INDIGESTION

If you have it, you know it. You know all about the heavy feeling in the stomach, the formation of gas, the nausea, sick headache, and general weakness of the whole body.

You can't have it a week without your blood being impure and your nerves all exhausted. There's just one remedy for you—

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

There's nothing new about it. Your grandparents took it. 'Twas an old Sarsaparilla before other sarsaparillas were known. It made the word "Sarsaparilla" famous over the whole world.

There's no other sarsaparilla like it. In age and power to cure it's "The leader of them all."

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

Ayer's Pills cure constipation.

"After suffering terribly I was induced to try your Sarsaparilla. I took three bottles and now feel like a new man. I would advise all my fellow creatures to try this medicine, for it has stood the test of time and its curative power cannot be excelled." J. D. Goon, Jan. 30, 1899. Brownhows, Va.

STAND UP FOR YOUR COLORS.

Stand up for your colors, dear boys, fear not
To show yourselves brave and true
To all you profess in the cause of right,
In all you say and do.
Stand up for your colors, be not ashamed
Though others may scorn and jeer,
If your flag is the signal for all that is good,
Stand up for it without fear.

Stand up for your colors, for soldiers are you
As you march in the ranks of life;
In all life's chances for weal or for woe
You will have your share of the strife.
But look to it, boys, as you march along,
That the flag which is waving above
Is spread to the breezes of honor and truth
Of righteousness, peace and love.

And under the flag, as you daily tread
The path where your Captain leads,
You will feel inspired, believe it, lads,
To do and to dare brave deeds.
Then hold up your heads in the manly pride
Which comes from the knowledge of right,
And let the world see how firmly you stand
For the colors 'neath which you fight.

Street Car Accident.—Mr. Thomas Sabin, says: "My eleven year old boy had his foot badly injured by being run over by a car on the Street Railway. We at once commenced bathing the foot with Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, when the discoloration and swelling was removed, and in nine days he could use his foot. We always keep a bottle in the house ready for any emergency."

Do as well as you can to-day, and perhaps to-morrow you may be able to do better.—Rev. John Newton.

For a clear complexion, take Petty's Pills. They never fail to clear the skin. Thousand of ladies swear by them.

Customer—Give me ten cents' worth of paregoric, please. Druggist—Yes, sir. Customer, absent-mindedly—How much is it? Druggist—A quarter.

I had a very sore foot through having a nail run in it, and was unable to walk. I started applying Hagyard's Yellow Oil and in a short time the soreness was gone and I was soon able to walk again. David McLellan, Paint Island North, Ont.

Mr. E. Conomy—what do you mean by buying all these things? Mrs. E. Conomy—Don't get excited, dear, I didn't buy them. I had them charged.

As an all-round family remedy, one that always should be in the house for an emergency, Dr. Petty's Pills discount anything in the market. They are so small a child can take them with ease; yet one's a dose.

So the elopement on the automobile was nipped in the bud? Yes; the old man bid the gasoline can.

Do Not Delay.—When, through debilitated digestive organs, poison finds its way into the blood, the prime consideration is to get the poison out as rapidly and as thoroughly as possible. Delay may mean disaster. Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will be found a most valuable and effective medicine to assail the intruder with. They never fail. They go at once to the seat of the trouble and work a permanent cure.

What do they mean by "hypothetical question?" Why, it's one of those questions they ask you when you're trying to keep off a jury.

LANGUID

children are sick children. Their inactivity and sober faces are not in keeping with robust childhood. They lack vitality and resistive power, and are very susceptible to colds and contagious diseases.

Scott's Emulsion

TO CLOSE A CUT.

An English judge wears in court a great wig and a gown, and is addressed as "my lord." Public sentiment scarcely allows him to unbend, even out of court. Nevertheless, sometimes he does unbend.

It is related in a recent biographical sketch of Sir Henry Hawkins, who was so prominent in the prosecution of the famous Tichborne claimant, and who is now a judge, that he is in the habit of wearing his hair extremely short.

He was once waiting for a train at the Epsom railroad station on a race day, and a number of rowdy cures. One of them behaved very rudely to the judge, who remonstrated with him; and thereupon the rough invited Sir Henry to come outside and have it out with him.

The judge reflected that, as the men appeared to be of the criminal classes, some of the party have appeared before him, and would know him. So he took off his hat and said:

"Perhaps you do not know who I am."

