In Memoriam

In loving memory of my dear father, William Davis, who died July 18, 1921.

Upright and just in all his ways,
Honest and faithful till the end of his days.
Gone and forgotten by the world he may be,
But the grave that enshrouds him is sacred to me.

—Daughter Winnie.

PORT LAW

The news of the passing of Rev Peter Campbell in Toronto, a former pastor here, was received with sad hearts, not only by the people of Mount Zion church, but the entire community, by which he was held in high esteem, grieves the loss of a devoted friend. Our sympathies go out to Mrs Campbell and sons in their sad bereavement.

A very serious accident occurred at the raising last Friday of Mr Richard McMullen's implement house. Mr Robert Hill was engaged with others in placing a plate fifty feet long. The timber had become somewhat bent, and while Mr Hill was turning it with a canthook it went more sudden than expected and he was thrown violently to the ground, a distance of eight or ten feet. He was removed to his home and Dr Guy was summoned, who discovered a compound fracture of the left arm close to the shoulder, and so serious that the doctor decided to rush his patient to Collingwood hospital for treatment
