TIME IS LIFE

The father? Gone for the doctor. The mother? Alone with her suffering child. Will the doctor never come? Whenthere is croup in the house you can't get the doctor quick enough. It's too dangerous to wait. Don't make such a mistake again; it may cost a life. Always keep on hand a dollar bottle of

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

It cures the croup at once. Then when any one in the family comes down with a hard cold or cough a few doses of the Pectoral will cut short the attack at once. A 25 cent bottle will cure a miserable cold; the 50c. size is better for a cold that has been hanging on.

Keep the dollar size on hand.

"About 25 years ago I came near dying with consumption, but was cured with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral, since which time I have kept Ayer's Medicines in the house and recommend them to all my friends."
C. D. MATHEWSON.

NEW YEAR.

Merry, Merry Christmas passed away
"Happy, Happy New Year" shout to-day.
Happy, Happy Old Year, nevermore
Shall we taste the pleasure past and o'er.

Gleaming on the hillside, shining bright, . . .
Comes the New Year's sunshine, golden light;
When the happy seasons pass away,
May there be for us no darker day.

Forth all people straying, here and there,
Careless, happy greetings everywhere;
There is no repining, all is cheer,
Shout aloud to hail the glad New Year.

A NEW CENTURY RESOLVE.

If boys who smoke would only be sensible and see the folly of it, how much better it would be for them and others! Can you not see, do you not know, that you are going through a great deal of misery to do something you do not really like? You are enduring with a patience worthy of a better cause the suffering of a martyr, in order to acquire a useless, bad habit; and trying to cultivate a taste that makes you sick. Why should you treat yourself so meanly? You know perfectly well that you do not smoke because you enjoy it. It is only when you think some one (but assuredly not your parents) is looking at you. You always do this with an air of intense self-consciousness. Everybody, including yourself, knows that you are on exhibition. And it is such a pitiable, cheap show, too. You think people are admiring you, which they are not. Why, so far from exciting admiration in the minds of the beholders, if you boys could hear the remarks which people make when they see you smoking, you would never again try a cigarette where human eyes could perceive you.

Moreover, it makes you disagreeable company. When you bring into society the horrid taint of stale tobacco in your hair and clothes, your absence is always more gratefully welcome than your presence. So don't smoke, boys. It makes you stupid, so it does not help you in your studies; it is injurious to the heart, so it does not aid you in athletic sports. It does not do you one particle of good; it makes you appear silly and ridiculous; it is as disagreeable and offensive to yourself as it is to anybody else; you do not get a bit of comfort and real pleasure out of it, and you all know it—so pray do not smoke, and make a new century resolution to do no smoking in the twentieth century.

BABY LAUGH

It belongs to health, for a baby, to eat and sleep, to laugh and grow fat.

But fat comes first; don't ask a scrawny baby to laugh; why, even his smile is pitiful! Fat comes first.

The way to be fat is the way to be healthy. Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil is the proper food, if he needs it; but only a little at first.

We'll send you a bit to try, if you like.

THE NEW YEAR LIFE'S MILESTONE.

Time is marked by years. The child says, "When I am five years old I will go to school." The student thinks, "Two, three, or five years hence I will step out into the world, a man among men, equipped for life's battle." The man entering the arena puts his shoulder to the wheel with an energy born of hope that in a few years he will have gained such a foothold that he may take his ease and "enjoy life," as he calls it. Thus each one eagerly looks forward, but almost before life is fairly begun the "grasshopper" becomes "a burden," the "almond-tree flourishes," and while, yet the fact is only dawning upon the soul the gates of eternity swing open, and they enter the portals of that country, of which it is said, "that time shall be no more."

"Our life is but a winter's stay,"
Some only breakfast and away;
Others to dinner stay, and are full fed.
The old man but sups and goes to bed;
Large is his debt who lingers out the day;
He who goes soonest has the least to pay."

Our Father, in his wise thoughtfulness, has given the yearly milestone about which to linger for a moment, and gather renewed energy for the toils and rewards, the crosses and pleasures, the sorrows and joys, the defeats and victories, of the year at whose entrance we stand. And while thus pausing it is well to review the year, posting accounts, getting out the balance sheet. Has faith been such that heavy drafts have been presented on the bank, and honored with the encouraging invitation to ask for more? Have there been times when they were not accepted because they lacked the endorsement of the authorized drafts of the bank of heaven? But whether the audit reveals a happy or unhappy condition of affairs, there need not be bankruptcy; there is still a reserve fund from which to draw. So the books are closed, and learning by things of the past we step into the New Year.—Outlook.

Destroy Worms.

Mrs. John Lowe, New Germany, N. S. writes: "I have given Dr. Low's Worm Syrup to my children with excellent results. They are fond of taking it and it acts perfectly, requiring no cathartic afterwards."

Without method, little can be done to any good purpose.—Macaulay.

The great lung healer is found in that excellent medicine sold as Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. It soothes and diminishes the sensibility of the membrane of the throat and air passages, and is a sovereign remedy for all coughs, colds, hoarseness, pain or soreness in the chest, bronchitis, etc. It has cured many when supposed to be far advanced in consumption.

