Miss McPhail at Maxwell

Editor Advance: The Maxwell correspondent must be a Tory, too, as we saw no account of the U F A meeting on the night of Nov. 11th. It being Armistice day, there was a short service appropriate to the occasion, conducted by the resident ministers, after which our candidate, Miss McPhail, gave a grand address on our National Policy and the U F O platform. Although the hall was packed and some had to go away, there was the best of order and a feeling of intense interest prevailed as the people listened to the plain truth in words easily understood even by the "crude and inexperienced farmers." The selections by the local orchestra showed that they were going the right way and their U F O Chorus brought down the house. At the close of the meeting an invitation was given to come forward. Many responded and gladly laid their all, in some cases, on the table and went home happy. Woe to the few who hardened their hearts and stiffened their necks. Just a word to the women. Are you going to have the honor of putting one from the County of Grey in as Member of Parliament, the first in the Dominion of Canada?

So you didn't see anything in the calf story, Priceville? Neither did anybody else. Do you see anything in this: The other evening as we listened to a political speaker we were reminded of a calf a farmer had, one that had drank too much milk for the exercise it took, consequently it was a poor shape. The farmer often wondered whether it would pay to winter it or not, but finally decided not, and along about the first week in December he dealt that calf such a blow that it never bawled again. Neither did the farmer. —RURALITE

Letter to The Editor

To whom it may concern:—

I do not know who your Feversham correspondent is, nor need I care. I have never written a letter to any paper to which I did not sign my name for publication. Perhaps this thing is none of my business; but the name Herb is not plentiful about here, nor need one be ashamed to be classed with any one owning that name in this part that I can think of just now. The fact that this, and other such letters, are written at this and former times such as this, is an endeavor to hurt the cause of the common people and the fact that I have been actively identified with that movement for years makes me think that possibly this Herb means me. If it does I am in distinguished company, for lies and lying insinuations are the treatment accorded to some of the best men and women in the Progressive movement just now. Mormon, expensive furniture for Ontario's premier, $185 for two chairs for the Ontario Minister of Agriculture, Biggs' motor trucks, etc., etc. It would seem hard that these mongers of misrepresentation have so little grog on hand this time that they have none to put under the hind seats of U.F.O candidates' cars to get them pinched, AND FAIL.

My character my friends know. My reputation among a certain class does not matter. My past and present are open to investigation.

Grey Co., —Herbert J. Neill

Deputations for Goods Roads at Co. Council

Wednesday is set apart by the County Council as "Deputation Day," and yesterday afternoon there were two deputations present. One consisted of Messrs Peter Munshaw and Mr. Carruthers, from Eugenia, asking the County Council to construct a road south from Kimberley to Eugenia. They spoke briefly of the advantages of that road as a county road as compared with a road proposed down the valley. More people would be benefitted, they claimed, by building the road on top of the hill than through the valley. Mr Munshaw said that thousands of autoists visited Eugenia Park, and many more would come when the pheasants arrived, for it was proposed to experiment with the raising of golden pheasants there.

It was probably an hour later when the contra deputacion from Markdale arrived. It was introduced by the Reeve of Artemesia and consisted of Messrs. John Weber, Tom Mercer, Frank Hill, Dr Ego and Dr Shepherdson. Each of these gentlemen expressed themselves very strongly in favor of the valley road as not only serving the public best, but being the cheapest to build, the other would eventually have to be built, as it was an actual necessity. The roads leading from the valley to the proposed road on the hill would be very long and very steep, while there was very little grade on the road that they advocated. There was also lots of road making material handy to the road. Mr. Mercer had appeared before the Council on three different occasions on this same mission. He said he was one of the heaviest taxpayers in the county and wanted to see the money spent wisely on roads, placing it where it would do the most good. Mr. Weber said that during the winter the valley road would have to be used anyway, as the upper road would be blocked with snow. Dr. Ego gave a remarkably fine address in advocating the improved valley road.

Warden Sing promised that the Council would take the matter into its serious consideration and complimented some of the speakers on the excellent way they had presented their case.—Sun Times

The council held the matter over until January session.—Ed. Advance.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mr. W. J. Boyd, who died Dec 2nd, 1920.

—Wife and Family.

EUGENIA

Mr Jacob Parliament passed away at his home here on Tuesday evening of last week after an illness of some months. Mr and Mrs Parliament retired from the farm some three years ago and settled in their comfortable home in Eugenia. Although not of a very robust nature he had wonderful vitality and was ever enthusiastic over any work that was of a benefit either to the community or the church, and always did a big share to help along any good cause. Being of a very kindly disposition he had many warm friends. He was a regular attendant of the Methodist church, as long as health would permit, and will be greatly missed in the church work. The funeral, which took place on Friday afternoon to Mt. Zion cemetery, was largely attended. Service was held in the Methodist church which was crowded with sympathizing friends and neighbors, who gathered to pay their last respects to a kind neighbor and friend. The floral tributes were beautiful. The ceremony was conducted by the pastor, Rev. Kippen, and the funeral was taken charge of by The Foresters of Maxwell. There are left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, a widow, five daughters, Mrs A Hoy, Eugenia; Mrs A Tuohy, Meaford; Mrs Emerson, Drayton; Mrs Garnet Magee, Eugenia, and Mrs L Lyons, Port Law; one son, Josiah, of Sask. Two boys, Stanley and Earl, made the supreme sacrifice in the great war in 1917. The deepest sympathy goes out to the family in their sore bereavement.

