While workmen were unloading some deer for the Pheasant Island menagerie one day last week a crate fell and the animal it contained was liberated. A merry chase was then entered upon. The little animal gave a nice exhibition of fence jumping and finally brought up in Malcolm Ferguson's barnyard with his cattle. The bunch was then driven into the stable, a strange thing about it being that the deer led the way. It was a yearling.

Mr. Ed Best of town injured his leg last summer and it has been troubling him ever since. Last week he went to Toronto and had an x ray examination when it was discovered that a ligament had been torn. His limb has been put in a plaster cast, where it will have to remain for six weeks. Walter Thompson

A sad death occurred on Wednesday of last week when Walter Thompson, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Thompson of Flesherton, passed away at his home, Stone's line, at the early age of 28 years. In July of last year he was stricken with a slight paralytic stroke while working on a pole at Chatsworth for the hydro, but was able to reach the ground without falling. He then left the hydro, with whom he was employed, and his father purchased a farm for him on the Stone line last fall, where he has since been residing. He leaves a wife and two little children—a daughter two years old and son six months old. Week before last he had another attack and this was followed by several others, until noon on Wednesday he passed away. The funeral took place to Flesherton cemetery on Friday afternoon. The sorrowing family have the sympathy of many in their bereavement.

The pallbearers were Thos. A. Bowers, R. Vail, L. Smith, Geo. McTavish, Geo. Brackenbury and Ernie Proctor.

The friends from a distance were: Mr and Mrs. R. W. Thistle, Mrs H. Vail and son R. W,, Mrs Albert Callandar, and Mr Thomas Albert Bowers, from Shelburne; Mr George Thompson and Joseph Thompson from Maxwell.

The New Fashion

Perhaps the fashion hasn't reached Meaford yet. If not look for it. We mean the new order which decrees that unbuckled goloshes seen flopping along the street proclaim the fair wearer to be a Free State and therefore open to matrimonial entanglements. A girl is engaged or not, according to the use she makes of her buckles. If her goloshes are unloosed so are her affections. The ring, symbol of subjection, is out of date. Meaford Mirror.

New Developments At Pheasant Island

The developments at Pheasant Island in the hydro pond at Eugenia have been going on apace during the past week, and a new objective has been presented by those responsible, nothing less than the inauguration of a deer park. Three animals were unloaded at this station last week as a unclens for a deer ranch there. A large load of pheasant feed—probably dried flies and grubs—was also delivered at this station here last week. Wha the next move will be we do not know, but will try and keep our readers informed. Events ought to move along quite fast out there. Several of our exchanges have now opened their guns on this foolish squandering of public funds, and we may soon expect to see the fur fly. The promoters must come out into the open and let the public into their confidence or the member for South Grey will get a jolt that will waken him up. Here is a chance for him to do something—a chance which should arouse him from his lethargy, if anything will.

The other day Mr. John Boland, a man of standing in this community, told the Advance that our suggestion that the experimenters include a groundhog department in their activities, with a view to improving its fur, was along the right line. "The groundhog," Mr. Boland said, "never had a place in society.' Now is an opportune time, as pheasant Island is already honeycombed with groundhog holes. The stock is right there. It would no doubt pay quite as well as the pheasants to breed groundhogs for the Italion quarter in Toronto, even if the improvement of its fur proved a failure.

THE FARMERS' PAPER EVERY OTHER DAY

The Farmers' Sun, which has been enlarged and improved, is now published EVERY OTHER DAY. This forward step was taken at the earnest request of Sun readers who wished a farm newspaper which would give a summary of world news, more frequent markets (for which the Sun is noted), together with a paper which is sympathetic to the farmers' viewpoint. All these are found in the Sun. No other farm paper equals the Farmers' Sun in the service it renders to its readers.

When you subscribe for a farm paper, subscribe for the Farmers' Sun, owned by the farmers and published in their interests. The subscription price of the tri-weekly Sun is only $2 00 per year or three years for $5 00. Why spend $5 00 for a city daily when you get all you require through the Farmers' Sun for $2 00 per year? Address all letters to the Farmers' Sun, Toronto.
