TREACHERY

A persistent cough is at first a friend, for it gives warning of the approach of a deadly enemy. Heed the warning before it is too late, before your lungs become inflamed, before the doctor says, "Consumption." When the danger signal first appears, help nature with

FOOLING MAMMA.

A little beggar maid one day,
All dressed in rags came to my door;
She had a quality pretty way,
Sure I had seen her times before.

And by her side an urchin lad,
With rosy cheeks and curling locks,
So queerly dressed it seemed too bad—
His feet encased in monstrous socks.

"O mimsey, dear," the maiden said;
"Our baby has no toothy pegs,
And not one hair upon his head,
And he has got such weakly legs.

"I wish that you would give to us"—
Just then old Towse came up behind,
And, without least ado or fuss,
Before the maid could speak her mind.

Had pulled away the tattered dress;
And lo! the urchins at my side,
So like my own I must confess,
"We's dust been foolin' you," they cried.

Dear, precious, darling baby eyes;
They did not dream while at their play,
That I had seen through their disguise—
So God doth read us day by day.

A TORONTO CASE.

IN WHICH DR. ARNOLD'S TOXIN PILLS CURED LAME BACK.

Mr. P. Sheridan was the Sufferer—Doctors Failed to Help Him—Dr. Arnold's Toxin Pills Cured Him Permanently.

We are all liable to meet with an accident any day, and the most dangerous consequences are apt to follow even a slight injury, especially to the back. A case in point is that of Mr. Peter Sheridan, 218 Richmond Street West, Toronto. Had it not be for Dr. Arnold's Toxin Pills Mr. Sheridan might have been permanently crippled. Read his story:

"Six years ago I sustained a severe injury to my back through a fall. I could not lift the least weight without pain, and my back ached all the time. Several physicians treated me, but as soon as I quit taking their medicine I would be as bad as ever. I also used various patent medicines, "Kidney cures," oils, linaments, etc., without the least benefit. I wore a truss for months, but it did no good. Three months ago I was told of Dr. Arnold's Toxin Pills, and purchased a box, which did me more genuine good than all the other medicines I had previously taken. I have used in all five large boxes, and they have cured me absolutely. My back is as strong as ever, and I am in perfect health. I shall gladly answer all questions regarding my case. A trial will convince.

Dr. Arnold's Toxin Pills, at all druggists, 25c. a small box, 75c. a large box, or sent on receipt of price by The Arnold Chemical Co., Limited. Canada Life Building, 44 King Street West Toronto. Booklet sent free.

NERVOUS PROSTRATION

is only a failure of strength. It takes strength to get strength. Get strength of stomach first. Your stomach will then look out for your body. Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil enables your stomach to get it from usual food; and this is the way to restore the whole body.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

HER FIRST PATIENT.

Some years before the Crimean war, in a Derbyshire village, a young girl might have been seen kneeling on the brick floor of a shepherd's cottage. She was bending over a great rough sheep dog, while a gentleman at her side was looking at the animal's paws, which had been badly hurt. The shepherd was going to drown poor Cap, the dog, thinking that he would never be of any more use, but the friend who examined his leg said that it was not broken and only needed bathing in hot water.

The girl then lighted a fire, boiled some water, tore up some flannel into strips and bathed the poor dog's leg. The next day she came and did the same thing again, and before long Cap was as well as ever. The girl was Miss Florence Nightingale, and when she grew up she went to the Crimea and nursed the sick and wounded soldiers, who had no friend to care for them in that cold and dreary climate.

ONE DRAWBACK.

"Give me one year of August," a White Mountain hotel proprietor was once heard to say, "and I should be ready to retire."

Like this was the feeling of a boy mentioned by an exchange. He was selling bits of smoked glass during the late solar eclipse.

"How much a piece?" inquired a passer-by.

"Five cents," said the boy.

The man bought one, but thought the price a little high.

"You ought to make money at that rate," he said.

"Yes," answered the thrifty youngster, "it would be a pretty good business if the dull season wasn't so long."

GENERAL WILLIAM W. HENRY WITH US IN CANADA.

He Is American Consul in Quebec City.

Strongly Indorses Paine's Compound the Marvellous Spring Medicines

Many of the wondrous successes and decisive victories of Paine's Celery Compound over disease and death are well known to the people of the seven provinces of our Dominion.