Miss Nea Williams has returned home after visiting friends in Toronto for the past month.

Edgar Sprott of Flesherton spent the week end with his friend, Ken Large.

Mrs. Harry Tate and two children of Rockwood have returned home after spending a week with her father and sister here.

A Carruthers and P. Munshaw waited on the County Council Thursday of last week and presented their petition re the valley road bylaw being passed in favor of the road being constructed as soon as spring opens from Hoy's corner on the gravel to the 14 h con.

Mrs Luman and babe of Toronto are visiting the former's parents, Mr and Mrs Jacob Williams.

P. Munshaw and T Berry have returned from their annual hunt and report a good time.

The teacher and pupils of the public school are busy preparing for a concert.

A. Hoy is erecting a neat barn at the back of his lot.

Little Miss Ferris of Feversham is visiting her aunt, Mrs Albert Williams.

Mrs James Genoe has been laid up with blood poisoning, but is on the mend again.

During the past year ending November 1st 1921, Mr Beckett, licence inspector, laid 99 informations in Grey County, and secured 70 convictions. $7710 was collected in fines, and three defendants went to gaol. In the Electoral District of Wellington he laid 39 informations, secured 20 convictions and collected $2685 in fines. This makes a total of $10,445 collected in fines by Mr. Beckett during the year. All cases, were prosecuted by the inspector himself, thus saving a very considerable amount in lawyer's fees.

PRICEVILLE

The sleet covered sidewalks during the last several days rendered walking somewhat dangerous. Mrs P A Ferguson fell at the Standard Bank corner on Thursday afternoon of last week and has been suffering for several days from the shock and bruises.

Mrs Mary McArthur, who has been suffering from paralysis for a number of weeks, passed away on Tuesday night, Nov 22, aged 70 years. She and her son, James, who is a C P R employee, lived at the old home on Elgin street. Her husband, Alex McArthur, predeceased her several years ago. When she became helpless her only daughter, Mrs Dobson, of Toronto, came up and carefully cared for the mother. The three sons, Archie, James and John, were also kind attendants at the sick bed. The funeral took place on Friday, Nov. 25. Rev C S Jones conducted the services at the home and at the grave, assisted by Rev R J McCarten.

Mr Robert Fisher, an old resident of South Glenelg, passed away on Wed, Nov 23, aged 77 years. He was unmarried and he retired from farming last year, and on the Saturday previous to his death he went to help Mr Alex McDonald of Dromore with his barn work. He took ill on Sunday with erysipelas in the head and died Wed. night. The funeral on Saturday last took place from the residence of his sister and brotherinlaw, Mr Donald McDonald, 19th con Proton, to the new public cemetery here. Rev C S Jones conducted service at the residence and cemetery.

We hope all our readers in the vicinity will keep in mind the Presbyterian Sunday school entertainment in the near future, also the concert in connection with the Methodist church in Watson's Hall, Dec 19, as these affairs will be interesting this year.

Was McPhail Audience

In it report of the nomination last week the Durham Review, a supporter of Mr. Hastie, gives one the impression that it believes his case is a forlorn hope. It says the convention was largely favorable to the lady candidate, and winds up an excellent report with the following comment:—

"All three speakers got a good hearing, and it was most regrettable this attitude was not continued to Mr. Ball in his ten minutes for reply. Some of the audience literally had "cold feet" with the long stand on the clay floor and it was indifference to hear more rather than intention to interrupt, that prevented Mr. Ball from getting a good reply. His parting shot was "if you want a reduction of 35c on your wheat, 25c on your potatoes,—more on your cattle and other products, vote for Miss McPhail," and this the majority of that big audience seem likely to do.

"Three cheers for the King and three more for Miss McPhail closed the meeting.

"That Miss McPhail has caught the imagination of the electorate in a high degree was evident from her reception in Hall and Rink. U.F.O. forces were in a majority in the audience and knew it.

"The speech of Miss McPhail was both condemned and commended according to the point of view. It can at least be said that she knew her audience and gratified it by caustic and mostly deserved condemnation of the powers that be.

"Mr. Ball should have known it was a McPhail audience by the time he essayed his 10 min. reply. A quip or light hearted joke from him would have won him both attention and votes. Of course no one justifies the discourtesy of the interruptions. It was the first time in the history of Durham that a Conservative candidate was turned down.

"Friends of the Maid of Ceylon were figuring on a four figure majority a the close of proceedings!!"
