A BOY'S MOTHER.

My mother she's good to me
If I was good as I could be
I couldn't be as good. No, sir,
Can't any boy be good as her.

She loves me when I'm glad or mad;
She loves me when I'm good or bad;
An' what's the funniest thing, she says
She loves me when she punishes.

I don't like her to punish me;
That don't hurt, but it hurts to see
Her cryin'—Man I cry; and Man
We both cry—an' be good again.

She loves me when she cuts and sews
My little coat and Sunday clothes;
And when my pa comes home to tea
She loves him most as much as me.

She laughs an' tells him all I said,
An' grabs me up an' pats my head;
An' I hug her an' hug my pa,
An' love him purt' nigh much as ma.

Nervousness and Nerve.

The more nervous a man is the less nerve he has. That sounds paradoxical—but it isn't; for nerve is stamina.

Hood's Sarsaparilla gives nerve. It tones the whole system, perfects digestion and assimilation, and is therefore the best medicine a nervous person can take.

If you get tired easily, either mentally or physically, take it—it will do you good.

A full purse is the best pocket companion.

A Boon To Humanity

Wherever there are sickly people with weak hearts and deranged nerves, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will be found an effectual medicine. They restore enfeebled, enervated, exhausted, devitalized or over worked men and women to vigorous health.

The dull man bores you, and the sharp one skins you.

Sick Headache, however annoying and distressing, is positively cured by Laxa-Liver Pills. They are easy to take and never gripe.

A matchless story is a novel that ends without a wedding.

Differences of opinion regarding the popular internal and external remedy, Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—do not, so far as known, exist. The testimony is positive and concurrent that the article relieves physical pain, cures lameness, checks a cough, is an excellent remedy for pains and rheumatic complaints, and it has no nauseatic or other unpleasant effect when taken internally.

It is far better to have large feet than a small understanding.

Mother Graves's Worm Exterminator does not require the help of any purgative medicine to complete the cure. Give it a trial and be convinced.

It's no pleasant to take that children cry for it; but it's death to worms of all kinds. Dr. Low's Worm Syrup. Price 25c. All dealers.

A clear conscience can bear any trouble.

Hagyard's Yellow Oil is prompt to relieve and sure to cure coughs, colds, sore throat, pain in the chest, hoarseness, quinsy, etc. Price 25 cents.

Courtesy is to man what daintiness is to woman—a beautiful thing to be known by.

FAT AND LEAN

That is, babies: fat, they are happy and safe; lean, they are neither happy nor safe.

Apart from being entirely healthy or not quite well, a fat one has much reserve of vital strength to resist any sudden attack, while the lean one has little or no reserve.

The way to be fat and well is Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil. A little: only a little. Not any, if healthy and plump already; "let well enough alone."

We'll send you a little to try if you like.
SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto.

A TRUE HERO.

Sometimes it requires more bravery to do a little thing all alone than to do a great thing in company with others. Thus a soldier may be a hero on the field of battle, but lack the courage to stand alone on a platform and make a speech.

Ralph Waldo Emerson, in his essay on "Heroism," says that genuine heroism is persistence. As an illustration he tells how his little son Waldo on his way to school had to pass a house where lived a French family. The child heard the family talking their native language, which he could not understand, and that made him have a sort of superstitious fear of them. So Mr. Emerson used to walk to and from school with the little fellow.

But one day he decided that the child was old enough to overcome his fear and pass the house of the French family by himself. He went to school with the lad and told him that he must return alone.

After school was dismissed Waldo walked manfully toward home until he had nearly reached the French house. Then he stopped, and leaning against the fence, began to whimper. Miss Elisabeth Hoar, a neighbor, saw him and went to the rescue. "Come, Waldo I am going your way and you can walk with me," said she.

The child looked up tearfully into her eyes a moment and then said in the most doleful voice: "I don't think that was what my father meant for me to do." Then he trudged on by himself.

WHAT ONE BOY COULD DO.

He was small for his age, worked in a signal box and booked the trains. One day the men were chaffing him about being small. One of them said: "You will never amount to much. You will never be able to pull those levers. You are too small." The little fellow looked at them. "Well," he said, "I can do something that none of you can do." "Ah, what is that?" they all cried. "I don't know that I ought to tell you!" They were all anxious to know and urged him to tell them what he could do that none of them were able to do. Said one of the men, "What is it boy?" "I can keep from swearing and drinking," replied the little fellow. There were blushes on the men's faces, and they didn't seem anxious for any further information on the subject.