No other medicine ever given to suffering humanity has met with approval from physicians from nurses caring for the sick, from men and women of culture and influence, and from the sensible and thinking people of the toiling class. All unite in one grand chorus of praise—"Paine's Celery Compound is earth's best and surest spring health-restorer and health-giver."

General William W. Henry, American Consul, in the city of Quebec, writes as follows about Paine's Celery Compound:

"It gives me great pleasure to indorse Paine's Celery Compound, both on account of the results obtained from personal use of the remedy and knowledge of the remarkable cures it has performed. I believe it has no equal in curing diseases of the nervous system and building up those who are weak and out of health. It has cured several friends of mine of rheumatism in its worst form, and I have no hesitancy in recommending it to all afflicted with that disease."

Life is neither a pleasure nor a sadness but a grave affair with which we are charged, and which we must conduct and finish to our honour.—De Tocqueville.

Sleeplessness is due to nervous excitement. The delicately constituted, the financier, the business man, and those whose occupation necessitates great mental strain or worry, all suffer less or more from it. Sleep is the great restorer of a worried brain, and to get sleep cleanse the stomach from all impurities with a few doses of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills, gelatine coated, containing no mercury, and are guaranteed to give satisfaction or the money will be refunded.

It is the duty, and ought to be the pleasure, of age and experience to warn and instruct youth, and to come to the aid of inexperience.—William Cobbett.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills cure Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Nervous Prostration, Palpitation of the heart, Pains and dizzy Spells, Shortness of Breath, and all troubles arising from a run down system.

It is not all that turn their backs that flee.

Bob McCready.

Above is a splendid portrait of Bob McCready, one of the best football players in Canada. He is a member of the Ottawa University team, and has been in all of its championship matches. He is a splendid specimen of robust Canadian manhood, but, strong as he is, he has known what it is to suffer from dyspepsia. So seriously afflicted was he at the opening of the past (1899) season, that he was not able to go out with his team. Pains in the back and sides, intermittent headache, and the awful pangs he suffered after eating, the result of an impaired digestion, warned him that he was in no condition to play football, the hardest of all games. Besides, he lacked the energy to carry him through a campaign. He consulted his physician, but that gentleman gave him no relief. "At this stage," he writes, "I was advised to try Dr. Petty's Pills, the new remedy that one of my friends assured me was wonderful in its effects. I was sceptical, but he sounded their praises so persistently that I was at length induced to try them. The very first dose drove the pain away, and at the end of a week I rejoined my team, and I have come through one of our hardest seasons in the best form that I have ever been in. Dr. Petty's Pills are alone to thank for my fine condition. They are the best medicine I have ever taken. They make one so strong and so full of energy. I, for one, shall never take any others when I feel in need of a strengthener." Such is the recommendation of this well known athlete, and such will be the experience of everyone who tries this wonderful remedy. If your druggist cannot supply you, write to us, enclosing price 50 cents a bottle, six bottles for $2.50. Address The Dr. Petty Medicine Co., Ottawa, Canada.

KIDNEY DISEASE FOR TEN YEARS.

A Glen Miller Man's Terrible Trial.

He Found a Cure at Last in Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. P. M. Burk, who is a well-known resident of Glen Miller, Hastings Co., Ont., was afflicted with kidney trouble for ten years.

He pleased is he at having found in Doan's Kidney Pills a cure for his ailments, which he had begun to think were incurable, that he wrote the following statement of his case so that others similarly afflicted may profit by his experience: "I have been afflicted with kidney trouble for about ten years and have tried several remedies but never received any real benefit until I started taking Doan's Kidney Pills. My back used to constantly ache and my urine was high colored and milky looking at times. Since I have finished the third box of Doan's Kidney Pills I am happy to state that I am not bothered with backache at all and my urine is clear as crystal. I feel confident that these pills are the best kidney specific in the country."

Only the poor man is absolutely sure of friends.

Attention in the world of homeopathic medicine has been its very source of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinions and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreement by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with most of our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and languor, "Quinine Wine,"—and which when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system. Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has, from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and and natural life-living stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop and Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skilled observation and scientific opinion has pointed out in the less perfect preparations of the latter.

The world is so full of a number of things that we all ought to be as happy as kings.—R. L. Stevenson.

