Skipton, in the West Riding of Yorkshire, a man was tried for highway robbery, convicted, and sentenced to be hanged. He was tried on Tuesday, and the judge appointed the following Friday as the day of execution. The court was being closed, when a wonderful thought occurred to the sheriff, and he hopped up and made a motion for his honor to hold on for just a moment. He had remembered that Friday was the day on which his only daughter was to be married. Surely, he could not have a hanging on that day. He whispered to the judge, and then went and whispered to the prisoner.

The sheriff frankly explained his situation, and then asked the malefactor if he would not just as lief hang on Thursday, for they could not well have such a thing on Saturday.

The culprit would have gladly accommodated the good sheriff; but he hoped to see his wife on Thursday, and she might not come until the evening. "She has been a true wife to me, and you would not deprive me of that privilege! So, why not put it off till Monday?"

The sheriff went back to the judge, to whom the thing mattered but very little, one way or the other, and the execution was postponed till the following Monday. Then the court arose, and the prisoner was returned to his dungeon.

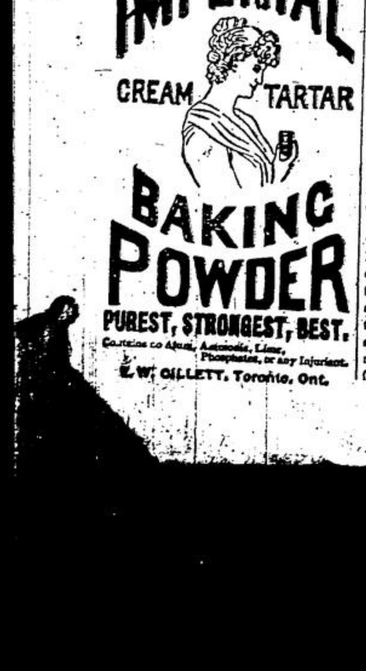
On Thursday evening, just at sunset, his wife came to see him; and on Sunday night, by the skillful execution of a plan concocted by the good hearted women, the prison bolts were loosened and the highwaymen went free!

Prompt, Potent, and permanent results always come from Milburn's Aromatic Quinine Wine.

What Makes a Boy Popular.

What makes a boy popular? Manliness, says Hezekiah Butterworth in the Ladies' Home Journal. The boy who respects his mother has leadership in him. The boy who is careful of his sister, is a knight. The boy who will never violate his word, and who will pledge his honor to his own heart and change not, will have the confidence of his fellows. The boy who defends the weak will one day become a hero among the strong. The boy who will never hurt the feelings of anyone will one day find himself in the atmosphere of universal sympathy. "I know not," once said the Great Governor Andrew, "what record of sin may await me in another world: but this I do know: I never yet despised a man because he was black.

Shall I tell you how to become a popular boy? I will. Be too manly and generous and unselfish to seek to be popular; be the soul of honor, and love others better than yourself, and people will give you their love, and delight to make you happy.



NOTES HERE AND THERE.

Items of General Interest to Free Press Readers.

The Raw, Cutting Winds

Bring to the surface every latent pain. A change of even a few degrees marks the difference between comfort and pain to many persons. Happily disease now holds less sway. Science is continually bringing forward new remedies which successfully combat disease. Polson's Nerviline—nerve pain cure—has proved the most successful pain relieving remedy known. Its application is wide, for it is equally efficient in all forms of pain whether internal or external. 25 cents a bottle at druggists.

That which is won ill will never wear well, for there is a curse attends it which will waste it; and the same corrupt dispositions which incline men to the sinful ways of spending.

Hard and soft corns cannot withstand Holloway's Corn Cure; it is effectual every time. Get a bottle at once and be happy.

If you want to buy or sell a Farm, advertise in the Toronto Weekly Mail. That paper reaches 100,000 Farmers' homes every week, and your advertisement should meet the eye of someone who wants to purchase. Advertisements of this class are inserted in the Toronto Weekly Mail for Five Cents a word each insertion, or Twenty Cents a word for five insertions. Address The Mail, Toronto, Canada.

Mrs. Jinks—What do you think? A thief shot at Mrs. Bingle while she was sitting in her room, and the bullet lodged in a ball of yarn which she was winding. Mr. Jinks—Well, well! Mr. Bingle is a lucky fellow isn't he? Mrs. Jinks—I should say he was. Mr. Jinks—Yes, indeed. He has a wife who darns stockings.

The Ladies Delighted.

The pleasant effect and the perfect safety with which ladies may use the liquid fruit laxative, Syrup of Figs, under all conditions make it their favorite remedy. It is pleasant to the eye and to the taste, gentle, yet effectual in acting on the kidneys, liver and bowels.

Messrs. Stott & Jury, Chemists, Bowmanville, write: "We would direct attention to Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, which is giving perfect satisfaction to our numerous customers. All the preparations manufactured by this well-known house are among the most reliable in the market.

