Flesherton Advance.

Vol 42, No. 21 — Flesherton, Ont., October 27 1921

PRICEVILLE

When we noticed the whine in last week's issue of the Flesherton Advance we surmised that the Feversham scribe had been hard hit by Miss A C McPhail's recent address in Feversham. However, the incident reminds us of an old acquaintance we had in Michigan some 25 years ago. One day the old man was much worked up over something a neighbor woman had been telling about him, and in sympathy we said, "Well, Sandy, we feel sorry if any one would make false statements about you," He answered, "Hoot, mon, I dinna care a button for a' the lees they tell aboot me, but when its a' the truth it pinches, ye ken."

On Sunday morning, Oct. 16, Rev. F. N. Bowes of Markdale, a former pastor here, conducted the service in the Methodist church and the congregation seemed pleased to have him with them again.

A conference of the ladies of Eugenia, Flesherton, Proton and Swinton Park Presbyterian churches was held in the Presbyterian church here on Wednesday of last week. The ladies of the Methodist church were also invited to attend the meeting. The weather was very damp, but quite a number attended the afternoon and evening sessions.

Last Sunday, Oct. 23, Rev R J McCarton of the Methodist church here exchanged pulpits with Rev. McEwen of Durham Baptist church. The people here have listened with pleasure to Mr. McEwen a few times in the past, and it is evident he would be welcome again when an opportunity occurs.

It is not possible for the county road to be finished into the village this year, but if the weather keeps fairly good we may see it built to the overhead bridge east of town half a mile..

Mrs T A Ferguson went to Toronto last week to visit her son, Stanley, and also other friends.

TRYON

Ethel Morrison of Toronto is spending a few days with her parents here.

We are sorry to report Mrs Neil Thompson on the sick list, but hope to sse her around again soon.

Mr and Mrs Dan Cameron of Flesherton spent Sunday at Sandy Morrison's.

Mr and Mrs Will Hall motored and spent Sunday with friends in Shelburne.

T. Neil and daughter, of Singhampton, visited at James Sullivan's.

On returning from Owen Sound on Wednesday night, Harry Thornbury came in contact with Mr Large at Brewster's Lake. The cars not being strong enough to stand the bunt were each left minus a wheel. However, no one was hurt. A truck came next morning to help Harry home. Better luck next time, my boy.

The Late Mrs. Sanderson

Mrs. Jane Sanderson, whose death was announced last week, was the eldest daughter of the late John Brown and was born on the homestead near Flesherton 68 years ago. She married Joseph Sanderson of Holland, who predeceased her about 30 years ago. There were two sons to the union, Robert J. and William. The former died in 1889 and the latter cared for his mother here during her illness as tenderly as any woman could have done. Fifteen years ago Mrs. Sanderson came over from Chicago to care for her father and mother, and she did not long survive them, the mother passing away about seven years ago and her father last January. The funeral to Flesherton cemetery on Thursday last was largely attended. Service was held in the Methodist church, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Oke, officiating. One sister survives, Mrs Frank Thompson of Chesley, and four brothers—George of Bradford, Wm. of Stayner, Andrew in the West, and John of Flesherton.

The Late Wm. McLoughry

By the death of William McLoughry which occurred at his home on the east back line, Artemesia, on Sunday, Oct. 9th, the community has lost one of its best citizens.

The deceased was born on the McLoughry homestead, now occupied by H. D., in 1852, and had resided in the immediate vicinity until the time of his death. He was of an unassuming nature, but was always found on the side of right and working in the interests of the better things in the community. He was a consistent and faithful member of the Methodist church. In 1890 he married Marion E. Bowes of St Vincent, who survives along with three sons and two daughters, namely: Elliot, at present attending the Ontario Agricultural College at Guelph; James, Robert and Annie at home, and Mamie, teaching at Melancthon. He is also survived by four brothers and one sister—Alex in Montana Johnston, Moosomin, Sask; Robert of Calgary, Alberta; H. D., east back line, Artemesia; and Mrs. Wm. Heard, Toronto Line, Artemesia.

The funeral to Markdale cemetery on Tuesday afternoon was largely attended by sympathizing friends and neighbors. Rev. F. N. Bowes conducted services at the house and grave. The pallbearers were nephews of deceased—John and Jarvis Henry, Chris, John, Herbert and Carter Irwin—Standard.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Maxel Bannon, who passed away October 28th, 1918, at the age of 28 years.

Our Master kind, in tender love
Hath called our Maxel far above,
And though we all did love him so,
What Jesus does is best, we know.
