A Grateful Correspondent

Editor Advance: How dare you express any human sympathy where a violation of the Ontario Temperance Act is concerned, whether said violation be intentional or not!

I see "Torontonian" has justly called you to account for it, with that stern, unrelenting spirit of Puritanic days which found joyous vent in burning helpless old women at the stake.

Had the O. T. A. been in force in the days of our Lord this writer is of the type that would no doubt have sneaked around the vicinity of the wedding feast and the next day haled our Master into court.

I also am from Toronto, and while my sympathy for years has been on the side of true temperance, yet like many others I strongly resent the hard, fanatical, cruel and unsympathetic spirit evinced by some of the so-called temperance people. Although I do not know any of the parties referred to in this instance, I am deeply grateful to you for expressing a little christian sympathy for the misfortunes of a fellow man. "Torontonian" speaks so bombastically of the laws of the land. Let me ask him if he can say with a clear conscience that he has never transgressed nor broken any of the laws, either moral or statuary? If he can do so then he is indeed entitled to cast the first stone and should be placed on a pedestal for us erring mortals to admire.—Another Torontonian.

(National Crop Improvement Service.)

"Repeated baking tests have shown that Marquis wheat makes a loaf of very much finer quality than any other of the wheats; that the Durums will make a loaf fairly large in volume but yellow in color and coarser in texture.

"As the rust menace spreads, there will be great temptation for Canadian farmers to grow a so-called 'rust resistant' wheat. The worst of these is probably Red Durum, which was introduced in North Dakota at a time when rust was making terrible attacks on the world's wheat. This wheat is rather prolific and has a heavy kernel, but should not deceive the farmer because this wheat will not make bread nor macaroni, and its only merit is that it is heavy and may be used in export to improve the weight of light and chaffy grains," says Mr. Bert Ball, director, Spring Wheat Crop Improvement Association.

"The Canadian Northwest grows the best spring wheat in the world and flour made from it always sells for a superior price. If Canadian farmers will breed quality, and market only their finest wheat, mills will always pay a premium for fancy cars."

Unnecessary Loss Among Young Pigs.

On 75 Minnesota farms a total of 5,286 pigs were farrowed with an average of 8.31 per litter. Of this number 9.21 per cent. were farrowed dead, 18.21 per cent. died before weaning, 68.30 per cent. were raised, and 31.70 per cent. of the original pig crop was lost. Improper feeding and lack of exercise by the brood sows during the winter were responsible for most of the trouble (unnecessary trouble) at farrowing time. Brood sows should be encouraged to get out and work every day. The droppings should be watched. If the sows are constipated, oilmeal or bran should be introduced into their ration until satisfactory condition results. For immediate action a reasonable dose of epsom salts should be given.

Arsenate of lead or paris green are good remedies to use against chewing insects. When paris green is used it is well to add an equal quantity of lime to prevent injury to the foliage.
