Our philosopher friend of the Owen Sound Advertiser says there is nothing in the yarn about Owen Sound and Windsor competing for the C.P.R. boat traffic, but proceeds to remark that if we had said Port McNicoll he could have understood it. What's the difference ? Windsor by any other name would smell as sweet.

Some of our exchanges are chronicling the arrival of big eggs. Well, we believe we have them all faded with a couple of enormous eggs which were shown us one day last week by Jimmie Stewart of town. Each of these eggs weighed twelve ounces, or a pound and a half for the pair, and measured in circumference 9 inches by 11¾ inches. We will swear to size and weight. No, they were not ostrich eggs—goose eggs, you know.

We are coming to the time of the year when the cleaning up and brightening of our homes and property is to take place. Nothing is better for a town than to have its visitors see a good clean town with well kept streets, and it is up to each citizen to help this along by commencing right away and cleaning up the streets in front of their property and also their back yards. The latter is compulsory by law, to have healthful living quarters.

The debate held in the Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening of last week by the Guild was largely attended and an interesting evening was spent. The negative side won on the subject "Resolved that professions offer greater opportunity for service to humanity than does business." The debaters were : for the affirmative Messrs Fraser and Pedlar and Miss Kathleen McDonald ; negative Mr. Ferrier and Misses Ferris and Beatty

Just one month more till fishing starts.

Dr. Leeson, M. P. P. for South-east Grey, has promised The Advance an authorized statement from the Dept. of Game and Fisheries, of the activities at Eugenia, which have been the subject of so much criticism. This has not arrived at time of writing, but will be here in time for next week.

A debate was held by the Y.P.S. of the Methodist church in the basement on Monday evening when the subject was : "Resolved that a special municipal tax should be levied on all bachelors over 35 years of age." The affirmative was taken by Messrs H. Toms and W. Armstrong ; the negative by Messrs S. E. deCudmore and C. Jennett. Some good arguments were brought forward for both sides, but the judges gave the decision to the affirmative by a small margin. All bachelors are hereby warned to take heed to the general thought of the public on this very serious matter !

Ban to Be Removed

Latest reports from England indicate that the Government's attitude towards lifting the cattle embargo has taken a favorable turn. Colonel Sir Alexander Sprout, member for East Fife, will shortly move a resolution in the House of Commons favoring the removal of the ban.

It is expected that the bill will pass through the House, but will meet with strenuous opposition in the House of Lords. The British press during the past few weeks has generally been favorable to the lifting of the embargo.

High School Receives

And Entertains Visitos To A Two Days' Exhibition

The high school here put on what might be termed a chatauqua for Friday and Saturday of last week, when large members of citizens attended this unique treat. One of the class rooms was devoted to Art Productions of the pupils, presided over by Miss King. This exhibit was extremely creditable to both teacher and pupils.

The Science room was devoted to an exhibition of old relics, curios, heirlooms, etc. This was the first exhibit of its kind ever got together in Flesherton and proved a great attraction, as one can well understand when informed that there were quite five hundred items donated for the occasion. The hundreds who visited this department were astonished and pleased at the great variety and quantity of curios shown. Thers were primitive agricultural tools, old crockery, old documents, one of which bore the signature of Sir Isaac Brock, Indian relics, rare old chinaware, old firearms dating back to the Crimean war, swords, an old Japanese sword guard inlaid with gold, collection Canadian postage stamps, exhibits of rubber from tree to manufactured article, silk worm work, mineral specimens, and a host of other things too numerous to mention as the sale bills say. And this does not represent nearly all that might be gathered up here if more time were devoted to the task We appear to have the antiquarian spirit well developed here.

The assembly hall was devoted to several programs of an instructive aud entertaining nature. Friday afternoon was devoted to a Strathcona drill by forty girls, boys' rifle and physical drill, dumbbell, wand and club drills by the girls.

Friday evening a varied but choice program was given including a sword dance by Miss Kathleen MacDonald, a Highland schottische and a mixed quartet. But the big item for the evening was an oratorical contest by pupils. In the seniors Maud Acheson got first with a 5 cash prize, subject The Indian; Mildred Whittaker second, subject The British Empire; Albert Buchanan third, subject Bees. In the Juniors Edgar Sprott secured first, subject Cotton and the Spinner, with demonstrations by Miss Hemphill and Mrs. Wilcock, second, Geo. Akins secured 2nd. with an original speech on Agriculture. A demonstration of phonographs, old and new was given by Mr. de Cudmore.

Saturday afternoon Mr. Stewart Cooper gave a demonstration of Babcock method of testing milk for butter fat and tobacco growing in Ontario by moving picture. Slides of birds were also shown, and described by Rosella Stevens. This was especially interesting.

Saturday evening a lantern exhibition of the lumber industry and forestry, supplied at the Department of Forestry at Ottawa. There were also a number of views of waterpowers of Canada, including a view of Eugenia taken by The Advance man some years ago.

There were fireworks on the lawn each evening. A small sum of ten cents was charged, which produced enough funds to cover all expenses. The affair is considered a big success, and both teachers and pupils are to be congratulated. The intention is to make this an annual affair

Wm Hammell, of Beeton, lost 17 head of cattle—nine thoroughbreds and eight others—through the feeding of sweet clover, which was infected with some sort of specific poisoning. The seventeen cattle died in a period of ten days. Mr. Hammell's loss is estimated at $2.500. —Orangeville Banner

To Be Daily Paper?

Owen Sound Sun-Times to Commence Daily Issue

Grey County is likely to possess a daily newspaper in the near future.

Although no official mention has been made to that effect, The Advance has it on good authority that shortly the Owen Sound Sun-Times is to commence a daily issue to the people of Owen Sound and vicinity. A city the size of Owen Sound should easily support a daily paper and the change should be a success right off.

The Sun-Times at present is issued semiweekly and is a newsy sheet and well patronized by its local advertisers. The Sun-Times has got a splendid field to work in, having bought out the Chatsworth News and the Hepworth Progress. We wish the Sun-Times success in their undertaking.
