Black—Johnston

Cupid has been very busy lately with his golden bow and arrow, of which one result was the marriage of Mr Robert Ellwood Black, of Dundalk, to Miss Elda Johnston, of Toronto on Wednesday last at the home W G Thomas, in town, uncle of the groom. Rev F G Fowler performed the ceremony.

The bride looked very sweet and girlish attired in a gown of navy blue satin with over dress of Georgette. The friends from a distance were Mr and Mrs Robert and Russell Black.

The young couple went to their home near Dundalk on the Saturday evening train. We wish Mr and Mrs Black a very happy voyage through life.

Crossley—Boyd

A quiet wedding took place on Wed., January 26th, at Flesherton, when Lena Maud, elder daughter of Mrs. Lena M. Boyd and the late W J Boyd, was united in marriage to Charles J Crossley, of Toronto. Rev C Belfry conducted the ceremony.

The bride, who was unattended, was given away by her brother, Kendall Boyd, and looked very pretty in a gown of navy taffeta with chenille trimming, wearing the groom's gift, a rope of pearls, and carried ophelia roses. Little Miss Laura Boyd made a pretty flower girl in white crepe de-chine with tulle sash and carried in her basket pink and white carnations. The wedding music was played by Reginald Boyd, younger brother of the bride.

After the wedding breakfast Mr. and Mrs. Crossley left for their home in Toronto, the bride travelling in a taffeta dress, Hudson seal coat and gold lace hat with seal trimming.

Patterson--Gilchrist

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gilchrist was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday, Jan. 26. when their second daughter, Clara May, became the wife of Mr. George Edgar Patterson, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Geo. Patterson of Priceville, the Rev. Mr. Fowler officiating. The bride, who was given away by her father, took her place beside the groom under an arch of pink and white streamers, from which suspended a horseshoe and bells. Miss Edna Stewart played Lohengrin's wedding march. The bride looked charming in a gown of ivory hand embroidered charmeuse satin and georgette crepe, her bridal veil being caught with a string of pearls and carrying a corsage bouquet of sweet peas and carnations. During the signing of the register Mrs. Fowler sang very sweetly, "Oh Promise Me." After the ceremony about 45 guests retired to the dining room, where a dainty wedding dinner was served. The room was tastefully decorated with pink and white streamers and white bells. Visitors from a distance were: Mr and Mrs O. Potter and Mrs S Clayburn, Mono Mills; Mrs Andy Ford, Oakville. The young couple were the recipients of many useful and beautiful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was an opossum cape and to the organist a gold brooch. The newly wedded couple left on the afternoon train amid showers of confetti and good wishes to visit in Toronto and elsewhere. The bride travelled in a smart suit of navy blue tricotine and hat to match. On their return they will reside on their farm near Priceville.

Card Of Thanks
