For fifty years it has been lifting up the discouraged, giving rest to the overworked, and bringing refreshing sleep to the depressed.

THE THREE LITTLE SERVANTS.

I have a little servant
With a single eye,
She always does my bidding,
Very faithfully;
But she eats me no meat,
And she drinks me no drink,
A very clever servant, as you well may think.

Another little servant
On my finger sits,
She, the one-eyed little servant,
Very neatly fits;
But she eats me no meat,
And she drinks me no drink,
A very clever servant, as you well may think.

Now, one more little servant,
Through the single eye,
Does both the others' bidding,
Very faithfully;
But she eats me no meat,
And she drinks me no drink,
A very clever servant, as you well may think.

A needle and a thimble,
And a spool of thread,
Without the fingers nimble
And the knowing head,
They would never make out
If they tried a day,
To sew a square of patchwork, as you well may say.

—Troy Budget.

NO USE FOR ALCOHOL.

For more than fifteen years I have pursued my professional work in hospital and private practice, and while within the bounds of civilization have not found it necessary to administer alcohol. I am not at all prejudiced against its use. Beyond scientific medical associations, I belong to no temperance society. My action is based entirely upon scientific thought, observation and experience. I believe that in most and probably all cases disease can be better removed and surgical operations more successfully performed without its employment.—Dr. Charles Gilbert Davis.

HIS PERSONAL SCHEDULE.

Marse William, hey you got a overcoat what you don't want; or a beaver hat dat seen some service; or a p'ar er britches what don't fit you; or a weskit, speckled or unspeckled, or a undercoat wid de sleeves frazzled; or a p'ar shoes what run down at de heel, an ten cents ter git my dram wid? Ef you hex, Marse William, dese t'ings is what de ol' man needs, an needs bad."—Atlanta Constitution.

Good Health Is Impossible.

Without regular action of the bowels. Laxa-Liver Pills regulate the bowels, cure constipation, dyspepsia, biliousness, sick headache and all affections of the organs of digestion. Price 25 cents. All druggists.

Damage suffered makes you knowing, seldom rich.

Nearly all infants are more or less subject to diarrhoea and such complaints while teething, and as this period of their lives is the most critical, mothers should not be without a bottle of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial. This medicine is a specific for such complaints and is highly spoken of by those who have used it. The proprietors claim it will cure any case of cholera or summer complaint.

All wish to live long, but none to be called old.

DISEASE

and discomfort are not-ease and not-comfort. Ease is health; so is comfort.

You may as well be comfortable; that is healthy; as animals are. It is natural, both for you and for them.

If your ill health is caused by imperfect digestion, try Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. It does what it does by getting the stomach going right.

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

A FATAL ANSWER.

The smart lawyer is always intent upon getting at weaknesses in the character of the principal and witnesses on the other side. A Congressman, as a Washington paper relates, recently told the story of an exploit of his own, when, as an attorney for the defendant, he was examining the complainant in a certain case.

"His client, "Hat" Wheelock, had got into a quarrel with one "Pat" McDonald over a horse trade. The quarrel had gone so far that Mr. McDonald had made application to a magistrate to have Wheelock bound over to keep the peace, alleging that he had threatened to do him bodily injury.

When the case was called, McDonald testified to the circumstances under which Wheelock had threatened him. The cross-examination began.

"Now, Mr. McDonald," the lawyer said, "you declare that you are under the fear of bodily harm?"

"I am, sorr."

"You are even afraid for your life?"

"I am, sorr."

"Then you freely admit that Hat Wheelock can whip you, Pat McDonald?"

The question roused McDonald's "Irish" instantly.

"Hat Wheelock whip me? Niver!" he shouted. "I kin whip him, and anny half-dozen like him!"

"That will do, Mr. McDonald," said the attorney. The court was already in a roar, and the lawyer rested the case without further testimony or argument. The case was dismissed, for it was evident that Pat could not be under serious bodily fear of a man whom, in his own opinion, he had only to use one-seventh of his strength to whip.

A TINY PAINTING

A painting that is perhaps the smallest elaborate picture in the world, is the work of a Flemish artist. It occupies the smooth side of a kernel of white corn, and has in it many interesting figures.

So skilfully has the artist worked, that in the circumscribed space he has painted a picture of considerable latitude. There is to be seen a mill on a terrace, and a miller with a sack of flour on his back. By the building stand a horse and cart, and the artist has even found room for a roadway upon which he has painted a group of peasants.

Nervousness and Nerves.

The more nervous a man is, the less nerve he has. That sounds paradoxical—but it isn't: for nerve is stamina.

Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve. It tones the whole system, perfects digestion and assimilation, and is therefore the best medicine a nervous person can take.

If you get tired easily, mentally or physically, take it—it will do you good.

