PORTLAW

(Intended for last week.)

Mr. Jas. Cornfield thought it about time to treat himself to a holiday and so last week he started off for Kirevin, Kansas, to visit his sister and will likely spend the winter there. His son, Murray, accompanied him as far as Chicago, for Thanksgiving.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. J. W. McKee has been seriously ill. All hope for her speedy recovery.

Miss Cornfield, of Toronto, was home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. William McClennan, of Toronto, visited with his sister and brother here.

The Orangemen, of the 4th line lodge, celebrated the 5th of November by a scrub hunt. Messrs. Wesley Plantt and George Fisher were captains.

Mr. Will Taylor, of Toronto, spent Thanksgiving at the parental home here.

Mr. Cameron, of Oakville, visited with his cousin, J. A. Thompson, here.

Mr. J. W. Martin gave a very acceptable message on Sunday at Mount Zion Church. Miss Marjorie Acheson added inspiration to the service by rendering an appropriate reading: "Leave the Miracle to Him." It was a delightful sermon in verse.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Littlejohns, their son, Wesley, of Orange Valley, and Mr. R. Hogg, of Chatsworth, visited at the home of the former's uncle, T. R. McKenzie.

W. G. Jamieson, Robert Taylor and Elbert Cornfield attended the Epworth League and Church Conventions at Holland Centre last week.

Miss Florence White spent Thanksgiving in Toronto.

Miss McPhail held a well attended political meeting last Thursday evening in the School House here. Mr. Harry Shaw acted as chairman. Ex-Warden Goodfellow and H. Neil also addressed the electors. We expect that now the fire is kindled, there will soon be a Hastie move to keep the ball rolling.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIESON—In loving memory of Mrs D. W. Jamieson who died Nov. 17, 1915

In our home she is fondly remembered,
Sweet memory clings to her name.
Those who loved her in life so sincerely
Still love her in death just the same.
How cheering the thought of a meeting some day
In that blest land which is not far away,
The haven where mother is safely at rest
And where all may unite in the home of the blest.

EUGENIA

Sleigh bells are heard once more and winter has come, but we hope, not to stay.

Anniversary services in the Methodist Church on the 6th inst. were well attended and Mrs. Kippen was listened to with much interest in the evening. Rev. Mr. Kippen took charge of the service in the morning, owing to some little misunderstanding, as it had been arranged that Mr. Fowler take the morning service. The music was very appropriate and a good full choir was a help at both services. The Chorus and Quartette rendered by the men in the evening was especially good. Too bad we could not always have plenty of help to make choirs to help along the good work and the men's voices are especially helpful.

Miss Acheson, of Bognor, visited her friend, Marjory Park, over the holiday.

Millie McMullen, of Mimico, visited her mother here over the holiday.

Miss Mae Carruthers is home from Toronto on a three-weeks' vacation.

Mr. Ernest Morgan moved his family back to the city for the winter months.

We are very sorry to report Mr. Parliament very low at the time of writing.

Mr. T. McKee received the very sad news of the death of his sister's husband, Mr. Will Havon; also their eldest son died with fever, both father and son being buried on the same day. Their home is in Saskatchewan. Much sympathy is felt for all the friends.

The Presbyterian W. M. S. had a very successful Thank-offering service last Wednesday afternoon in the Church. Mrs. Thos. McKee, the President, occupied the chair in her usual capable manner. Mrs. Kippen, of Toronto, gave a splendid address on Home Missions. The address was of her experiences in the work in the city slums in Toronto, which were very interesting, indeed. Misses Mary McKee and Selena McDonald gave very fitting readings and Mrs. Large and Marjory Park sang a duet. Also Misses Mae and Muriel Carruthers Hilda Williams and Marjory Park gave a very appropriate chorus. A number of the Flesherton ladies were present. Lunch was served by the ladies after the programme.

Mrs. Large had the misfortune to fall on the ice on Friday last, sustaining a couple of broken ribs.

Mr. Jones, of Toronto, is a guest at Mr. R. Parks.

