A lady writing to The Advance from Fergus, Ont., says: "I noticed in your paper dated Jan. 5, 1922, in the Bible the word 'girl' occurs but once. The word 'girl' occurs in Joel 3 3 and in Zechariah 8 5"—Mariah Hutchinson.

An item going the rounds of the press states that the proposed tax of one cent a gallon for gasoline will not be on the consumer. Like fun it won't! Catch a dealer paying that tax without passing it on to the consumer. We guess not!

The Advance job department was never so well equipped for doing fine job printing of all classes as it is today. During the past month we have added nearly a hundred dollars worth of new job type faces, fancy and plain, and are prepared to let nothing get by us in the way of neat job printing. Try us once for your next bit of printing.

The annual meeting of Artemesia Dis. A committee of those interested again waited on the County Council Thursday last with a view to having the valley road taken over as a county highway. Strenuous opposition developed, more noticeably from the fire eating Reeve of Durham. It was eventually decided to hold the matter over until the June session, when the County Council as a body will examine the road in order to vote intelligently on the question. Among those who attended from here were H Down, F H. W. Hickling, F. G. Karstedt and A. E Bellamy.

The annual meeting of Artemesia Royal Scarlet chapter was held in Clayton's hall, Flesherton, Saturday, Jan 21, when seven members were exalted to the Royal Scarlet and the following officers elected: Wor Comp in Command W J Sutherland; E Comp in Command, Chas Moore; Comp Scribe, W M Davis; Comp Chaplain, Thos Bentham; Comp Treas, F W Duncan; S H Herald at Arms, D McLeod; Comp 1st Lect, G Cairns; Comp 2nd Lect, F Wright; 1st Conductor, H Lever; 2nd Conductor, J Beatty; Inside Herald, B Stegill; Outside Herald, G Stewart. Discussing the country weekly newspaper business the Walkerton Times-Herald says: With printers so scarce and wages so high that the publisher has to send a paper from ten to twenty years to pay a man one week's wages; with a reduction in the price of newsprint for 1922 of but 1¼ cents a year on an eight column eight page paper, and with postage doubled on New Years, there is no class of industry on the face of the earth at the present time so hard hit as the newspaper publisher, save the farmer. And the farmer enjoyed war prices during the war while newspapers were published at a loss throughout the entire four years of the war.

The prize list of the Kimberley poultry show will appear next week.

A curious thing occurred on Sunday in the Methodist church, when a sparrow in some way managed to get down one of the organ pipes and was unable to get out again before the organ was used at the evening service The pipe had to be taken down before the bird could be released and the service proceed. The pastor thinks it was the right church but the wrong pew.

The high school auditorium was crowded on Monday evening to see the travelogue pictures sent by the Dominion Government. The pictures were good and showed much of the natural resources of Canada, each province and the cities. The Department loans these to the different literary societies of the high schools to help educate the people.

Miss Agnes McPhail, M.P., had another narrow escape while she was campaigning for the Progressive candidate in Grenville. The train she was riding on was wrecked near Ottawa, but she happened to have got off at Kemptville shortly before. It will be remembered she had another close call at Mt Forest when a car in which she was riding was nearly run down by a Grand Trunk engine during the campaign last fall.

William Owen, 20 years old, committed suicide by hanging himself to a beam in M. Dalton's barn in Ashfield Township. He had been doing some work around the barn, and when meal time came and he did not answer the call, Mr Dalton, went into the barn and found the young man hanging. Owen was a boy from a school in Toronto and had been in the locality of Clinton working for a farmer there when he got into trouble for abusing the stock. The farmer had him up in court for breaking a calf's leg and knocking the eye out of a horse, for which he served a short time in the Goderich Jail. Since then he has been in Ashfield. While there he was considered quiet and very good company, and no reason for his act can be given.

Bad Fire In Dundalk

The C. P. R. Depot in this place had a narrow escape from destruction by fire early Wednesday morning. It was shortly after four o'clock when one of the inmates of the house in connection with the station was awakened by the blaze which got started in the wall of the waiting room facing the Queen's Hotel. The alarm was soon given and the fire bell aroused the villagers, The fire brigade was quickly on hand and put up a good fight with the assistance of others. The village pumping apparatus was well handled and with a couple of small chemical extinguishers the fire was well under control in half an hour or so. The wall was burned through in a large hole at place of starting and the blaze had worked its way inside up to the peak of the building, but in spite of this start the place was saved. In addition to the fire considerable damage was done in the waiting room with water. It is not known how the blaze originated.—Herald

No Apology Needed

The Meaford Mirror is installing a new type setting machine and had its own troubles getting out a paper last week. This is its cheery wail: "The Mirror this week is not up to its usual standard in the matter of the local news. There were many items which we were unable to handle on account of the small wreck which was created by the instalation of a linotype. After having to remove a large portion of the wall of the building thus baring the interior to the icy blasts of zero winds from the Georgian Bay, the staff spent a large part of the remaining time tripping over odd pieces of machinery and boxes, while ye editor, when not engaged in endeavoring to create a reasonable temperature with his lurid vocabulary paced the sanctum trying to figure out hownell he was going to issue a paper. Nevertheless next week we hope to be in a better position to meet our obligations to our readers, unless like Wellington's cartoons, 'the worst is yet to come.'"

A lady advertised for a man to work in her garden and two men applied for the job. While she was interviewing them on the lawn she noticed that her mother was making signs for her to choose the shorter of the two men, which she finally did. When the ladies were alone, the daughter said: "why did you signal me to choose the shorter man mother? The other man had a much better face," "Face" returned the old lady. When you are picking out a man to work in your garden you want to go by his overals. If they are patched on the knees, you want him, but if they are patched on the seat, you don't