Advertiser—What is your circulation? Business Manager—Sir! Our presses have a capacity of 100,000 perfect copies an hour—yes, sir, 100,000 an hour, all cut and pasted and folded—yes, sir. And here, sir, is a detailed and absolutely perfect photograph of one of the presses. Look at it yourself.

Facts About Dyspepsia.

Wrong action of the stomach and liver occasions dyspepsia. Dyspepsia in turn gives rise to bad blood. Both these complaints are curable by B. B. B., which acts on the stomach, liver, bowels and blood, and tones and strengthens the entire system, thus positively curing dyspepsia, constipation, bad blood and similar troubles.

Painful Burns, bruises, scalds and cuts are quickly soothed and healed by Victori Carbolic Salve.

The man who is suddenly thrown upon the world finds it hard work to support himself. This is especially so of the aeronaut who falls out of his balloon.

Job's Endurance.

A man may bear up patiently for hours under trials of physical endurance, but when prolonged to years, we cry out. But why should we suffer thus? There is a cure and prompt cure. Bethany, Mo., U. S. A., Aug. 4th, 1888. "I suffered for years with neuralgia, but was finally cured by the use of St. Jacob's Oil."

T. B. SHEREN.

Every step of the way to heaven is paved with promises like this: "To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life."

Public Speakers, Actors and Vocalists find, and state that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil relieves hoarseness and irritation in the throat better than remedies specially advertised to relieve that difficulty. This Oil has a wide scope, since it cures external hurts, corns, sores, frost-bites, piles, and a variety of other unhealthy conditions.

Are You Deaf.

Or do you suffer from noises in the head. Then send 3 cent stamp and I will send a valuable treatise containing full particulars for home care which costs comparatively nothing. A splendid work on deafness and the ear. Address PROF. G. CLARK, Montreal.

My dear, said a fond mother to her boy, why do you not play with the little Jones boy? Oh, he's horrid. He says bad naughty words just like papa. Reform will begin at home in that family.

How well we remember grandmother's attic, so fragrant with medicinal roots and herbs! Poor old soul, how precious they seemed to her! and yet, one bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilla would do more good than her whole collection of "yarbs."

Highest Award.

At the Universal Cookery and Food Exhibition held in London and opened by the Lord Mayor, May 3rd, 1892, Messrs. W. G. Dunn & Co., of Croydon, London, and Hamilton, Canada, obtained the highest award for Baking Powder.

Quantity outweighs rank.—Tommy (to new boy)—You wasn't born in America. You can't never be President, New Boy—No; but I can be a policeman some day and you can't.

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.

Gents,—I sprained my leg so badly that I had to be driven home in a carriage. I immediately applied MINARD'S LINIMENT freely and in 48 hours could use my leg as well as ever.

JOSEPH WYNACHT.

Bridgewater, N. S.

That string on your finger means "Bring home a bottle of MINARD'S LINIMENT."

Mr. John Blackwell, of the Bank of Commerce, Toronto, writes: "Having suffered for over four years from Dyspepsia and weak stomach, and having tried numerous remedies with but little effect, I was at last advised to give Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery a trial. I did so with a happy result, receiving benefit from one bottle. I then tried a second and a third bottle, and now I find my appetite so much restored, and stomach strengthened, that I can partake of a hearty meal without any of the unpleasantness I formerly experienced."

Have You Read.

How Mr. W. D. Wentz, of Geneva, N. Y., was cured of the severest form of dyspepsia? He says everything he ate seemed like pouring melted lead into his stomach. Hood's Sarsaparilla effected a perfect cure. Full particulars will be sent if you write to C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

The highest praise has been won by Hood's Pills for their easy yet efficient action.

"What have they wound up on that cart?" asked the old lady who was visiting the fire-engine house. "Firemen's hose," was the answer. "Go away," she rejoined, indignantly, "you can't make me believe that any fireman or anybody else ever had legs to fit those.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Oh, What a Cough?

Will you heed the warning. The signal perhaps of the sure approach of that more terrible disease Consumption. Ask yourselves if you can afford for the sake of saving 50c., to run the risk and do nothing for it. We know from experience that Shiloh's Cure will cure your cough. It ever fail s.

"My boy," said the aged poet to the son of a lately deceased publisher, "I owe your father a debt I can never repay. He threw my first book into the waste-basket.

SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

This GREAT COUGH CURE, this successful CONSUMPTION CURE, is without a parallel in the history of medicine. All druggists are authorized to sell it on a positive guarantee, a test that no other cure can successfully stand. If you have a Cough, Sore Throat or Bronchitis, use it, for it will cure you. If your child has the Croup or Whooping Cough, use it promptly, and relief is sure. If you dread that insidious disease CONSUMPTION, don't fail to use it, it will cure you or cost nothing. Ask your druggist for SHILOH'S CURE, price 10cts., 50cts. and $1.00. If your Lungs are sore or Back Lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plaster. 25cts.

John Hays, Credit P. O., says:—"His shoulder was so lame for nine months that he could not raise his hand to his head, but by the use of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil the pain and lameness disappeared, and although three months has elapsed, he has not had an attack of it since."