DURHAM

Mr. Nicholas Fagan had the misfortune to fall on the sidewalk near Smith's harness shop on Friday of last week and as a result has a broken arm. Even at that, Mr. Fagan is lucky, as he fell on his hip and for a time it was thought that too, was broken. While a fractured arm is bad enough, it is a picnic campared with a broken hip, especially to a man the age of Mr. Fagan.

Bread was away up in the air for a few minutes last week, but soon came to earth again. It all happened when a colt, owned by C. P. Kinnee, and guaranteed quiet, ran away with Henderson's new bake cart, to which it was hitched. Beyond the mussing up of the inside of the cake and bread wagon, we understand the damage was not heavy. In the meantime, Tommy thinks he will stick to the regular bread wagon horse. Besides being cheaper, it's not so hard on the nerves.

For some days there has been a persistent rumor around town that Mr. W. Laidlaw, who has been acting police magistrate for the past three or four years, had been given the appointment permanently, under the new act regulating the appointment of Magistrates. According to the rumor, Mr. Laidlaw's territory covers the County of Grey and that he in the south and Mr. A. D. Creasor, of Owen Sound, in the north, will conduct the various trials. To verify the rumor, The Chronicle called up Mr. Laidlaw on the phone, but he was out of town. Mrs. Laidlaw, however, said that there had been no official confirmation of the appointment as yet.

John Harrison & Sons, of Owen Sound, have installed a wireless receiving station at their factory, to keep in touch with their tug "Harrison."

Letter To the Editor

To the Electors of South-East Grey
Ladies and Gentlemen:—

In response to a request from a majority of the present Board of Directors of the South-East Grey U.F.O.—Labour Political organization, I am submitting a reply to a letter published in Hanover and Durham papers last week and signed by John Cooper, who was until recently a member of that Board. Mr. Cooper has tendered his resignation, giving as his reason that he could not conscientiously agree with the religious convictions of the Candidate. This, evidently, is his sole reason for severing his connections with the U.F.O.-Labour Party. He says he still believes in the U.F.O. Platform and in its principles, but his actions are inconsistent with his words. The "Golden Motto" of the U. F. O. is "Equal Rights To All," in religious as well as in political spheres.

Let each one worship the same God in accordance with the honest dictates of their conscience.

We had a full Board of 13 Directors before Mr. Cooper "bolted." These 13 men—they were all men—were adherents to at least 6 different religious denominations, viz: Roman Catholic; Anglican, Methodist; Presbyterian; Lutheran and Evangelican, and all worked in harmony for the common weal of the common people, irrespective of sex, race, nationality or creed. Our common aim, from a humanitarian standpoint, was the betterment of the moral, social and economic status of the Common People here, and to attain the same eternal goal hereafter, was the object identical to all.

Our political opponents charge us with narrow, selfish, class motives, but we denied those charges, believing them to be untrue. Unfortunately, however, we find we had one individual on the Board, whose interpretation of "Equal Rights To All" was not very commendable, to say the least. As a proof of the sincerity of the Board regarding equality of justice, they are supporting a candidate, who is not of their sex, nor yet their creed. Miss McPhail says she is a member of the Church of "Latter Day Saints" and then Mr. Cooper "bolts" and says he cannot conscientiously support any candidate professing that religious belief. What assurance have we got that had the candidate been a Roman Catholic; or an Anglican or Methodist or Lutheran, Mr. Cooper would not have raised the same objection?— None. So far as we can learn, the moral standard of the members of the Church of "Latter Day Saints" is equal to any of the other religious denominations; and this letter is written at the request of the majority of the remaining 12 Directors. And all, I know, will coincide in expressing our confidence in our Candidate's ability, honesty and sincerity, notwithstanding the different view taken by our disgruntled ex-Director.

The man of Nazareth, the true interpreter of Life, made the measure of a man to consist in loving God and "Thy neighbor as thyself."

