A play and dance will be given by the Ceylon Amusement Club in the Orange Hall this Friday evening. A good play entitled "Molly's Way" will be given. See bills.

Mr. Walter Loucks returned home from the West on Saturday after an absence of nearly nine years. Walter was prospecting and trapping in northern Manitoba for a number of years and was very successful in his work there. He was in Siberia with the Expeditionary Force and with a friend spent an extra year trapping there, returning last year. All his old friends were glad to see Walter back again.

Work is proceeding on the cleaning up and fencing of Memorial Park, and after completion it is expected that Flesherton will have one of the most picturesque and handsomely appointed parks in seven counties. The work is still in initial stages, but the park will soon be fenced and other work be proceeded with without delay. The drive-way through the park has been partially underbrushed and old timber is being removed.

A number of citizens were in Toronto last week as witnesses in the Harmon Radley insurance case. Last fall an unoccupied residence in town belonging to Mr. Radley was burned and the Company refused payment. The case was heard in the City Hall, Toronto, on Friday morning last before Judge Widdifield, when a large number of witnesses were heard. Judgment was reserved. Judgment was later given against the insurance company with costs.

A sudden death occurred in town on Saturday afternoon last, when Donald (Dan) Leitch passed away at his home at the age of 55 years. For a couple of weeks he had been feeling unwell but nothing fatal was anticipated. Saturday morning he took suddenly worse and died about 2 30, from what was diagnosed as acute indigestion. The deceased was born at Priceville. He leaves three sisters and two brothers—Mrs. Henry Clark, living near Markdale; Mrs. S. Smart, Duncan; Mrs. Jos. Field, Flesherton; Malcolm in town, and George, of Markdale. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Tuesday afternoon from the home of his sister, Mrs. J. Field, where service was held at 2 p m. Dan was a man who made many friends, to whom his death is a great shock.

Last week was a good seeding week and numbers have completed their work.

The Advance had a pleasant call on Monday from Warden Sing, of Meaford, who was on an inspection tour with the County Goodroads Committee, going as far as Hanover and returning Tuesday.

A horse case was tried in Owen Sound last fall, when J. Stinson sued H. Piper for the price of a horse and won his suit. An appeal was entered and this was heard last week when the appeal was sustained and Mr. Stinson loses his case.

Mr. Will Colquette, of Port McNichol, and his father, R. Colquette, of Feversham, were callers one day last week. The latter has fully recovered from his late nervous trouble and has regained his old time strength.

The Grey Regiment will leave here for camp at Niagara on June 18th and will be away for about 9 days, returning on June 27th This Regiment is endeavouring to raise a platoon in Flesherton Markdale and Dundalk each and officers are now busy signing up men for the various platoons. The rate of pay is $1.25 per day for new men, and $1.50 per day for returned soldiers with everything found. This is a good chance for some military training and vacation combined. Anyone desirous of signing up will please see J. A. Legard or W. Cargoe, Flesherton.

Mr. George Latimer, an old resident of Eugenia, died on Monday at the rare old age of 98 years. The deceased gentleman was born at Niagara and came to Artemesia 62 years ago, settling on a farm at Salem. He leaves a family of four sons and three daughters—Jonathan and Leonard at Eugenia, Albert at Edmonton, Will at Minneapolis; Mrs. Jamieson and Mrs. Slack, Toronto, and Mrs. Dunlop, near Meaford. One son and one daughter are dead, Wesley, who was drowned a couple of years ago, and Mrs. R. Plantt. The funeral took place to Salem Cemetery on Wednesday.

The census enumerators are to be at work on June 1 and to be through by June 12. There are many questions to be answered and anyone who refuses to give the information may be brought before a magistrate and fined. The enumerators are sworn to secrecy and are not to reveal any information. The taking of the census is a provision of the British North America Act and must be taken every ten years. The population of Quebec forms the basis of representation in the Federal Parliament, having a fixed number of 65 members, and the other provinces a membership bearing the same proportion to their population, as 65 bears to the population of the Province of Quebec.

Mr. H. G. Carrington, painter and decorater, is working in Priceville. See his samples of wall paper for that room of yours.

The Methodist Ladies' Aid Society will hold a sale of homemade cooking, candy, vegetables, etc., on Saturday, May 21st in the Armstrong block. Sale commences at 2 o'clock.

Died—In Artemesia, on Friday, May 6, Elizabeth Snell, relict of the late John Snell, aged 72 years. The funeral took place on Monday afternoon to Flesherton cemetery.

NOTICE—I, the undersigned, will not be responsible for any debts contracted in my name by my wife, Mrs. John W. Wright, (nee Stella Pedlar) after this date. Dated May 5th, 1921. John W. Wright.
