Mitchell about twenty rods from the place where the charge was being set off, Mr. Thos. Hoggard, an old and respected citizen, was struck by a flying stone in the chest and instantly killed. ## FEVERSHAM

There has been the very best weather for seeding for the last week and the farmers are rushing the work to a finish. R Alister gets the hat again this year, as he was the first to finish seeding in this part, having finished nearly two weeks ago.

I wonder what has become of the road drags our Township Fathers bought two or three years ago, as they have not been used in this part of the township this spring. Some of the roads are in bad condition, great deep ruts having formed. When rain comes these ruts fill with water and then the traveler is in for a shower bath when driving either horse or car, then drying later into deep ruts. Get the road drags going after the next rain and note the difference. Adjoining townships are using them and their roads are in far better condition wherever the drags have been used.

Miss Lily Wingfield, of Cleveland, Ohio, is visiting with her aunt, Mrs Geo Ellis and other friends in this part.

Miss McKeon of Duncan is visiting with her grandparents, Mr and Mrs J J Kaitting.

Miss Mary Speer visited with her cousins, Mr Hood Hemphill and sisters, at Flesherton last week.

Mrs Harold Osborne visited with her sister, Mrs Ed Croft at Rock Mills last week.

Mr A Stewart and wife spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs Ira Perigo.

Ed Croft and wife visited with the latter's parents over Sunday.

R J has invested in a Ford roadster. Telephone poles, rocks and rail piles on the roadside take warning.

Geo Julian, grocer man, has them all beaten for expert chauffeur work with his tin lizzie. He draws big loads of goods, takes the hills on the fly (and the banks too) cuts the figure eight, misses all obstructions and comes out on top every time.

Neil McKinnon Dead

We regret to learn of the death of Mr. Neil McKinnon, who passed away on Sunday at his home in Toronto in his 77th year. He was well known in this town and in Priceville and vicinity, where he spent the greater portion of his life.

He was born on the island of Tiree on the West coast of Scotland. He came to Canada when five years of age and settled in Egremont, but later lived in Durham, and finally moved to Priceville, where he married Elizabeth Brown, and to them was born a family of four sons, of whom survive: Hector, of the editorial staff of The Globe, Neil and Bobs, and two daughters, Ella and Laura, all residing at home. Mrs. Adam Weir, of town, is a sister, and Mr. Hugh McKinnon of Priceville is a brother. One son, Donald, enlisted in July, was wounded overseas Sept. 10, 1917 and died Sept 13.

The late Mr. McKinnon was a Presbyterian in religion and a Liberal in politics. A funeral seavice was held at the home in Toronto on Monday night and on Tuesday morning the remains were brought to Priceville, where service was held at the Presbyterian church at 1 30 and interment made in the cemetery there.

The writer has known the deceased for upwards of thirty years and had every reason always to respect him for his honesty, integrity and hospitality. To the sorrowing widow and family we extend our sincere sympathy.—Chronicle.

Friday evening, April 29th, the W. M. S. ladies gave a very enjoyable social in the church and hall at Inistioge. Two large tables in the hall represented one China and one Japan and were thus decorated. The waiters were boys dressed to represent Chinamen and the waitresses were most charming Japanese ladies. The supper menu was in conundrum form. The program was splendid in the church, although, on account of the very inclement weather, some who had promised to help were unable to be present. Despite the weather the proceeds were over thirty dollars. We were especially thankful to Mr Woods of Corbetton for coming so far on such a night to help us by acting in the capacity of chairman.

The W. M. S. closed their successful year and appointed new officers at a meeting held at Mrs Milton Bannon's last Tuesday.

Mrs Ellen Arnold, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs George Moore, for a couple of months, returned to her home at Mount Albert on Saturday.
