STARVED

Slow growth of hair comes from lack of hair food. The hair has no life.

HAIR

It is starved. It keeps coming out, gets thinner and thinner, bald spots appear; then actual baldness.

The only good hair food you can buy is—

Ayer's Hair Vigor

It feeds the roots, stops starvation, and the hair grows thick and long. It cures dandruff also. Keep a bottle of it on your dressing table.

It always restores color to faded or gray hair. Mind, we say "always."

$1.00 a bottle. All druggists.

"I have found your Hair Vigor to be the best remedy I have ever tried for the hair. My hair was falling out very bad, so I thought I would try a bottle of it. I had used only one bottle, and my hair stopped falling out, and it is now real thick and long."

FARM JOYS.

I've heard about the men who make
A million in a day
A-buyin' stocks or sellin' 'em
Or any other way.
I've heard about their habits,
And so far's I can see,
A life down on the ole farm
Is good 'nough for me.
Then fellers who in cities live
No doubt would think me slow,
Well, if I am, I'm satisfied
That none of 'em can know
The 'mount of solid comfort
A feller gets in life,
Who's miles away from any kind
Of worry, care or strife.
I'm just sightless, but you can bet
I know what I'm about—
The wealth's here, and all you have
To do is "dig" it out.
And the singin' of the robins,
As they hop from twig to twig,
Just makes a feller really feel
He rather wants to "dig."
And the more I hear tell of it,
The plainer 'tis to see,
That life down on the ole farm
Is good 'nough for me.

As an all-round family remedy, one that always should be in the house for an emergency, Dr. Petty's Pills discount anything in the market. They are so small a child can take them with ease, yet one's a dose.