His assailant looked at his closely cropped head and edged off. "S' help me Bob!" he exclaimed, "a bloomin' prize-fighter! Not fer me!"

The judge was not molested further.

On another occasion Sir Henry, on a ramble between assizes with a companion, stopped at a wayside inn, and joined in a skittle with two rustics. In an unguarded moment the judge took off the mole-skin cap. One of the rustics, after eying him superstitiously, turned to go away.

"I doan't mind bein' neighborly," said he, "but I'm 'anged if I'm goin' to play skittles with wi' a ticket of leave man!"

PASSING OF THE COIN.

A grocer in a small village in Forfarshire, discovered a bad two shilling piece, which his wife (who was afflicted with weak eyesight), had taken during the day. Being of a parsimonious disposition this annoyed him greatly, and he determined to pass the coin at the first opportunity.

The next day, while at work he saw Daft Jimmie, the village idiot, pass. Calling him over, he said:

"Here's a bad two shilling piece, Jimmie, I want you to go to Simpson's (a rival tradesman), and buy an ounce of tobacco, but bring me the change."

Jimmie hurried off and soon reappeared, and handed the delighted Sandy his change.

"Did Simpson no jalous anything?" he asked.

"Ach," said Jimmie, "I didna fash gaen so far as Simpson's. I just passed it in yer ale shoppie."—Tit Bits.

THE VIRTUES OF

Paine's Celery Compound Are Recognized by the Ablest Physicians.

It is the Great System Builder in the Spring Time.

It Produces Solid and Healthy Flesh, Makes Pure Blood and Strong Nerves.

The peculiar and distinguishing medicinal virtues of Paine's Celery Compound are fully recognized by the ablest medical men in every part of the Dominion.

In its peculiar power and ability to invigorate the body, to make new blood and to regulate the nerves, lies the great value of Paine's Celery Compound in all wasting diseases and disorders of the kidneys, liver and stomach.

At this season of the year, when thousands are tired, rundown and sick, Paine's Celery Compound comes to the rescue of the shaky and enfeebled nerves and keeps them from utter prostration and ruin, and banishes that feeling of exhaustion that is the cause of despondency, melancholia and depression among men and women of all ages.

Paine's Celery Compound makes solid and healthy flesh, pure blood and strong nerves.

Paine's Celery Compound strengthens the digestive powers, and restores the nervous system when impaired from over-exertion of mind or body.

The best test that can be applied to Paine's Celery Compound is to use a bottle or two at this time when the body needs cleansing and building up.

Speak as you think, be what you are, pay your debts of all kinds.—Emerson.

Signals of Danger.—Have you lost your appetite? Have you a coated tongue? Have you an unpleasant taste in the mouth? Does your head ache and have you dizziness? If so, your stomach is out of order and you need medicine. But you do not like medicine. He that prefers sickness to medicine must suffer, but under the circumstances the wise man would procure a box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills and speedily get himself in health, and strive to keep so.

The wear and tear of rust is even faster than the wear and tear of work.—Smiles.

Does your back ache? Take a Petty.
Does your side ache? Take a Petty.

Bad With Worms.

Some time ago my little boy was very bad with worms. I procured a bottle of Dr. Low's Worm Syrup and am thankful to say it cured him quickly and completely. Mrs. C. Charleton, McKellar P. O., Ont.

Never throw mud! You may miss your mark, but you must have dirty hands.—Rev. Joseph Parker.

Little but Searching—Dr. Von Stan's Pineapple Tablets are not big nauseous doses that contain injurious drugs or narcotics—they are the pure vegetable pepsin—the medical extract from this luscious fruit, and tablets are prepared in as palatable a form as the fruit itself. The remedy searches out the weak spots in the digestive organs—encourages and stimulates them—60 in a box, 35 cents. Sold by A. T. Brown.

Advice is not disliked because it is advice, but because so few people know how to give it.—Leigh Hunt.

Dr. Petty's never fail to give relief and they cure if given an honest trial.

He that wrestles with us strengthens our nerves and sharpens our skill. Our antagonist is our keeper.—Burke.

Lake Liver Pills work while you sleep without a gripe or pain, curing Biliousness, constipation, dyspepsia and sick headache and make you feel better in the morning.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

In these days of imitations it is well for everyone to be careful what he buys. Especially is this necessary when a matter of health is involved.