Sentiment is nothing but thought blended with feeling.—J. P. Clarke.

Bad Heart — Could not Lie Down for Eighteen Months.—"I was unable to lie down in my bed for eighteen months, owing to smothering spells caused by Heart Disease. One bottle of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart removed the trouble, and to-day I am as well as ever I was."—L. W. Law, Toronto Junction.—133

Where others fail, there Dr. Petty's Pills prove their power to cure.

Reverence is the crown of moral manhood.—Kingsley.

Very many persons die annually from cholera and kindred summer complaints, who might have been saved if proper remedies had been used. If attacked do not delay in getting a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, the medicine that never fails to effect a cure. Those who have used it say it acts promptly, and thoroughly subdues the pain and disease.

Accuracy is the twin brother of honesty.—C. Simmons.

It Hurt To Eat.

The pain, nausea and distress that Dyspeptics suffer after every meal can all be permanently removed by Burdock Blood Bitters.

It tones up and restores the stomach to normal condition so that it digests food without causing discomfort.

Here's proof positive:

Miss Maggie Spluds, Dalhousie, N.B., wrote the following: "I have been a sufferer from Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia for the past two years and felt very miserable. I could not take much food as it hurt me to eat. My friends said, 'Why don't you try B.B.B.' I did so, using two bottles, which made such a complete cure that I can now eat anything I like without it causing me discomfort."

The path of duty is the way to glory.—Tennyson.

Regular action of the bowels is necessary to health. Laxa-Liver Pills are the best occasional cathartic for family or general use. Price 25 cents. Any druggist.

The noblest motive is the public good.—Virgil.

Common Sense and Modern Medical Science have reversed the almost universal belief that Rheumatism cannot be cured. The great South American Rheumatic Cure has turned the tables and has given to suffering a tried, safe, simple and permanent cure. Thousands have testified that it has cured them in three days.—132

Nations, like individuals, are powerful in the degree that they command the sympathies of their neighbors.

As Parmelee's Vegetable Pills contain Mandrake and Dandelion, they cure Liver and Kidney Complaints with unerring certainty. They also contain roots and herbs which have specific virtues truly wonderful in their action on the stomach and bowels. Mr. E. A. Catmorose, Shakespeare, writes "I consider Parmelee's Pills an excellent remedy for Billiousness and Derangement of the Liver, having used them myself for some time."

There is a healthful hardiness about real dignity that never dreads contact and communion with others, however humble.

"THOU ART NEAR."

As the old year passes out with its trials, disappointments, and labors, it is a pleasure to know that friends and loved ones have stood by us with their sympathy and prayers, encouraging us to be brave and strong, and it is gladdening to our hearts to still feel that others watch us and love us, and are ready to sacrifice and suffer for us. But O how joyous to have realized in all conflict and labor that God was near! How inspiring and soul stirring, as we face 1901 with the year's duties and its hidden trials and tears, to know that "Thou art near!" And when life's last day is setting and we look back over honest toil and brave efforts, even if we hear no voice to applaud, how glorious and transporting will be its closing scenes if we can still say, "Thou art near, O Lord!"—By Rev. L. H. Manly.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil cures all pain in man or beast; for sprains, cuts, bruises callous lumps, swellings, inflammation, rheumatism and neuralgia it is a specific.

The public should bear in mind that Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has nothing in common with the impure, deteriorating class of so-called medicinal oils. It is eminently pure and really efficacious—relieving pain and lameness, stiffness of the joints and muscles, and sores or hurts, besides being an excellent specific for rheumatism, coughs and bronchial complaints.

Get Instant Relief from Piles.—This most irritating disease relieved in ten minutes by using Dr. Agnew's Ointment, and a cure in from three to six nights. Thousands testify of its goodness. MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS.

Mr. F. W. Meyers, King St. E., Berlin, Ont., says: "I suffered for five years with palpitation, shortness of breath, sleeplessness and pain in the heart, but one box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills completely removed all these distressing symptoms. I have not suffered since, taking them, and now sleep well and feel strong and vigorous."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure all diseases arising from weak heart, worn out nerve tissues, or watery blood.

As an all-round family remedy, one that always should be in the house for an emergency, Dr. Petty's Pills discount anything in the market. They are so small a child can take them with ease, yet one's a dose.

Painters' Kidneys.

The worst thing a painter has to contend with is the turpentine. The lead, of course, is bad too. But the turpentine cuts the kidneys, inflames and weakens them, makes the painter's life a dangerous and troublesome one. When a painter's backaches, its time for him to begin treating the kidneys.

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS

will fix them up—take out the inflammation and congestion, give ease to the aching back.

Mr. J. Evanson, the well-known painter and decorator, 50 Oxford St., Toronto, Ont., said: About eight weeks ago I was taken with an excruciating pain in my back over the kidneys. It was so bad that my wife had to apply hot cloths till the doctor came and gave me morphine.