It is good to lend to God and to the soil. They pay good interest.

Parmelee's Pills possess the power of acting specifically upon the diseased organs stimulating to action the dormant energies of the system, thereby removing disease. In fact, so great is the power of this medicine to cleanse and purify, that diseases of almost every name and nature are driven from the body. Dr. D. Caswell, Caswell P.O., Ont., writes: "I have tried Parmelee's Pills and find them an excellent medicine, and one that will sell well.

What is sweet in the mouth is not always good in the stomach.

Regular action of the bowels is necessary to the health. Laxa-Liver Pills are the best occasional cathartic for family or general use. Price 25c. Any druggists.

A wound never heals so well that the scar cannot be seen.

The breath of the pines is the breath of life to the consumptive. Norway Pine Syrup contains the pine virtues and cures coughs, colds, bronchitis, hoarseness, and all throat and lung troubles, which, if not attended to, lead to consumption.

Another man's horse and your own whip can do a great deal.

Weak nervous or delicate men and women, whether overworked mentally or physically, will find nothing to equal Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills for restoring their health and building up their system.

That which is stamped a penny will never be a pound.

That aching head can be instantly relieved by taking one of Milburn's Sterling Headache Powders. 1 powder 5c., 3 for 10c., 10 for 25c.

Practical wisdom consists in saying the obvious thing at the right time. True courage consists in doing the obvious thing in an emergency.—"Guesses at Truth."

Children Cry for CASTORIA.

The millstone that lies undermost also helps to grind.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil cures all pain in man or beast; for sprains, cuts, bruises, callous lumps, swellings, inflammation, rheumatism and neuralgia it is a specific.

The poor man wants much, the miser everything.

There is no form of kidney trouble, from a backache down to Bright's disease, that Doan's Kidney Pills will not relieve or cure.

If you are troubled with any kind of kidney complaint, give Doan's Pills a trial.

There is no use blowing a fire that burns well.

Attention in the world of home opathic medicine has been its very source of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinions and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreement by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with most of our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and languor, "Quinine Wine,"—and which when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system, Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has, from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and and natural life-living stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognise and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop and Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skilled observation and scientific opinion has pointed out in the less perfect preparations of the latter.

Remember all who have ever shown us any kindness. May we never forget to be grateful.—Henry Ward Beecher.

Fagged Out.—None but those who have become fagged out know what a depressed, miserable feeling it is. All strength is gone, and despondency has taken hold of the sufferers. They feel as though there was nothing to live for. There, however, is a cure—one box of Parmelee's Vegetable Pills will do wonders in restoring health and strength. Mandrake and Dandelion are two of the articles entering into the composition of Parmelee's Pills.

We are born with faculties and powers capable almost of anything, but it is only the exercise of those powers which gives us ability and skill in anything, and leads us towards perfection.—John Locke.

Free and easy expectorations immediately relieves and frees the throat and lungs from viscid phlegm, and a medicine that promotes this is the best medicine to use for coughs, colds, inflammation of the lungs and all affections of the throat and chest. This is precisely what Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup is a specific for and wherever used it has given unbounded satisfaction. Children like it because it is pleasant, adults like it because it relieves and cures the disease.

Friendship is a strong and habitual inclination in two persons to promote the good and happiness of each other.—Addison.

Nine Boils On Neck.

Anyone who has ever been troubled with boils can sympathize with poor old Job. There was no Burdock Blood Bitters in those days, so Job had to suffer in silence. Now-a-days no one need endure the misery of boils.

All they have to do is take B.B.B. when their blood will be cleansed of all impurities and every boil will quickly disappear.

Miss Lydia Moody, Ruscom, Essex Co., Ont., sends the following statement of her case: "Some time ago my blood got so out of order that many boils appeared on my body and prevented me having any rest. I had nine on my neck at different times, and quite a number of small ones came on my shoulders and arms.

"Our next door neighbor, seeing the condition I was in, told me to take B.B.B. for my blood, and I did so.

"After I had finished the first bottle I found that some of the boils had disappeared and all the rest were getting much smaller. I then got two more bottles, and by the time I had these nearly all gone there was not a boil to be seen. Besides this, a headache, from which I suffered greatly, left me, and I improved so much in health that I am now a strong, robust girl."

THE VOLCANO—VESUVIUS.

Signor Mattenoci, who has been studying Vesuvius for many years, recently made a report on the activity of the volcano. From July, 1895, it kept constantly in action for more than four years, the flow of lava ceasing in September, 1899. The depth of the crater was then over 600 feet. Last April the lava rose to within 240 feet of the top, when a series of explosions within the crater began. Some blocks of lava were projected 1,000 feet perpendicularly into the air. One block weighed thirty tons, and Signor Mattenoci estimates that it took 610,000 horse power to eject it. 500,000 cubic yards of lava and ashes were belched forth in April and May. The crater is thirty feet higher than before, so that Vesuvius rises now 4,300 feet above sea level.