There are so many imitations of Doan's Kidney Pills on the market—some of them absolutely worthless—that we ask you to be particular to see that the full name and the trade mark of the Maple Leaf are on every box you buy. Without this you are not getting the original Kidney Pill, which has cured so many severe cases of kidney complaint in the United States, Australia and England, as well as here in Canada. The Doan Kidney Pill Co., Toronto.

No surer test of a man's character can possibly be found than is furnished by his ability to keep calm and steady under abuse and misunderstanding.

FROM THE "SNEEZY" STAGE

To the Chronic and Deep Seated Catarrh—Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder Relieves Quickly and Cures Permanently.

Mrs. Elmer S. Archer, of Brewer, Me., writes of Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder: "I have used this wonderful remedy with most excellent results. It cured me absolutely of chronic catarrh in my head, and for cold in the head have found it invaluable in our family. Sold by A. T. Brown.

The greatest poems are all unwritten, and the greatest sermons unpreached.

So rapidly does lung irritation spread and deepen, that often, in a few weeks a simple cough culminates in tubercular consumption. Give head to a cough, there is always danger in delay, get a bottle of Dickie's Anti-Consumptive Syrup, and cure yourself. It is a medicine unsurpassed for all throat and lung troubles. It is compounded from several herbs, each one of which stands at the head of the list as exerting a wonderful influence in curing consumption and lung diseases.

The cause of temperance is emphatically the cause of virtue, patriotism and morality.—Mathew.

Where others fail, there Dr. Petty's Pills prove their power to cure.

To deliberately incur a heavy debt without the most possible prospects for discharging it is to mortgage oneself, soul and body, to lifelong misery and humiliation.

LAXA-LIVER PILLS

You can't be healthy if your bowels are constipated and your system clogged with poisonous material. There should be a natural movement every day, and the best way to secure it is to take Laxa-Liver Pills. The most obstinate cases yield to their action. They neither gripe, sicken nor weaken, are easy to take and prompt to act.

CURE CONSTIPATION

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup Heals and soothes the Lungs and cures Coughs and Colds of the worst kind after other remedies fail. Pleasant to take. Price 25c.

The man who imagines that all the world is under obligation to contribute to the gratification of his personal whims furnishes an amazing example of the extent to which self-conceit may go.

"The Noblest Mind,

The best contentment has." Yet, however noble in mind, no man or woman can have perfect contentment without physical health. The blood must be kept pure and the stomach and digestive organs in good order. The best means for this purpose is Hood's Sarsaparilla. It promptly cures all blood humors and eruptions and tones up the system.

The favorite cathartic is Hood's Pills. 25c.

TEACHERS' TROUBLES.

How Teachers May Prevent the Breakdown of the Nervous System which often Threatens.

The worry and work, the strain and anxiety of a teacher's life are such as to tell severely on the nervous system. Time and again teachers have had to give up good positions on account of run down health and shattered nerves. To such we confidently recommend Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, and in doing so we are supported by the testimony of Mrs. Reilly, Colborne Street, Chatham, Ont., who made the following statement:—"Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are, beyond question, the best remedy for nervousness and all exhausted conditions of the system I know of. My daughter, as a result of over study and close application to her duties as school teacher, became much run down and debilitated and was very nervous. Two months ago she began taking Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. They acted quickly and effectually in her case, making her strong and building up her entire system." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Palpitation, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Anæmia, Female Troubles, After Effects of Grippe, Debility, or any condition arising from Disordered Nerves, Weak Heart or Watery Blood. Price 50c. a box.

TENDENCY TOWARD SOBRIETY.

The growth of sobriety among the working classes is one of the most promising features of the social conditions of to-day, and it has been enforced by the immense development in the responsibilities of daily life, says the New Orleans Picayune. Never were intoxicating liquors and partially drug more in reach of the people, but their excessive use is confined to very few. The man who is known to be addicted to them soon falls into disrepute, and, being unable to secure employment in any important capacity, he must in a short time degenerate into the class of incorrigibles and cease to have any recognition among decent people.

There can be no doubt that the use of powerful and dangerous physical forces in the ordinary operations of life will constantly increase and the need of sober, reliable and competent men become so urgent that no man of irregular or intemperate habits will be able to secure employment of any sort in the years to come—and the time will not be distant either.

ROTHSCHILD'S RETORT.