He said the trouble was due to a stone passing from the kidney to the bladder.

My water was loaded with a brick dust deposit and scalded on passing.

While in this condition I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and started taking them.

It was not long before I got relief from pain and have been improving in health ever since. My urine is now clear and there not bother me, and I feel better than in years.

LAXA-LIVER PILLS. These little black follows act easily and naturally on the system, clearing away all bile and clogging material. Constipation, headaches, dyspepsia, sick headaches, heartburn, sleeplessness—all disappear when they are used. Price 25c.

It is impossible that a man who is false to his friends should be true to his country.—Bishop Berkeley.

Attention to the world of homeopathic medicine has been its very source of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinions and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreement by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with most of our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy—to general debility and languor, "Quinine Wine,"—and which when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system, Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has, from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and natural life-living stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop and Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skilled observation and scientific opinion has pointed out in the imperfect preparations of the latter.

BOYS IN A BOOKSTORE.

A true story is told in the family of a certain Boston bookseller which has to do with the holiday time. Just before Christmas the little boys of the household were told that, as a treat, they might go down to their father's place of business and look over the books. It was a treat indeed, in anticipation, for reading was their chief joy.

The day came, and joyfully did the little lads take their way down-town. They were turned loose in the big establishment among books big and little. There they were left to their own devices, and presently forgotten.

When the time for lunch came round, their father remembered with a start that two little guests were with him.

He looked about; they were nowhere to be seen. He made his way round the crowded shop, and finally came upon them in an unoccupied corner, industriously reading. One had "Swiss Family Robinson" and the other "Robinson Crusoe."

"Did you get tired of looking round?" he asked.

One boy glanced up shyly. Evidently he felt that he had not been quite equal to the situation, but he must tell him the truth.

"We found these 'most the first thing," he said, "so we just sat down and began to read."

"But you have those at home!"

"Yes, papa, but we like them best."

Queer little souls, so very like grown-up humanity! They had been bewildered by the riches about them, and so had returned to the familiar and dear.

DEATH IN THE DRINK.

Some time ago in India an officer who was parched with thirst was travelling with his Indian servant where water was scarce. It was evening time, and in that country the moon throws a peculiar light upon many things. The officer saw at the side of the road a pool of water that looked very clear. He was stooping down to drink when his servant called to him, "Nay, nay, Sahib, lend me your sword." Going to the pool the servant put the edge of the sword into it to stir it, when up came the head of a cobra, the most dangerous serpent in India. The servant then brought the weapon down upon the reptile and cut off his head. Had the officer drank of the pool, he would have been a dead man. There was death in the drink. How many the serpent drink is destroying every day in our great cities! Let us be servants for them, and show them the work of the serpent. "At last it bites like a serpent, and stingeth like an adder," says the Bible.

A CASE OF COLOR BLINDNESS.

"Yours is a perplexing case," said the oculist. "You call red purple and refer to nile green as turkey red."

"Yes," replied the visitor, with a contented smile. "I fancy I was born that way."

"It's the most aggravated case of color-blindness I have ever encountered in my professional experience."

"That's it. I want you to write me out a statement to that effect. Never mind what the fee is. You see, my wife has a lot of samples she wants matched, and she'll ask me to tackle the job some time before New Years for certain."

And then the oculist had his suspicions.

Bob McCready.

Above is a splendid portrait of Bob McCready, one of the best football players in Canada. He is a member of the Ottawa University team, and has been in all of its championship matches. He is a splendid specimen of robust, Canadian manhood, but, strong as he is, he has known what it is to suffer from dyspepsia. So seriously afflicted was he at the opening of the past (1899) season, that he was not able to go out with his team. Pains in the back and sides, intermittent headache, and the awful pangs he suffered after eating, the result of an impaired digestion, warned him that he was in no condition to play football, the hardest of all games. Besides, he lacked the energy to carry him through a campaign. He consulted his physician, but that gentleman gave him no relief. "At this stage," he writes, "I was advised to try Dr. Petty's Pills, the new remedy that one of my friends assured me was wonderful in its effects. I was skeptical, but he sounded their praises so persistently that I was at length induced to try them. The very first dose drove the pain away, and at the end of a week I rejoined my team, and I have come through one of our hardest seasons in the best form that I have ever been in. Dr. Petty's Pills are alone to thank for my fine condition. They are the best medicine I have ever taken. They make one so strong and so full of energy. I, for one, shall never take any others when I feel in need of a strengthener." Such is the recommendation of this well-known athlete, and such will be the experience of everyone who tries this wonderful remedy. If your druggist cannot supply you, write to us, enclosing price 50 cents a bottle, six bottles for $2.50. Address The Dr. Petty Medicine Co., Ottawa, Canada.

We are spending thousands to make Petty's Pills known. Our money proves our faith. A trial will secure yours.

"I wish to ask a question pertaining to the game laws," said the visitor to the queries editor.

"Ask on, my friend."

"When is the open season for shooting stars?"

But before the editor could answer him he was gone.