REST YOUR EYES.

The moment you are instinctively inclined to rub the eyes that moment cease to use them; also it is time to give your eyes a rest when you become sensible of an effort to distinguish. Cold water is about the safest application for inflamed eyes. Never sleep so that on awakening the eyes shall open on the light of a window. Never read or sew directly in front of the light of a window, the better light being that that comes from above or obliquely or over the left shoulder. Too much light is an evil, just as is a scant light. It creates a glare that pains and confuses the sight.

Some women cling to their own homes like the honeysuckle over the door, yet like it, fill all the region with the subtle fragrance of their goodness.—Henry Ward Beecher.

LAXA LIVER PILLS

Those who have used Laxa-Liver Pills say they have no equal for relieving and curing Constipation, Sick Headache, Biliousness, Dyspepsia, Coated Tongue, Foul Breath, Heart Burn, Water Brash or any disease or disorder of the stomach, liver or bowels.

Mrs. George Williams, Fairfield Plains, Ont., writes as follows: "As there are so many other medicines offered for sale in substitution for Laxa-Liver Pills I am particular to get the genuine, as they far surpass anything else for regulating the bowels and correcting stomach disorders."

Laxa-Liver Pills are purely vegetable; neither gripe, weaken nor sicken, are easy to take and prompt to act.

BEECHER'S BOYISHNESS.

The following story was evidently not told to illustrate intellectual dignity; but as an amusing anecdote of a great man who loved children, and shared their fun, it could hardly remain untold.

Dr. E. K. Cressey, of Brooklyn Hts., L. I., says that one day, when he was a small boy, his mother left the house, cautioning him and his brothers to be quiet and not romp while she was gone.

There was a hair-brush with which Mrs. Cressey was wont to punish violations of the domestic statutes when any such occured, and the youngsters promised to be good. Presently Mr. Beecher arrived to make a call upon the Cressey's, and found no one to receive him but demure looking boys. A flash of anticipation came into his eyes as he joyously told his young hosts to prepare for the romp of their lives.

"But mamma told us we mustn't romp," protested the future doctor of philosophy.

"I'll take all the responsibility," replied the great preacher.

When Mrs. Cressey neared the house on her return she heard indications of a small riot. Filled with indignation at this unheard of rebellion in her little republic, she rushed into the house, with words of rebuke trembling on her tongue.

At the door she paused, petrified. Henry Ward Beecher was flat on his back on the floor, with a parcel of young Indians apparently dancing a ghost dance on his prostrate form and emitting shrill yells. The spirit of the avenger immediately froze into silent consternation all the rebels except the arch insurgent. Climbing to his feet, the unabashed clergyman said:

"Mrs. Cressey, I promised my friends here to take all the responsibility for this outbreak, and" (there he reached the hair-brush and presented it to her with a Chesterfieldian bow) "I am ready to take whatever is due them. You may begin at once."

But for once there was an infraction of the laws in the Cressey household that was unpunished. Mr. Beecher went unspanked.

THE LIQUOR TRAFFIC.

All the arguments which are advanced to defend or to palliate its offensiveness, have an inherent weakness. The claim that it should be tolerated because it cannot be suppressed is a confession that it proposes to resist whatever legal enchantments are had against it. No plea can be offered in favor of licensing it that might not be used—terms only being changed—for licensing brigandage, or raising a revenue from bawdy houses. It is evil, evil only, evil continually. We must stamp it out. The sooner we do it the better it will be.

WHEN IT IS MISSED.

The other night at a supper a lawyer propounded this conundrum to a brother limb of the law:—"What's the difference between a fog and a lawyer?" His learned friend gave it up, whereat amidst the roars of laughter from the gentlemen assembled, the propounder calmly replied, "Why one's mist on earth and the other's missed in Heaven!"

Anxious mothers find Dr. Low's Worm Syrup the best medicine to expell worms. Children like it—worms don't.

Who has been cured of backache and kidney trouble by the use of Doan's Pills has written us as follows:

Mrs. Wm. Bishop, Palmyra, Ont., writes: I have used Doan's Pills for lame back and know they are an excellent pill, as two boxes completely cured me.

Mrs. J. T. Dagenais, Montreal, Que., writes: One year ago I suffered terribly with kidney trouble. I consulted several physicians and used their prescriptions without success. I saw Doan's Pills advertised, so procured a box and they made a complete cure.

Mrs. J. P. Griffith, Montague Bridge, P.E.I., writes: About six months ago I suffered terribly with weak and lame back. I took one box of Doan's Pills and am thankful to say that they cured me and I have not had any sign of my trouble since.
