CEYLON

The W I held a garden party on the school grounds on Friday evening, when tea was served from well laden tables, and ice cream served from a tent. A most interesting game of ball was played on the diamond between Flesherton and Ceylon, the score being 12 to 4 in favor of the home team. Afterwards all repaired to the school house, which was packed to the doors. Mr Wilson, pastor, acted as chairman, and a short program was given. The ladies are very grateful to all who assisted. The proceeds at the gate were $122.

The Shelburne Free Press was shown samples of coal taken from the Pickering drill hole on the Oliver farm on the outskirts of town and from examinations made by experts it has been pronounced coal of best quality. The coal was found at a depth of 125 feet, but whether it is there in paying quantities remains to be seen. We understand that lack of funds at present prevents further search. When financial aid is secured digging operations will be in order to ascertain the extent of the find.

Earl Duncan, the 4 year old son of Mrs. Duncan, was run over by an auto on Saturday afternoon while playing on the street. He escaped with a few scratches and a severe shaking up. We don't know whether or not the driver of the car was to blame, but we do know that there is too much careless and reckless driving on the streets of the village—Standard.

Criminal Code Changes

Several important changes have been made in the Criminal Code. Henceforth British subjects are not required to obtain permits to keep a rifle or shotgun, but must have permits to keep a pistol or revolver. Aliens must obtain permits to keep any kind of a weapon.

The penalty for the theft of an automobile under the amendments is not less than one year imprisonment with no option of a fine, and no suspended sentence unless sanctioned by the Attorney General.

For driving an automobile while in an intoxicated condition the penalty on the first conviction is not less than seven days and not more than thirty days in jail; for the second offence not less than thirty days and not more than three months, and the third and subsequent offences not less than three months and not more than one year in prison.

For highway robbery the lashes have been added in addition to a prison term.