We would also take this opportunity of asking all Club Secretarys to endeavor to increase the political membership in their respective Clubs, as therein lies our only source of revenue. We have no "Election Sinking Fund."

Signed on behalf of the S. E. Grey U.F.O.—I.L.P. Political organization:
Pres., Joseph Goodfellow, Dundalk.
Vice-Pres., John Whiteford, Hanover.
Sec.-Treas., M. E. Murray, Neustadt.
Dated at Neustadt, Nov. 14th, 1921.

Political Acrostic

Right loyally you should note the sixth of December,
Judge for yourselves, and unanimously remember
Ball is the candidate whom you should elect,
As his policy is the one with least defect.
Let us know then by your votes, that Free Trade is not right,
Lest all the fads and faddists may show their might.

Another hold-up has been staged near Shelburne.

FEVERSHAM

Lieut. Gage and Secretary Styles of the S. A. Corps at Collingwood held week end meetings in the Salvation Army hall here on Saturday and Sunday. Come again ye S. A. officers.

The weather has been mild for the last week in fact spring-like days with rain have been on deck.

Something went wrong with the mail truck to Flesherton out at Hargrave's swamp last week. There was an explosion and pieces of the machinery flew in all directions and for a time Wm., the driver, felt very warm. He had his wrist badly hurt and has had it in a plaster of paris cast ever since. We are glad it was no worse old boy, and now we hear him whistling in the early morning. Its alright now, but it might have been worse.

(Intended for last week.)

On going into the blacksmith shop here on Monday, November 7th, we were much surprized when the blacksmith, Mr. M. Hurst, showed us two raspberry branches, which had been taken from the bush the Saturday before, in Thornbury, on which there were several ripe raspberies. Mr. Hurst informed us that he had raspberries and cream for tea the Sunday before at a friend's house in the lakeside town. Something unusual at this time of the year.

We were very sorry to hear of the death at his home in Ravenna, on Tuesday, November 8th, of an old and respected resident of Osprey Township in the person of Mr. Richard Pinch. The sympathy of the old neighbors is extended to the bereaved family.

Miss Sadie Julian is visiting with friends at Duntroon.

Mr. Thomson Alister is visiting with friends in the Queen City.

Mr. Bert. Conn was in Toronto last week consulting a Dr. about his leg, which was broken, near the hip, at the time he met with the accident out West last September, when he had his foot taken off with the belt of a grain separator. The Dr. told him that his leg would be alright.

Ms. R. J. Alexander and Clarence spent Sunday with friends in Collingwood.

Mrs. Robert Weller, of Maxwell, visited last week with Mrs. Sam. Brownridge and other friends in the village.

Miss Lillian Beatty has returned home, after a month's visit with friends in the Queen City.

Well, we are sure the Correspondent, who signed himself "Justice" in The Advance of November 3rd must feel a lot better since he got it out of his system. He makes very free use of some letters of the alphabet and we would advise him to be careful. He flirts around with the letter C, saying it stood for Correspondent and other words. We wonder if the other words he had in mind could be Check, Coop or Cotswool and say, Justice, be careful about using the letter S, because some people might think you meant Sand, Stones or Stockrack. Never use the letter H, because that particular capital letter might stand for Herb., Hoot or H—; if it is the latter, better get rough tread tires on your hind wheels, for fear you might skid. As to saying we ridiculed one of the same sex as our mother or wife, there is no comparison, as the women of their day knew their place and kept it. And we have never ridiculed even Miss McPhail or the organization she represents, but the story she told us here in Feversham. Then you know, when a woman steps up to take a man's place, she will have to stand the criticism a man would be subjected to in a like position. When Justice talks about honesty and justice, well, we have to smile, as there are some people in this world, who were behind the door when these two necessities were given out and did not receive any. And, Justice, the next time you want to express your opinion of the residents of villages and towns, don't use such high faluting language. If you do, you may open your mouth so wide you will never get it shut and that would be a serious menace to your locality.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to thank friends and neighbors for their many kindnesses during the long illness and passing of our husband and father, the late W. E. Richardson.
