A shooting match will be held on Friday afternoon of this week at Wm. Pedlar's, Collingwood gravel—rifle and shotgun shooting for 19 geese, fit for market. Use own ammunition, No. 4 shot.

Mr, W. Pedlar received word last week that his son, Hugh, of Oxbow, Sask., had received serious injury in a motor accident. The driver was speeding and the car turned turtle. Hugh was badly hurt inwardly and had his leg broken near the ankle. He was taken to Brandon hospital and is now on the mend. The party was out duck shooting. Hugh is a printer and learned his trade in The Advance office.

The deer hunters all returned last week from the wilds of Parry Sound after a very successful hunt. The Flesherton and Rock Mills parties had the best of luck, getting their full count. We are informed that the latter company got ten deer in about three days' shooting. If this is correct it probably beats the record. The Flesherton bunch got their game in about a week and a half, but were again frozen in this year and it took three days of hard labor to get out to the railway. But the hunt was an enjoyable one, nevertheless. Other parties were not so successful, some only getting two or three deer.

W. E. Richardson Passes

Another of the last remaining pioneers of this village, in the person of Mr. Wm. E. Richardson, druggist, passed away on Thursday of last week in his 84th year,

Mr. Richardson was born in Culgaith, Cumberland, England, on Dec. 24th, 1837. When a young man he was apprenticed to the drapery business in Penrith, then at Carlisle. He was also in business in London for fifteen years with Marshnall & Snellgroves. He came to Canada and to Flesherton in 1867. He went through veterinary college and started a drug business in Flesherton in 1873. This is now conducted by his son, Charles. Six years ago the deceased gentlemen was confined to the house through rheumatism, and since that time he has been unable to go out and for the past three years he has not been able to move without assistance,

Mr. Richardson was one of our most respected citizens, a brother of the late M. K. Richardson, and leaves besides his aged widow a family of four children. He was twice married. By the first wife there was one daughter, who is married and lives in Carlisle. There are three children by the second wife—Florence in Seattle, Charles and Josephine at home.

The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon last to Flesherton cemetery under the Masonic ritual, the devotional exercises being conducted by the Baptist pastor, Mr. Marks, deceased being an adherent of that denomination.

The floral tributes were exceedingly beautiful and included a spray from Mrs. Webster, another from Dr. E. K. Richardson of Toronto, and still another from Miss Maud Richardson of Kingston; a beautiful wreath from Geo. Richardson, spray from Dr. Murray and wife, wreath from the Baptist church, spray from Mrs. G. Mitchell, Mrs. Jos. Blackburn, Mrs. W. Moore and Miss Holmes, and floral emblem from Prince Arthur Lodge, A.F.&A.M.

Those who attended the funeral from Toronto were: Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Fred Bunt, Mr. Geo. Richardson and Mr. J. Latimer.

Mrs. William Chard

Mrs. Jessie Chard, relict of the late William Chard, died on Thursday of last week after a lingering illness.

Mrs. Chard was born in Aberdeenshire Scotland in the year 1849. There she married a Mr. Jeffrey, to whom were born three children—Fred Jeffrey of Toronto, Mrs. Robert McMullen of Euphrasia and Mrs. David McMullen of Osprey. She came out to Canada with her mother in 1874, after the death of her husband, and settled in Artemesia township. Here she married William Chard in 1883, the union being blessed with four children—Mrs. J. Hutchinson of Aberdeen, Sask.; William John of Osprey, Leslie and Arthur on the homestead. The funeral was held Sunday afternoon last to Flesherton cemetery.

Rev. Mr. Oke was again in the pulpit of the Methodist church on Sunday after his fortnight's holiday. At the evening service a men's choir of eighteen voices delighted the congregation. At the Young People's Society Monday evening Dr. Murray gave a lecture on the care of the teeth, illustrated by lantern slides.