A good name is better than great riches, but it isn't wise to put a good name at the end of a note unless you have great riches to back it up.

Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look into the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be; could we realize our danger, how speedily we would seek a cure; but with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold? Is it not diseases of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than madness to neglect a cold, and it is folly not to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint: One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal herbs, which exert a most wonderful influence in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, soothes irritation and drives the disease from the system.

Sick headache caused by excess of bile or a disordered stomach is promptly relieved by using National Pills.

As the course of true love never runs smooth, it is supposed that there will always be plenty of friction matches in the world.

CONSUMPTION CURED.

An old physician, retired, from practice having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy for the speedy and permanent cure of Consumption, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Asthma and all throat and Lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for Nervous Debility and all Nervous Complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to all his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe in German, French or English with full directions for preparing and using. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper. W. A. NOYES 820 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y.

"No," said Miss Spinster, "I wouldn't have any fool of a man." "And as you cannot get any other kind," remarked Aunt Susan, "you prefer to remain single. Well, I don't know as I blame you."

Canada is being congratulated everywhere on the excellences of her manufactures. Art Stained Glass is prominently in the front rank of her improvements, thanks to McCausland & Son, of Toronto, who for 40 years have labored, not only to accumulate money, but to make Stained and Ornamental Glass of all kinds a credit to the Dominion

The Best Known.

DEAR SIRS,—I can recommend Dr. Fowlers Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaint and diarrhœa. I have used it in my family for two years for children and adults with the greatest satisfaction.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria within easy reach." CARLOS MARTYN, D.D., New York City. Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church.

Castoria cures Colic, Constipation, Sour Stomach, Diarrhœa, Eructation, Kills Worms, gives sleep, and promotes digestion, Without injurious medication.

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial results." EDWIN F. PARDEE, M. D., "The Wisthrop," 125th Street and 7th Ave., New York City.

THE CENTAUR COMPANY, 77 MURRAY STREET, NEW YORK.

Facts and Figures.

A reliable record of the world's progress, giving invaluable information on hundreds of subjects, historical, religious, mercantile household and farm. Facts, statistics, hints and hits are dealt with. Everyone should have a copy. Sent on receipt of a three cent stamp, by T. Milburn & Co., Toronto, Ont. Don't delay as the supply is limited.

"Why, you knock the breath out of me!" said the puffing force bellows to a sturdy blacksmith. "Well, what of it? You're the worst blower I ever tackled," replied the perspiring horse-shoer.

It is safe to use Freeman's Worm Powders, as they act only on the worms and do not injure the child.

Guelph Gossip.

DEAR SIRS,—I have been troubled for over a year with sick headache and sick stomach. Nothing did me any good until I tried B. B. B., which made a perfect cure before I had finished the first bottle. I recommend it as a safe cure for headache to all my friends.

MISS ANNIE MCNULTY, Guelph, Ont.

At a dinner party in Boston, a young man from the West, who was visiting the host, was asked if he was fond of ethnology. "Well, ye-es," he replied at a venture, "but I don't think I'll take any to-night."

Minard's Liniment is the Best.

As a blood-purifier, the most eminent physicians prescribe Ayer's Sarsaparilla. It is the most powerful combination of vegetable alteratives ever offered to the public. As a spring and family medicine, it may be freely used by old and young alike.

In all Cases.

DEAR SIRS,—I have used Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry for summer complaints, and after a fair trial have proved it a sure cure both in my own case and others of the family.

LAURETTA WING, New Dundee, Ont.

"My dear madame," said a doctor to his patient, "I am truly gratified to see you yet in life. At my last visit yesterday, you know I said you had but six hours to live." "Yes, Doctor, [illegible]; but I did not take the dose you left me."

Never too late to mend.—At the French registrar's office a wedding party had been waiting a considerable time for the bridegroom. At last he came—an old man about seventy. "Another time," said the registrar, "try to be here a little sooner."

Dunnville Dotage.

GENTLEMEN,—I had a headache for a long time, and seeing Burdock Blood Bitters advertised, I got a bottle, and it not only relieved me at the time but I have not been bothered since with headache and think I have seen the last of it. MINNIE HICKS, Dunnville, Ont.

The following, says the Australian Sunday School Teacher, is from a boy's essay on total abstinence. It is a whole volume on temperance in a nut shell; "I abstain from alcholic drinks, because, if I would excel as a cricketer, Grace says, 'abstain'; as a walker, Weston says, 'abstain': as an oarsman, Hanlan says, 'abstain'; as a swimmer, Webb says, 'abstain'; as a missionary, Livingstone says, 'abstain'; as a doctor, Clarke says, 'abstain': as a preacher, Farrar says, 'abstain'; Asylums, prisons and workhouses repeat the cry, 'abstain!"

All is not attractive that is good. Iron is useful, though it does not sparkle like the diamond. Gold has not the fragrance of a flower. So different people have different modes of excellence, and we must have an eye to all.
