Misses Margaret Pedlar, May Duckett, Isabella McKee, Leone Gordon and Fred Large wrote on the Entrance last week.

Preparations are under way for the unveiling of the memorial. Watch for the date in next week's paper.

PRICEVILLE

Hot weather! 91 degrees in the shade at the end of last week.

Two of our village young men, Albert Hazzard and D C McLean, who joined the Grey Regiment and went to camp at Niagara and report favorably on drill, etc., while at camp. We understand that Albert is now Corporal Hazzard.

Mr and Mrs David Heatherington and little son of Shelburne motored up here on the afternoon of July 1st and made a short call on friends.

Owners of sweet clover fields are pricking up their ears at the improved market report.

James Dixon, the Irish soldier evangelist and his daughter, Rosena, of Toronto, conducted the services in the Methodist church here last Sunday morning. Mr. Dixon is a pleasant but earnest speaker and Miss Dixon is certainly a sweet singer of Gospel songs.

Service in the Methodist church here will be withdrawn next Sunday, July 10, as the evangelist and his daughter will conduct service in Salem Methodist church, that morning, and at Ebenezer afternoon and evening, also each evening during next week except Saturday.

We expect Rev C S Jones to leave home some day this week to take a few weeks' holidays, but we expect the Presbyterian pulpit will be filled each week by outside help as usual during the pastor's absence.

KIMBERLEY

Haying is the order of the day here.

It has been extremely dry and hot here for over two weeks. A good rain would do much good to the crops.

Those home for the holidays are: John and Will Hammond, Rachel Hutchinson and Elvie Bishop.

Mrs Hammond, sr., has returned from the West, where she has been spending a couple of months with her daughter, Mrs Frank A Hutchinson, and is accompanied by her daughter and little grandson.

Mr and Mrs R G Acheson of Proton and Mr and Mrs R J Cornett of Dundalk visited at G A Hutchinson's lately.

Born—On June 12th, to Mr and Mrs Saul Fawcett, a daughter, Kathleen Lillian.

Born—On June 26th, to Mr and Mrs D L Weber, a son.

Mr and Mrs Dick Dewsbury of Toronto were callers in this village on Saturday last.

Fire from some unknown origin totally destroyed the store of C. J Lougheed at Heathcote on Wednesday night. Mr. Lougheed had been at the store until 10 o'clock, and left for Thornbury, and had only been on his way home about fifteen minutes when he was stopped and informed that his store was ablaze. Mr. Lougheed immediately retraced his steps and with a few volunteers was able to rescue a few groceries before the roof fell in. A dwelling house belonging to Mr Swanly was also totally destroyed. Mr Lougheed had just opened up his store two months ago and was enjoying a prosperous trade.—Review Herald.

Miss M Smith of Harkaway was the guest of Mr and Mrs J J McGee and family recently.

Mrs Jacob Holley has returned home after spending a couple of weeks with friends in Toronto.

Miss E Lawrence of Kimberley spent the week end with Mr and Mrs D Graham.

Ideal weather and a good crowd favored Vandeleur's celebration on Dominion Day. About three o'clock there was a calithumpian parade which was good. The first of the sporting events was a baseball match between Rocklyn and Vandeleur, which was won by the home team by a score of 24 to 5. Batteries—Rocklyn—Storey, Abercrombie, Leitch and Ayerst. Vandeleur—R Graham, Buchanan and Bowler. In the evening a football match between Kimberley and Wodehouse was the most keenly contested game of the day. During the whole game neither sides were able to score a goal. The concert in the evening was a grand success. Messrs Legge and Dunbar of Owen Sound gave some excellent numbers. The Highland Band from Markdale provided music afternoon and evening. The proceeds amounted to almost $400.

Everyman's Problem

"If I save the same amount during the next ten years of my life that I have saved during the past ten years, how much will I be worth?" What will be the answer in your own case? Are you proud or ashamed of your Bank Account? It is better to say "I'm glad I saved" than "I wish I had". No man ever retired on the money he spent.
