Heavy Weights In Owen Sound

Owen Sound should have considerable weight in the councils of the mighty this year. They have a Mayor that weighs 234 pounds, a President of the Board of Trade that weighs 225 pounds, an M. P. that weighs about the same, and a secretary of the Board of Trade that weighs well over 200 pounds. If weight counts then this city is a sure winner. The four mentioned weigh about 900 pounds. Sun—Times.

$1000 Fine Or Six Months

An Orangeville despatch says:—a fine of $1,000 or six months in jail was the sentence imposed on Joseph Sullivan, of Toronto, here by Police Magistrate Falconer, of Shelburne. The charge against Sullivan was of unlawfully having liquor in a place other than a private dwelling without a license. "I have no doubt in giving decision against Mr. Sullivan," said the Magistrate. "There is too much of this going on in the province and it has to be stopped." The case was the outcome of a seizure of 59 bottles of liquor made here on Sunday afternoon by License Inspector T. J. Robinson, assisted by Constable James and Samuel Ewing, Sullivan was found in an automobile in a lane south of the main street with the liquor. He was under the influence of liquor, according to the evidence of one of the constables.

Hydro Lineman Hurt

Joseph Corkill, a hydro patrolman, who makes his headquarters at Eugenia, and works on the Owen Sound and Collingwood lines, is lying in the General and Marine hospital in a rather serious condition as a result of injuries which he sustained a week ago.

He was doing some work at the top of a pole in the "sinkhole," about three miles north of Markdale. He was in the act of throwing his safety belt about the pole when in some way he lost his hold and fell, lighting on his back on a pile of stones. He was taken to the hospital in Owen Sound where it was found that two of his ribs were broken at the back and he was otherwise badly shaken up.

Although Mr. Corkil's injuries are not regarded as very serious, yet he will be confined to his bed at the hospital for some time, as he is badly shaken up —O. S. Sun Times.

The Advance was misinformed. It was not Geo. Proctor who suffered the accident as reported.