A writer in Munsey's Magazine tells of a sharp and well-deserved retort uttered by one of the Rothschilds:

At a reception in Paris a traveller, who was a strong "Anti-Semitic," was talking to Rothschild on the beauties of the island of Tahiti, and sarcastically remarked:

"There are neither hogs nor Jews there!"

"Indeed!" retorted Rothschild. "Then you and I should go there together. We should be great curiosities."

AS GOOD AS DEAD:

Heart Disease That Baffled the Cleverest Physicians Gives Up the Fight—Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart Wins Again.

It isn't a bit of boast to say that Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart works miracles every day. A Toronto lady, living on Queen Street West, was given by her doctor "till morning at most to live," and when the life cord seemed just about to snap, this great remedy was suggested as a last resort—and it saved the life—stopped the pain inside of thirty minutes, and to-day she is enjoying excellent health, and free from all heart suffering. Sold by A. T. Brown.

M'LEOD'S DELIGHT.

Rheumatism Made Misery—South American Rheumatic Cure Made a Welcome Relief.

Mr. McLeod, of Leith, Ont, walked into the store of a local druggist in Owen Sound at which he had purchased South American Rheumatic Cure, and said: "I am so perfectly delighted with the results obtained from the use of this grand remedy that I came unsolicited to offer you my name in recommending it to others who may be as great sufferers from rheumatism as I was." There never was, and never will be, a universal panacea, in one remedy, for all ills to which flesh is heir—the very nature of many curatives being such that were the germs of other and differently seated diseases rooted in the system of the patient—what would relieve one ill, in turn would aggravate the other. We have, however, in Quinine Wine, when obtained in a sound unadulterated state, a remedy for many and grievous ills. By its gradual judicious use, the frailest systems are led into convalescence and strength, by the influence which Quinine exerts on Nature's own restoratives. It relieves the drooping spirits of those with whom a chronic state of morbid dependence and lack of interest in life is a disease, and, by tranquilizing the nerves, disposes to sound and refreshing sleep, imparts vigor to the action of the blood, which, being stimulated, courses throughout the veins, strengthening the healthy animal functions of the system, thereby making activity a necessary result, strengthening the frame, and giving life to the digestive organs, which naturally demand increased substance—result, improved appetite. Northrop & Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the public their Quinine Wine at the usual rate, and, ranged by the opinion of scientists, this wine approaches nearest perfection of any in the market. All druggists sell it.

We give new names to old things that we may persuade ourselves to be their discoverers.

Burdock Blood Bitters, The Best Spring Medicine.

Removes all poisons and impurities from the system.

Gives strength and vitality in place of weakness and languor.

The most wonderful blood purifier, restorative and strengthener known to science.

Mr. Geo. Herlot, Baillieboro, Ont., says: "Two years ago I was very poorly in the spring, had no appetite, felt weak and nervous, not able to work much and was tired all the time.

"I saw Burdock Blood Bitters highly recommended, so got a bottle.

"I started taking it, and inside of two months I was as well as ever I was in my life.

"I cheerfully recommend B. B. B. as a splendid blood purifier and spring medicine."

Bob McCready.

Above is a splendid portrait of Bob McCready, one of the best football players in Canada. He is a member of the Ottawa University team, and has been in all of its championship matches. He is a splendid specimen of robust Canadian manhood, but, strong as he is, he has known what it is to suffer from dyspepsia. So seriously afflicted was he at the opening of the past (1899) season, that he was not able to go out with his team. Pains in the back and sides, intermittent headache, and the awful pangs he suffered after eating, the result of an impaired digestion, warned him that he was in no condition to play football, the hardest of all games. Besides, he lacked the energy to carry him through a campaign. He consulted his physician, but that gentleman gave him no relief. "At this stage," he writes, "I was advised to try Dr. Petty's Pills, the new remedy that one of my friends assured me was wonderful in its effects. I was skeptical, but he sounded their praises so persistently that I was at length induced to try them. The very first dose drove the pain away, and at the end of a week I rejoined my team, and I have come through one of our hardest seasons in the best form that I have ever been in. Petty's Pills are always to thank for my fine condition. They are the best medicine I have ever taken. They make one so strong and so full of energy. I, for one, shall never take any others when I feel in need of a strengthener." Such is the recommendation of this well known athlete, and such will be the experience of everyone who tries his wonderful remedy. If your druggist cannot supply you, write to us, enclosing price, 50 cents a bottle, six bottles for $2.50. Address The Dr. Petty Medicine Co., Ottawa, Canada.
