FEVERSHAM

Mr McLean of Souris, Manitoba, is visiting his sister, Mrs Geo Whiteoak.

Sadie Izard, eldest daughter of John Izard, Jr, was another claimed by the grim reaper, Death, a few days ago, after only a few hours' illness at the age of 17 years. Death came as a great shock to the neighborhood—a girl blooming into womanhood and beloved by all who knew her. The remains were laid to rest in the Methodist cemetery at Maxwell on Saturday, the Rev Albert Mills officiating. The sorrowing parents have the sympathy of the whole community.

Miss May Whiteoak of Toronto is visiting her parental home here.

James Speer is visiting Toronto friends

Mrs James Pelch and niece, Edith Ottewell, of Collingwood, are visiting the former's sister, Mrs Geo Ellis.

Henry Pelch of Collingwood is visiting in this vicinity.

Robert Whiteoak has his new butcher shop on Church street completed.

James Sayers has mounted on a cement pedestal the German machine gun which our Clerk, and returned soldier, Wm. Kernahan, has presented to the village. It is mounted on the square in front of the mill.

J E Carrol, tinsmith and plumber of Clarksburg, has rebuilt the furnace in the Methodist parsonage at Maxwell and his workmanship is a credit to him.

Still another of our old residents has passed to the great beyond, Mrs Richard Brackenbury, Sr, at the ripe old age of 83 years. Mrs Brackenbury came to Osprey from England with her husband and family about 35 years ago and settled on the 10th line, where she lived until about fifteen years ago. Her neighborly kindness and quiet disposition won for her the love and respect of al who knew her. About fifteen years ago they moved into this village, where her husband died twelve years ago. Since then her daughter, Mrs Geo Ellis, has taken care of her in her declining years, and surely if ever a mother was loved and cared for Mrs Brackenbury was taken care of by Mr and Mrs Geo Ellis. She is survived by three sons—Chas, Wm and Fred; and three daughters—Mrs Geo Ellis, Mrs James Pelch and Mrs Wingfield.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Thomas Julian and daughters wish to thank their many friends and neighbors for their kind assistance while Mr. Julian was ill and also for their many expressions of sympathy during their recent bereavement.

A St. Vincent agriculturist while in Meaford picked up a dog belonging to A. J. Tuohy, formerly of Eugenia, and battered its brains out on a cement floor. Mr. Tuohy will seek legal redress.

Miss Agnes McPhail Is U. F. O. Candidate

At the U. F. O. Convention held in Durham on Monday of this week Miss Agnes McPhail was chosen as the U. F. O. candidate for Southeast Grey at the coming Federal election. There were some 25 aspiring candidates present, but every one of them fell before the charms of the lady from Ceylon. Mr Harry Shaw was the last man to succumb, after the others had dropped out one by one on various ballots.

Miss McPhail has been pretty well heard throughout the riding during the past summer and is recognized as a whirlwind to talk. This, no doubt, she inherits from her esteemed father, Mr. Dougald McPhail the auctioneer, and the gift possessed by her may land her in Parliament the first thing she knows. Then the big interests and profiteers may look out!

In any event, we congratulate Miss McPhail on the slaughter she made among the innocents at Durham on Monday.

MAXWELL

Miss Bessie Wright of Toronto is visiting at her parental home.

Dr and Mrs Roszell of Caledonia are visiting with the latter's parents, Mr and Mrs Sam Osborne.

Two Shelburne Items

A two year old colt, the property of John Mowat, sustained injuries which necessitated its despatch to the happy hunting grounds via the rifle route. Its injuries were caused in a peculiar manner. Having gained entrance to the highway unknown to its owner, it attempted to defy the movements of a Ford car. When within a short distance of the car it wheeled around and kicked viciously at the vehicle, its hind foot smashing right through both windshields. In trying to extricate itself from the mixup one of the hind legs of the animal was stripped to the bone of both hide and flesh. It got up and walked further along the highway, then laid down, where it was later shot with a rifle to put an end to its misery.

The ringing of the fire alarm shortly before dinner on Tuesday brought the fire brigade out to the first real fire in many moons. The conflagration occurred in the stable at the rear of the residence of Thos. Greer, Wellington street. When the brigade arrived the whole upstairs interior was a mass of flames, but the main part of the building was saved after the use of a liberal quantity of water. Mr. Greer was engaged burning the vermin and cobwebs from his poultry house beneath, when some straw took fire at the ceiling and made great headway to the loft above—Free Press.

Car Turned Over Man Broke Neck

Walter Hungerford of Meaford is in Owen Sound hospital in a very serious condition as a result of a motor accident near Chatsworth last Wednesday night, says the Advertiser. The lowest cervical vertebrae is broken and the spinal cord pinched, and Hungerford is totally paralyzed from the waist down. The doctors state that his chances of recovery are very slight. The accident happened on the Garafraxa road about three quarters of a mile south of Chatsworth near the farms of A Shutis and William Campbell. Hungerford, with four other men was returning at night from Durham to Meaford. At this point in the road there is a long, gentle grade, with a bad turn at the bottom for one who does not know the road. Chet Gibbons was driving. The car was unable to make the turn and went right on, crashing through a telephone post and bringing up against a pile of boulders at the fence. All the occupants of the car were thrown out with terrific force. A. Randle went right through the top and found himself after the crash in the remains of it about fifteen feet away from the car. Hungerford had been sitting on the right hand side of the rear seat of the car and was found thrown out on the left hand side near Randall. None of the other men in the car were seriously injured. The car was almost completely demolished, with three wheels smashed, the left fender and footboard stripped, the axles bent and the top torn off. Hungerford is 30 years of age, a tailor and unmarried.

PRICEVILLE

The unveiling of the soldiers' memorial will take place on Tuesday afternoon next, October 4.

The concert in connection with the Presbyterian church, on Friday evening of last week was quite successful, over $200 being realized.
