Flesherton Advance.

Vol 42, No. 34 — Flesherton, Ont., February 2 1922

PRICEVILLE

Just sufficient snow to make good roads during last week, and many of the villagers are putting in a good supply of stove wood.

The annual meeting of the local Agricultural Society was held on Saturday afternoon Jan 21. The financial report was read, which was audited by E D Hogg and Bert Aussem, and showed a good balance in the treasury for 1922. A number of those present were anxious to have a field crop competition in white oats and swede turnips, which will be carried out when ten or more members have signed up for each competition. A good board of officers and directors was elected for the ensuing year as follows; President, Dan MacMillan; 1st Vice, Thos Nicoll; 2nd Vice, Dan Campbell; Sec-Treas., T A M Ferguson; Directors—W W Ramage for Egremont Twp, David Nicol for Glenelg, Robt Knox for Proton; Artemesia and outside world, H R McLean, C A McLean, Joseph Ferris, W R Meads; Priceville village, Rev C S Jones and Dr McIntyre. Auditors for 1922, E D Hogg and Bert Aussem.

D Campbell had a number of teams drawing brick last week. He intends building a dwelling house next summer.

Mrs M McPhail, formerly of the gravel road west of the village, seems to be in failing health, but she is now with her daughter, Mrs A McKechnie, where she will receive the best of care.

Alex McLachlan, who has been for a number of years out West, or in the U S, is here at present visiting friends. He s an elder brother of Don McLachlan of town.

Some of our young men complain of "dull times," no employment, but A and J Hazard Bros seem to have all the work they can possibly do. They have cut a lot of wood in the vicinity, also a lot of other work.

Toronto Line North

We are glad to report Ross Alcox getting better after a severe attack of quinsy.