The house of a tidy woman and a motion to adjourn are always in order.

The more checks a spendthrift has, the faster he goes.

Dyspepsia and Indigestion is occasioned by the want of action in the biliary ducts, loss of vitality in the stomach to secrete the gastric juices, without which digestion cannot go on; also being the principal cause of headache. Parmelee's Vegetables Pills taken before going to bed, for a while, never fail to give relief and effect a cure. Mr. F. W. Ashdown, Ashdown, Ont., writes: "Parmelee's Pills are taking the lead against ten other makes which I have in stock."

Trying to cut your own hair is shear nonsense.

Children Cry for
CASTORIA.

Marrying a man to reform him is like drinking whiskey to destroy it.

Cholera and summer complaint are so quick in their action that the cold hand of death is upon the victims before they are aware that danger is near. If attacked do not delay in getting the proper medicine. Try a dose of Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Dysentery Cordial, and you will get immediate relief. It acts with wonderful rapidity and never fails to effect a cure.

Common sense isn't so common that it is uncommonly common.

To Be Removed.

All the effete or waste matter of the system is removed by the perfect action of Laxa-Liver Pills. Thus they prevent as well as cure Sick Headache, Constipation, Billiousness, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Jaundice, etc.

Toronto, Ont.

Dear Sirs,—I write to say that I have used Burdock Blood Bitters with excellent results. Last spring my daughter got all run down and was very thin and weak.

Her face was covered with red spots and a large boil formed on her cheek. I procured 2 bottles of B.B.B., and by the time she had finished them the spots and boil disappeared and she has got strong and fleshy again.

I consider B.B.B. the best blood medicine known.

Attention in the world of homeopathic medicine has been its very source of progress, as in politics and religion—the difficulties of opinions and the individuality of men have been parent to the disagreement by which the standard of these bodies have been elevated. So with most of our famous preparations—foremost in illustration of which truth stands the world-famous remedy to general debility and anæmia, "Quinine Wine,"—and which when obtainable in its genuine strength, is a miraculous creator of appetite, vitality and stimulant, to the general fertility of the system. Quinine Wine, and its improvement, has, from the first discovery of the great virtues of Quinine as a medical agent, been one of the most thoroughly discussed remedies ever offered to the public. It is one of the great tonics and and natural life-giving stimulants which the medical profession have been compelled to recognize and prescribe. Messrs. Northrop and Lyman, of Toronto, have given to the preparation of their pure Quinine Wine the great care due to its importance, and the standard excellence of the article which they offer to the public comes into the market purged of all the defects which skilled observation and scientific opinion are pointed out in the less perfect preparations of the latter.

GUARD AGAINST INELEGANCIES OF SPEECH.

"Lapses in grammar do not offend when they are made by the illiterate who have not been taught propriety of speech. But they are exceedingly disgraceful in the educated person," writes Margaret E. Sangster, in the May Ladies' Home Journal. "Beyond mere correctness of expression there is such a thing as a beautiful choice of words, and there are hall-marks of culture which the rich vocabulary shows, while the meagre one convicts of ignorance and poverty of resource. Colloquialisms and provincialisms are caught by those who live constantly among the unlearned, but the influence of this contact may be modified by a daily study of words, as in a lexicon or thesaurus, and by the habitual reading of good books. Insensibly we acquire the speech of our associates, and a favorite author, if he belongs to the aristocracy of the literary guild, is one of the best associates we can have."

A CLEVER CHINEE.

"An amusing thing occured while I was at Yokohama," says a recently returned traveller. "An official notice of the government which had been published in the Japanese newspapers says that all Chinese who desired to depart must do so by a certain date or else remain until the war was over. Thereupon, Ah Bhing, a big clothing dealer of 16 Water Street, called all the Chinese together, and they all agreed to go. They got their goods to the dock, and finally aboard steamer, with themselves, and the steamer pulled out. At the last minute it was found that the wealthy merchant had held his goods and slipped back to the city. He at once resumed business, having got rid of all opposition merchants, and is now rolling in riches."
