Flesherton Advance.

Vol 42, No. 1 — Flesherton, Ont., June 9 1921

PRICEVILLE

The recent showers of rain at intervals of a few days apart and the warm weather have caused rapid growth in grass and grain fields. No damage has been done by lightning, hail or rain as yet.

Wm Aldcorn, with a number of men and teams, are repairing a section of the county road from the village eastward, and through the long swamp. The spring hole in the hill east of the river required a lot of work to make it passable.

E. Hogg, C P R agent, has treated himself to a new car.

A number of persons are showing an interest in the new public cemetery by having their plots worked over and reseeded to lawn grass and all others will surely follow with improvements and we will have a nice cemetery in the near future.

Sacramental service was held in the Methodist church last Sunday morning. There will be no service in this church next Sunday, June 12, as the pastor will be at conference.

Angus Kennedy is preparing to erect a good wire fence along his property on Townline street.

Dan McInnes has lost a number of Plymouth Rock hens lately. Some of the town dogs have acquired a great appetite for fowl.

Miss Katie McDonald has taken a position in the postoffice here.

DUNDALK

The fire alarm rang Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock because of an electrical display at the power station. There was no harm done but the lines were out of commission for light and power till about 7.30 that evening. An electrical storm was responsible for the trouble.

Hugh G E Crosby, who assisted W G Blackwell, R D., in the work of the Anglican Church in this parish for the past two or three summers, passed his final exams at the University in London attaining the degree of B A. He was ordained at Brantford and has accepted the incumbency of All Saints' Church at Beachville.

Fred McDowell, the 7-year-old son of Mr and Mrs J D McDowell, had his left arm broken while at play at the Agricultural Grounds one day last week.—Herald.
