BASEBALL

LEAGUE GAMES THIS WEEK :—
Dundalk at Rocklyn—Wednesday.
Ceylon at Flesherton—Friday.

Durham has two teams in the N. W. Baseball League, junior and intermediate, the latter being grouped with Hanover, Moltke, Chesley and Neustadt.

A couple representatives from Markdale were down to the executive meeting Saturday evening but were unable to gain admission into the League.

Ceylon journeyed to Dundalk Thursday afternoon for an exhibition game and were beaten 5-0 by Dundalk. "Derby" Russell, catcher for Dundalk, is the best man behind the bat in this district.

Glenelg Centre played an exhibition game with Flesherton on the local field on Thursday evening, the score ending seven all One feature of the game was Legard's home run hit inside the left field foul line.

LACROSSE

Owen Sound and Hanover juniors open their schedule this Thursday on the Hanover field.

Markdale is still undecided to enter the intermediate lacrosse group, and it is likely they will combine with Durham for this year, This will necessitate a longer journey for Flesherton fans to see a good game of lacrosse.