Life needs the inspiration of hope. Amidst business perplexities and family care we should sink in despair did not the future hold out cheering prospects.

Death or lunacy seemed the only alternative for a well-known and highly respected lady of Wingham, Ont., who had travelled over two continents in a vain search for a cure for nervous debility and dyspepsia. A friend recommended South American Nervine. One bottle helped, six bottles cured, and her own written testimony closes with these words: "It has saved my life."—20

WELL THROWN.

One day in January, thirty years ago, the people of Madison village, Maine, were fighting a fire. The west wind blew a hurricane; the tavern and an adjoining dwelling house had already burned to the ground, and the entire village was threatened. The Congregational Church stood in a direct line with the fire, but the wide village green might save it.

Hundreds of anxious eyes were on the watch lest some spark or live cinder should fall upon its exposed roof and walls, which were kept drenched with water. A blazing cinder whirled high across the green, and a strong sucking current of air carried it and held it against a clapboard of the tall steeple; held it until the dry pitch-filled strip of wood ignited, and a brisk smoke was rising on the steeple's south face.

A groan burst from the watching crowd. No ladder could reach the spot, and the loved church must burn.

A red tongue of flame shot out from the blackened hole that live cinder had charred, then—white, went a flying snowball up from the crowd, a single, big, compact snowball, that snuffed out that blaze as one snuffs out a candle.

Warren Bacon with his good right hand had quickly aimed and thrown the snowball, and the church was saved.

The building still stands, and the pitched clapboards on the south side of the steeple still show where the blazing cinder and the flying snowball struck.

It is very easy to get a man to refrain from anything he already dislikes.

They Do Not Gripe.

For Biliousness, Constipation, Dyspepsia, or sick headache, take Laxa-Liver Pills. They do not gripe, weaken or sicken.

Preachers nearly always write scriptural quotations in autograph albums.

Mrs. Celeste Coon, Syracuse, N. Y., writes: "For years I could not eat many kinds of food without producing a burning, excruciating pain in my stomach. I took Parmelee's Pills according to directions under the head of "Dyspepsia or Indigestion." One box entirely cured me. I can now eat anything I choose without distressing me in the least." These pills do not cause pain or griping, and should be used when a cathartic is required.

Better spare at the brim than at the bottom.

Should Be In Every Home.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil should be in every house this time of the year, as there is nothing to equal it for chapped hands, frost bites and chilblains.

Better to deny at once than to promise long.

It will work while you sleep, without a gripe or pain, curing Constipation, Biliousness, Sick Headache, and Dyspepsia, and make you feel better in the morning.

Grief can take care of itself, but to get the full value of joy you must have somebody to divide it with.—Mark Twain.

There are so many cough medicines in the market, that it is sometimes difficult to tell which to buy; but if we had a cough, a cold or any affliction of the throat or lungs we would try Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. Those who have used it think it is far ahead of all other preparations recommended for such complaints. The little folks like it as it is as syrup.

Grief for the dead is very like a bodily wound. Now and then it can be handled freely and the ecstacy breaks out; afterwards it stiffens and to touch it hurts.—G. W. Bteevenr.

Two Warnings.

Losing flesh is one and a hacking cough is another. If they come together the warning is a loud and hard one. Scott's Emulsion does some of its best work in just these cases. It prevents consumption.

Hearts may be attracted by assumed qualities, but the affections are not to be fixed but by those that are real.

WOMEN WILL TALK.

Can't Blame them for Telling each other about Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

THE GREAT REMEDY FOR WEAK NERVOUS WOMEN.

It's only natural that when a woman finds a remedy which cures her of nervousness and weakness, relieves her pains and aches, puts color in her cheek and vitality in her whole system, she should be anxious to let her suffering sisters know of it.

Mrs. Hannah Holmes, St. James Street, St. John, N.B., relates her experience with this remedy as follows:—"For some years I have been troubled with fluttering of the heart and dizziness, accompanied by a smothering feeling which prevented me from resting. My appetite was poor and I was much run down and debilitated.

"Since I started using Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, the smothering feeling has gone, my heart beat is now regular, the fluttering has disappeared, and I have been wonderfully built up through the tonic effect of the pills. I now feel stronger and better than for many years, and cannot say too much in praise of the remedy which restored my long lost health."
