KIMBERLEY

Weather is still very hot and dry.

The berry pickers are out again. I think every person who owns a home should have a berry patch. I have often thought that every farmer should have a maple grove. We cannot have the grove but we can have a berry patch. I fancy I hear one woman say to another, what was the matter? I did not see you at church Sunday morning. Were you or any of the children sick? No, I was picking berries all week and when Sunday came I was just too tired to go to church.

Mr and Mrs Wilfred Plantt visited at Mr Saul Fawcett's recently.

Sorry to hear that Mr D Wallace is somewhat under the weather. Hope soon to hear of his recovery.

The first cut of alfalfa and sweet clover is about completed. The timothy is light.

Apparently the apples in this vicinity will be as scarce this year as they were plentiful last year.

John Magee has purchased a Ford car. See the girls smile.

The Late Hugh Hammond

A very sad gloom was cast over Kimberley on the 23rd June, when a 'phone message reached here that Hugh Hammond had died in Collingwood hospital following an operation for appendicitis. Hugh had been much troubled with appendicitis since he was a lad of 17 years. He had not been well for some time, but did not complain much until Tuesday, when he was working around home scarcely able to keep up. Wednesday he kept his bed and towards evening took much worse. Thursday he was taken to the hospital and operated on. Friends had every hope for his safe recovery until the following Wednesday noon, when a great change came over him and he passed away next morning about 4 30 His wife, who stayed with him during all his sickness in hospital, two daughters, brother John and other friends, were with him when he died. Hugh was in his 37th year, and was one of the best all round fellows and neighbors that could be found. Fourteen years ago he married Miss McMullen of Eugenia. They farmed near Kimberley for five years, when they moved to a farm near Priceville. About five years ago, when Mr. Hammond, Sr., died, Hugh and family came to Kimberley and took over the store and postoffice, where he was always liked. Everyone, young and old, will always miss Hugh's cheery voice and smile. He leaves a sorrowing wife and five children – Hazel, Blanche, Mervyn, Russell and Estelle—to mourn the extreme loss of a loving husband and father; also a devoted mother, two brothers—John E. of Meaford high school, Will, teacher in Toronto and one sister, Mrs Frank Hutchinson (Edith) of Swift Current, Sask., and who arrived in time for the funeral.

The remains of this loved one were taken to Thornbury cemetery on June 27th and laid to rest. Beautiful wreaths, sprays and flowers rested on and near the casket, from Mr. and Mrs. Win Large, Eugenia; Mr. and Mrs. Well. Graham, Eugenia; Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Carruthers, Eugenia; Lemon Bros., Owen Sound; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Irwin, cross from the Stewart Bros., Women's Institute and Ladies' Aid of Kimberley. Rev. Mr. Veales took charge of the funeral service. The pall bearers were the brothers, John and Will: two brothers-in-law, Jasper Stuart and Russell McMullen; and two cousins, Sandford Knott and Rob Stuart. A very large number of people were present to show their sympathy for a loved one gone.

Run Over By Tractor

A severe accident befel W. H. Hunter of the 20th con. of Egremont on Tuesday morning, when the front wheel of his tractor ran across his chest, causing painful injuries, though as yet no bones are known to have been broken. He was seated on the tractor backing it out of the shed. From the sill of the shed to the ground alongside there is a drop of nearly a foot, and there was a nut off the top of the steering wheel. In taking this drop with a good supply of gas on, the lurch jerked him off with the loose steering wheel and he fell backwards between the wheels. It ran over his chest, dragging him a foot or two, tearing his shirt and badly scratching his back. It is possible his spine may be injured. He is suffering much, but Drs. Sneath and Mair, who are in attendance, have good hopes for his recovery.—Review.
